Sidcup A Pictorial History:

Sidcup John Mercer,1994 Sidcup is a pleasant place to live It is full of trees and there are parks and open spaces Beneath the spread of modern housing lie four ancient settlements and four great estates whose outlines still affect the topography of Sidcup The villages of North Cray and Foots Cray were there before the Norman Conquest while Halfway Street was a village in the Middle Ages Sidcup itself was a mere hamlet where an inn and a smithy were established The estates of Frognaal Foots Cray Place Lamorbey and the Hollies all gave employment Letters from Normandy John Mercer,2010-10-15 One man s story from the last year of the Second World War based on his memory letters sent to his mother and the Official War Diaries New Arrivals in American Local History and Genealogy, Quarterly List Sutro Library,1995 Historical Dictionary of London Kenneth John Panton,2001 Panton details London s growth from its foundation in Roman times to its modern place as one of the world s preeminent financial commercial and cultural capitals Entries cover general themes such as immigration housing street markets and health care as well as specific topics including individual historic buildings financial institutions museums transport modes major city center hotels and West End theaters Significant contributors to the city s government such as the legendary Dick Whittington also receive attention along with immigrant groups and major events such as the Great Fire the Great Plague the development of the subway system and the growth of the Stock Exchange In addition a chronology details major events there are lists of Lord Mayors and leading local government officials and a table outlines population growth over the last two hundred years Appendices contain borough council contact information and world wide web addresses which provide access to additional information through the Internet The Local Historian ,2002 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin British Sport: Local histories Richard William Cox,2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Designing the Seaside Fred Gray,2006 In Designing the Seaside Fred Gray provides a history of seaside architecture from the 18th century to the present day investigating leisure entertainment taste fashion and gender and shows how the seaside even became a hotbed for moral and sexual issues from the early use of bathing machines to twentieth century beauty pageants and naturist groups He relates the evolution of resort architecture to sweeping changes in how seaside nature was experienced and used by holidaymakers The book also traces the history of the coastal resort with examples ranging from Regency Sidmouth to Victorian Scarborough and early 20th century Morecambe as well as assessing seaside developments in the USA and Continental Europe from Coney Island and Santa Barbara to Nice and Trouville Featuring many colourful informative and often entertaining photographs drawings guidebook illustrations postcards and publicity posters from resorts around the world Designing the Seaside is a thoroughly readable as well as a visually fascinating account of changing attitudes to

holidaymaking and its setting BOOK JACKET The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 British Sport - A Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox,2014-02-04 Volume two of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Air Pictorial and Air Reserve Gazette ,1956 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Writings on British History ,1977
Scarlett's Women Helen Taylor,1989 In this entertaining and informative book Helen Taylor is the first to seek reasons for Gone With the Wind s success among viewers and readers The author asked fans to relate their experiences with the work to explain their fascination with the story and describe its impact She not only explains the enduring appeal of the work but also identifies different kinds of response at particular historical moments especially World War II and through the past five decades by women of different classes races and generations The result is a book that is sophisticated accessible and revealing Scarlett s Women is a book for every fan and for all students of film and popular culture Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The United States Catalog ,1965 Twentieth Century Industrial Archaeology Michael Stratton,Barrie Trinder,2014-04-04 This book examines the industrial monuments of twentieth century Britain Each chapter takes a specific theme and examines it in the context of the buildings and structure of the twentieth century The authors are both leading experts in the field having written widely on various aspects of the subject In this new and comprehensive survey they respond to the growing interest in twentieth century architecture and industrial archaeology The book is well illustrated with superb and unique illustrations drawn from the archives of the Royal Commission on the Historical Monuments of England It will mark and celebrate the end of the century with a tribute to its remarkable built industrial heritage Town Records John West,1983 London's Transport Recalled Martin Jenkins,Charles Roberts,2019-05-30 A portrait of midcentury London and its trams trains trolleybuses ferries and more filled with color photos from 1948 1969 The rich variety of transport in the London area is reflected in this color album from Martin Jenkins and Charles Roberts Using mainly previously unpublished color views from the period 1948 1969 they have assembled a remarkable array of views covering all modes of transport The reader is taken on a fascinating journey of discovery not knowing what will be around the next corner encountering buses trams and trolleybuses main line steam diesel and electric London Transport electric and steam as well as little known industrial railways activities on the Thames in docks and on canals liners ferries and pleasure steamers plus aviation and even a coal merchant s horse drawn cart Captioned images in stunning color have been selected wherever possible to show changing streetscapes buildings and fashions bringing the period to life This book is a tribute to those photographers who had the foresight to record these scenes before they were swept away in the name of progress The Publisher ,1916 The Athenaeum ,1876
