Siete Arboles Contra El Atardecer:

Siete árboles contra el atardecer y otras poemas Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 1987 Siete árboles contra el atardecer Poesía selecta Pablo Antonio Cuadra, Jorge Eduardo Arellano, 1991 Obra poética Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 1980 completa: Siete árboles contra el atardecer y otras poems Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 1987 Obra poética completa: Siete arboles contra el atardecer y otros poemas Pablo Antonio Cuadra, Obra poética completa Pablo Antonio Seven Trees Against the Dying Light Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 2007-10-23 Printed in Spanish with facing English translations the poems are supplemented by an introduction with an ecocritical focus and by complete notes on botanical historical mythological and sociopolitical references BOOK JACKET Obra poética completa: Siete árboles contra Modern Nicaraguan Poetry Steven F. White, 1993 This work el atardecer y otros poemas Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 1983 demonstrates that twentieth century Nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of France and the United States Ever since Ruben Dario established Hispanic America's literary independence from Spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in Nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of French and North American authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly Nicaraguan literary identity This process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in Nicaraguan poetry certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from French literary forebears others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to North American soil This division is a provisional experimental means of grouping Nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities Presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the Nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues This rigorous but flexible approach to modern Nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward God and the end of the world into a timeless Nicaraguan landscape invaded by U S Marines beyond a contemporary urban portrait of Los Angeles through the horrifying European battlefields of World War I and the trenches of Nicaragua's revolution against the Somoza dictatorship The English speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent Nicarguan poets whose works are the subject of this book but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of Nicaraguans Alfonso Cortes Salomon de la Selva Jose Coronel Urtecho Pablo Antonio Cuadra Joaquin Pasos Carlos Martinez Rivas and Ernesto Cardenal is worthy of serious study Furthermore the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by Baudelaire Rimbaud Mallarme and Supervielle or in an American context by poets such as Whitman Pound Eliot and Masters A relatively small country with a rich diverse tradition in poetry Nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater recognition Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria Saramago, 2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new Thomas Merton Mario Aguilar, 2011-03-18 A fresh exploration angles that call into question the nature culture boundary of Merton's life and thought focusing on his role as a Christian activist Written by an author who combines a contemplative life with political action this is an inspirational book that will encourage readers to work towards a more just world
