Sierra Leone Diamonds And The Struggle For Democracy:

Sierra Leone John L. Hirsch, 2022 Sierra Leone's bitter experience with civil war garnered international attention only after the May 1997 coup though the conflict between the Revolutionary United Front RUF and successive governments had raged for at least a decade against the backdrop of more than three decades of progressive state collapse John Hirsch traces Sierra Leone's downward spiral drawing on his first hand experience as US ambassador in Freetown in 1995 1998 Hirsch analyzes the historical social and economic contexts of the struggle as well as the impacts of regional and international powers Topics covered include the exploitation of mineral resources in the country the involvement of private security forces and the flawed efforts at peace negotiations

Military Interventions in Sierra Leone Larry J. Woods, 2010 Analyzes the massive turmoil afflicting the nation of Sierra Leone 1995 2002 and the efforts of outside forces to bring stability to that small country The taxonomy of intervention ranged from private mercenary armies through the Economic Community of West African States to the U N and the U K In every case those who intervened encountered a common set of difficulties that had to be overcome Unsurprisingly they also discovered challenges unique to their own org and political circumstances Serving soldiers can often profit vicariously from the mistakes of others as recounted in detailed case studies of historical events A cautionary tale that political leaders and military planners contemplating intervention in Africa ignore at their peril

Crimes against Humanity M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2011-04-25 This book traces the evolution of crimes against humanity CAH and their application from the end of World War I to the present day in terms of both historic legal analysis and subject matter content The first part of the book addresses general issues pertaining to the categorization of CAH in normative jurisprudential and doctrinal terms This is followed by an analysis of the specific contents of CAH describing its historic phases going through international criminal tribunals mixed model tribunals and the International Criminal Court The book examines the general parts and defenses of the crime along with the history and jurisprudence of both international and national prosecutions For the first time a list of all countries that have enacted national legislation specifically directed at CAH is collected along with all of the national prosecutions that have occurred under national legislation up to 2010

Humanitarian Economics Gilles Carbonnier, 2015-01-03 While the booming humanitarian sector faces daunting challenges humanitarian economics emerges as a new field of study and practice one that encompasses the economics and political economy of war disaster terrorism and humanitarianism Carbonnier's book is the first to present humanitarian economics to a wide readership defining its parameters explaining its utility and convincing us why it matters Among the issues he discusses are how are emotions and altruism incorporated within a rational choice framework How do the economics of war and terrorism inform humanitarians negotiations with combatants and shed light on the role of aid in conflict What do catastrophe bonds and risk linked securities hold for disaster response As more actors enter the humanitarian marketplace including private firms Carbonnier's revealing portrayal is especially timely as is his critique of the transformative power of crises      The Prophecies of a Father H.E. Ambassador Eddie M. Turay, 2013-10-09 The Prophecies of A Father is a remarkable piece of literary work The writer His Excellency Ambassador Eddie M Turay is very sincere and passionate in the presentation of his facts The facts relate to the culture traditions customs and party politics of his country The writers sincerity and passion revolves around the traditional beliefs and faith of his benevolent father in his ancestral spirits late Paramount Chief Kande Turay of Sanda Chieftdom He reveals that the late man was an animist who despite neither believed nor practiced Christianity and Islam yet he gave him the freedom and support to become a practicing Christian His father was not only liberal towards the two mainstream religions Christianity and Islam but he was a great admirer of the Whitemans education That was why he gave him his blessings and support to pursue education for which he will ever remain grateful Paramount Chieftaincy is one of the oldest and respectable political institutions in this part of the African Continent The writer has thrown enlightening lights on the way it works in the Sanda Chieftdom Northern Sierra Leone One more amazing revelation of the book is the prophecies of the writers father As the title of the book it is befitting because all that his father prophesied have come to pass His father did prophesise that the writer will dine and drink with Royalties Prime Ministers and Presidents at home and abroad which has come to pass In terms of his countrys national politics he paints the picture of the political culture that existed at the time It bordered on dysfunctional tendencies which was disturbing to him as an espouser of democracy and social justice Thus educated and trained in the ethics of social justice and fairness the Ambassador was determined to challenge these vices Ironically it was his zealousness to challenge them that made him steal the heart of late President Siaka P Stevens The President was impressed so he convinced him to drop his legal practice and become a politician where he would have the opportunity to fully inculcate and defend the values of fair play and social justice as espoused by democratic ethos particularly at the grassroots levels of the nations politics The writer skilfully draws the contrasts between the Old and New APC and above all the successful leadership of President Ernest Bai Koroma Leader of the APC He registers his unwavering support for the New APC Party of which he is a profound member and her admirable leadership This book is an eye catching read as well as educative for its sincerity passion fun simple and quality language and buttressed by ideal concepts HE Ambassador Eddie M Turays colleagues in the Diplomatic Service Foreign Office as well as politicians and educational institutions at home and abroad will find this book a handy resource material on Sierra Leone politics      Jurisprudence of International Criminal Justice Farhad Malekian, 2014-06-30

Introduction written by Professor Benjamin B Ferencz This challenging volume examines the jurisprudence of international criminal justice from various points of view The philosophy of justice may vary from time to time and from nation to nation depending on prevailing attitudes towards the substantive rules which deal in one way or another with cultural norms In the national and international area the principles of criminal justice have a key role in examining the scope of the most serious violations of international criminal law It is on the basis of appropriate judgment that these principles may be accumulated and achieved for the future conduct of man This volume therefore examines the principles and dimensions of the constitutions of various international criminal tribunals courts with particular focus on the Statute of the International Criminal Court ICC As such the volume offers a comprehensive evaluation of the rule of law and criminal justice and their legal tasks within the complementarity system of international criminal jurisprudence The volume emphasises the prosecution and punishment of all those who may successfully escape from the proceedings of national and international criminal courts because of their juridical political religious economic or military power It demands the implementation of international law of jus cogens The provisions of the Statute should not be deduced in contradiction to the norms from which no derogation is possible such as prohibitions governing crimes against humanity torture apartheid rape war crimes genocide and aggression If the value of the task of the Court is to be realised by the majority of states in the international community the cycle of impunity has to be abolished in the case of all states including the five permanent members of the Security Council of the United Nations

War, Conflict and Human Rights Chandra Lekha Sriram, Olga Martin-Ortega, Johanna Herman, 2014-01-16 War Conflict and Human Rights is an innovative interdisciplinary textbook combining aspects of law politics and conflict analysis to examine the relationship between human rights and armed conflict This second edition has been revised and updated making use of both theoretical and practical approaches Over the course of the book the authors examine the tensions and complementarities between protection of human rights and resolution of conflict including the competing political demands and the challenges posed by internal armed conflict analyse the different obligations and legal regimes applicable to state and non state actors including non state armed groups multinational corporations and private military and security companies explore the scope and effects of human rights violations in contemporary armed conflicts such as those in Sierra Leone Sudan the Democratic Republic of Congo the former Yugoslavia and Cambodia and reflect on recent events of the Arab Spring assess the legal and institutional accountability mechanisms developed in the wake of armed conflict to punish violations of human rights law and international humanitarian law such as the ad hoc tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda and the International Criminal Court as well as other mechanisms of transitional justice discuss continuing and emergent global trends and challenges in the fields of human rights and conflict analysis This volume will be essential reading for students of war and conflict studies human rights and international humanitarian law and highly recommended for students of conflict resolution peacebuilding international security and international relations generally

Evaluating Peacekeeping Missions Sarah-Myriam Martin- Brûlé, 2016-07-15 This book offers a new perspective on peace missions in intra state wars based on comparative field research In theoretical terms this book proposes a new definition of peace operation success based on two crucial elements the re establishment of order and the accomplishment of the mandate The work presents a new typology for assessing peace operations as failures partial failures partial successes or successes This focus on blurry outcomes provides a clearer theoretical framework to understand what constitutes successful peace operations It explains the different outcomes of peace operations based on the type of success failure by outlining the effects of the combination of the key ingredients strategy and the type of interveners Empirically this book tests the saliency of the theoretical framework by examining the peace operations which took place in Somalia Sierra Leone and Liberia This book refutes the classification of these three cases as the worst context for transitional politics and demonstrates that peace operations may succeed partially or totally in challenging contexts and that the diverse outcomes are better explained by the type of intervener and the strategy employed than by the type of context This work shows that for a peace operation in an intra state war the adoption of a deterrence strategy works best for re establishing order while the involvement of a great power facilitates the accomplishment of the mandate This book will be of much interest to students of peacekeeping conflict resolution civil wars security studies and IR in general

Ethnicity and the Long-term Perspective Alexander Keese, 2010 The debate about ethnicity in sub Saharan Africa has come to an uneasy consensus in the 1990s but it has to be asked if we are really close to a solution How can comparative and historical views help to inform the debate In this work seven scholars bring in a long term perspective to ethno cultural solidarities which they explore within a multi disciplinary framework This return to the heart of the ethnic group twenty five years after Elikia M Bokolo's and Jean Loup Amselle's path breaking reinterpretation of ethnicity in Africa argues for a reappraisal of approaches to ethnicity that have been adopted in recent decades Focusing on two major geographical regions of the African continent Senegambia including Guinea Bissau and Sierra Leone and the area of Southern Tanzania and the northern half of Mozambique the chapters in this volume provide a new historical interpretation of the processes of identity building in sub Saharan Africa

Studies in Law, Politics and Society Austin Sarat, 2010-03-05 This volume of Studies in Law Politics and Society contains a sampling of work from some of the most promising junior scholars in the next generation of the law and society community Nominated by their advisors or mentors their work explores some of the newest areas of law and society research as well as brings fresh insight to bear on enduring

Peace Studies for Sustainable Development in Africa Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2022-10-26 This book presents a snapshot of a major challenge and shares subjective views on various areas of conflict in Africa and the diverse theoretical and practical efforts to achieve peace Following an essential review of several real world conflict contexts on the African continent and attempts to come to terms with them critically as a first step the book explores the lessons learned to date with regard to peace studies in Africa

Building Sustainable Peace Tom Keating, W. Andy Knight, 2012-07-02 As the world turns its attention to the reconstruction of Afghanistan and Iraq following recent conflicts in these countries the issue of post conflict peacebuilding takes centre stage This collection presents a timely and original overview of the field of peace studies and offers fresh analytical tools which promote a critical reconceptualization of peace and conflict while also making specific reference to peacebuilding strategies employed in recent international conflicts

War Crimes and Human Rights William Schabas, 2008

This is a collection of essays and articles on human rights law and international criminal law authored by William Schabas one of the most prominent contemporary scholars and practitioners Particular attention is given to such topics as the limitation and abolition of the death penalty genocide and crimes against humanity the establishment and operation of the International Criminal Court and the ad hoc international criminal tribunals truth and reconciliation commissions reservations to human rights treaties and the implementation of international human rights norms in domestic law

African Conflicts and Informal Power Mats Utas, 2012-09-13 In the aftermath of an armed conflict in Africa the international community both produces and demands from local partners a variety of blueprints for reconstructing state and society The aim is to re formalize the state after what is viewed as a period of fragmentation In reality African economies and polities are very much informal in character with informal actors including so called Big Men often using their positions in the formal structure as a means to reach their own goals Through a variety of in depth case studies including the DRC Sierra Leone and Liberia this comprehensive volume shows how important informal political and economic networks are in many of the continent s conflict areas Moreover it demonstrates that without a proper understanding of the impact of these networks attempts to formalize African states particularly those emerging from wars will be in vain The Internationalization of Internal Conflicts Amy L. Freedman, 2016-04-29 Internal security crises from environmental disaster extreme poverty and deprivation armed conflicts or ethnic or religious conflict provide sites of opportunity for those seeking to internationalize conflicts Domestic conflicts in Africa the Middle East and Southeast Asia have started as internal problems but have taken on regional and international dimensions as parties to the conflict within the country and sympathetic external forces have joined forces with each other for mutual gain This book examines the international dimension to internal conflicts and asks under what conditions do domestic conflicts become opportunities for regional or global actors to become involved Why have some countries been able to successfully deal with this problem while others have not Who are the actors who seek to internationalize conflicts Why and with what means do they become involved and how do their agendas get internalized localized Cases include the separatist movements in the Philippines Southern Thailand Aceh Indonesia and the civil wars in Rwanda Congo and Sierra Leone Liberia Lebanon and Iraq This book finds that a combination of greater democratization internally coupled with constructive outside mediation efforts can produce conditions necessary to prevent conflicts from escalating or diffusing and can facilitate peace building Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Asian Security Crafting Peace Sasha Lezhnev, 2005-01-01 Crafting Peace analyzes warlords in depth including their organizational structure and the context in which they operate ultimately exploring the effectiveness of various short and long term strategies to deal with warlords Instead of focusing strictly on economic causes the focus here is on the extremely frail political security environment that allows warlords to rise up seize power and profit in the midst of chaos This deeper political context under analyzed in other texts in terms of its effect on warlordism is crucial to understanding both

why warlords arise and how they should be dealt with This book suggests a two pronged strategic approach to help craft peace unseating certain intransigent warlords through immediate coercive measures and taking away the anarchic environment in which these actors thrive by implementing several policies aimed at rebuilding law and order over the long term Sasha Lezhnev discusses this approach by looking at real world cases in Sierra Leone and Tajikistan Crafting Peace presents a new way of looking at eliminating warlords and restoring peace in war torn states that will prove essential to both scholars and practitioners in international relations and political science

States of Violence Edna G. Bay, Donald Lewis Donham, 2007 By focusing on the participation and consequences for ordinary people this collection offers a fresh perspective on the eruption of violence in sub Saharan Africa None of the contributions takes the easy way out either by claiming any special propensity of Africans to violence or by calling attention to titillating aspects of the violence itself Rather they offer thick descriptions of particular violent episodes to develop their contexts and the larger causes that made them happen The case studies drawn from field research in Guinea Bissau Nigeria Rwanda Sierra Leone South Africa and Zimbabwe search for the meaning of specific instances of collective violence to the individuals caught up in them Nelson Kasfir Dartmouth College This coherently assembled set of contributions illuminates crucial aspects of the disorder and insecurity afflicting much of contemporary Africa The potent social force of a marginalized youth generation is explored in its different manifestations in a variety of settings by an excellent roster of scholars Crawford Young Emeritus Professor of Political Science University of Wisconsin Madison Unmatched in its ethnographic depth and attention to critical dimensions of African conflicts This volume cuts across the continent and across several intertwining themes to provide highly contextual analyses within a well defined framework Catherine Besteman Colby College editor of Violence A Reader

Identifying the Enemy Emily Crawford, 2015-07-23 Over the past twenty five years significant changes in the conduct of wars have increasingly placed civilians in traditional military roles employing civilians to execute drone strikes the targeted killing of suspected terrorists the use of private security contractors in combat zones and the spread of cyber attacks Under the laws of armed conflict civilians cannot be targeted unless they take direct part in hostilities Once civilians take action they become targets This book analyses the complex question of how to identify just who those civilians are Identifying the Enemy examines the history of civilian participation in armed conflict and how the law has responded to such action It asks the crucial question what is direct participation in hostilities The book slices through the attempts to untie this Gordian knot and shows that the changing nature of warfare has called into question the very foundation of the civilian military dichotomy that is at the heart of the law of armed conflict

Non-state Special Operations Ian Rice, Craig Whiteside, 2025-07-25 This book examines how violent non state actors VNSAs emulate and develop military special operation capabilities Building on previous research on Islamic State special operations the book develops a theoretical framework surrounding a typology of VNSA militants proxies criminal cults and mercenaries to explore variations of non state special operations with multiple cases for each category of actor Understanding when and why VNSAs use special operations provides insights into the inner workings of such groups and how they campaign and also has implications for the proliferation of special operation forces around the globe and its influence on non state behavior This volume contributes to research on the recent trend of non state actors surprising and in some cases humiliating their state opponents This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies defense studies and security studies
