Major Film Theories An Introduction:

The Major Film Theories J. Dudley Andrew, 1976 The Major Film Theories J. D. Andrew, 1976-08-19 Dudley Andrew is a master at making the world of film theory accessible to a largely mystified public Since the publication of his Major Film Theories a classic in the field the sophistication of the debate concerning the proper approach to film has grown It is now the province of critics and universities instead of directors and artists and this book concentrates on the main areas of the debate rather than on the individual figures Andrew provides lucid explanations of theories which involve perceptual psychology and structuralism semiotics and psychoanalysis hermeneutics and genre study Throughout he presents his own strong views on the relationship of film theory to criticism history and analysis His clear approach to often obscure theories goes a long way towards bringing an important area of cultural discussion out of its academic exile THEœ MAJOR FILM THEORIES James Dudley Andrew, 1980 The Major Film Theories J.D. Major film theories (the); an introduction J. DUDLEY ANDREW, 1976 Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Film and Video Editing Theory Michael Frierson, 2018-03-28 Film and Video Editing Theory offers an accessible introductory guide to the practices used to create meaning through editing In this book Michael Frierson synthesizes the theories of the most prominent film editors and scholars from Herbert Zettl Sergei Eisenstein and No l Burch to the work of landmark Hollywood editors like Walter Murch and Edward Dmytryk In so doing he maps out a set of craft principles for readers whether one is debating if a flashback reveals too much if a certain cut clarifies or obscures the space of a scene or if a shot needs to be trimmed The book is grounded in the unity of theory and practice looking beyond technical proficiency in a specific software to explain to readers how and why certain cuts work or don t work Brutal Vision Karl Schoonover, 2012 How spectacular visions of physical suffering in post World War II Italian neorealist films redefined moviegoing as a form of political action Films and Dreams Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2007 Readies for Bob Brown's Machine Brown Bob Brown, 2019-10-14 Critical facsimile edition making crucial modernist texts available for the first time since 1931 Restores a rare but highly influential modernist anthology to print in a new critical facsimile edition Provides extensive scholarly commentary analyses and newly discovered biographical information setting the anthology in its broader cultural context Offers the first collection of avant garde writing designed to be read on a reading machine invented by the American expatriate poet Bob Brown Includes both Craig Saper's new Introduction and a separate chapter on the Contributors and their readings Saper is the leading scholar of Bob Brown's work as well as an important scholar of experimental writing media publishing and art This new edition of Bob Brown's groundbreaking collection of modernist writing experiments has been out of print since 1931 when Brown's Roving Eye Press originally published it Only a few copies exist in archives today The contributors include major modernist writers such as Gertrude Stein William Carlos Williams F T Marinetti Eugène Jolas and Ezra Pound key social realists like Kay Boyle and James T Farrell and daring queer novelists and artists including Charles Henri Ford and Sidney Hunt Providing extensive scholarly commentary analyses and newly discovered biographical information this book sets the anthology in its broader cultural context This is an essential resource for those interested in print and book history the politics and culture of the expatriate avant garde and the reading machine's impact on reading writing and literacy Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo

Testa, 2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa's work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art DV-Made China Zhen Zhang, Angela

Zito, 2015-05-31 In 1990s post Reform China a growing number of people armed with video cameras poured out upon the Chinese landscape to both observe and contribute to the social changes then underway Happening upon the crucial platform of an older independent film movement this digital turn has given us a DV China that includes film and media communities across different social strata and disenfranchised groups including ethnic and religious minorities and LGBTQ communities DV Made China takes stock of these phenomena by surveying the social and cultural landscape of grassroots and alternative cinema practices after the digital turn around the beginning of the new century The volume shows how Chinese independent amateur and activist filmmakers energize the tension between old and new media performance and representation fiction and non fiction art and politics China and the world Essays by scholars in cinema and media studies anthropology history Asian and Tibetan studies bring innovative interdisciplinary methodologies to critically expand upon existing scholarship on contemporary Chinese independent documentary Their inquiries then extend to narrative feature activist video animation and other digital hybrids At every turn the book confronts digital ironies On the one hand its portability facilitates forms of radically private film production and audience habits of small screen consumption Yet it also simultaneously links up makers and consumers curators and censors allowing for speedier circulation more discussion and quicker formations of public political and aesthetic discourses DV Made China introduces new frameworks in a Chinese setting that range from aesthetics to ethical activism from digital shooting and editing techniques to the politics of film circulation in festivals and online Politics the authors urge travels along paths of aesthetic excitement and aesthetic choices conversely always bear ethical consequences The films their makers their audiences and their distributional pathways all harbor implications for social change that are closely intertwined with the fate of media culture in the new century of a world that both contains and is influenced by China

The Curious Humanist Johannes von Moltke, 2016-06-21 During the Weimar Republic Siegfried Kracauer established himself as a trenchant theorist of film culture and modernity and he is now considered one of the key thinkers of the twentieth century When he arrived in Manhattan aboard a crowded refugee ship in 1941 however he was virtually unknown in the United States and had yet to write his best known books From Caligari to Hitler and Theory of Film Johannes von Moltke details the intricate ways in which the American intellectual and political context shaped Kracauer's seminal contributions to film studies and shows how in turn Kracauer's American writings helped shape the emergent discipline Using archival sources and detailed readings von Moltke asks what it means to consider Kracauer as the New York Intellectual he became in the last quarter century of his life Adopting a transatlantic perspective on Kracauer's work von Moltke demonstrates how he pursued questions in conversation with contemporary critics from Theodor Adorno to Hannah Arendt from Clement Greenberg to Robert Warshow questions about the origins of totalitarianism and the authoritarian personality about high and low culture about liberalism democracy and what it means to be human From these wide flung debates Kracauer's own voice emerges as that of an incisive cultural critic invested in a humanist understanding of the cinema

Cinema Gordon Gray, 2020-05-26 Cinema A Visual Anthropology provides a clear and concise summary of the key ideas debates and texts of the most important approaches to the study of fiction film from around the world The book examines ways to address film and film experience beyond the study of the audience Cross disciplinary in scope Cinema uses ideas and approaches both from within and outside of anthropology to further students knowledge of and interest in fiction film Including selected globally based case studies to highlight and exemplify important issues the book also contains suggested Further Reading for each chapter for students to expand their learning independently Exploring fundamental methods and approaches to engage this most interesting and vibrant of media Cinema will be essential reading for students of anthropology and film

The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology Defining Cinema Peter Lehman,1997 On film studies

Hugo Munsterberg on Film Hugo Münsterberg,2013-09-05 Hugo Münsterberg's The Photoplay 1916 is regarded as the first serious work of film theory In this new edition Allan Langdale provides a critical introduction and collects numerous hard to find writings on film by Münsterberg Münsterberg argues that film is a unique medium because it speaks the language of the mind For example he equates the close up with the act of attention and the flashback with the act of memory His writings are fascinating accounts of the psychological elements of film and provide valuable insight into the reception of film as art at the beginning of the century Hugo Münsterberg on Film will be of great interest not only to film theorists and historians but also those interested in the history of psychology Film and History James Chapman,2017-09-16 Film is the pre eminent mass medium of the modern age It is a valuable source of evidence for the study of both the past and the contemporary world and is a social practice that has affected the lives of millions How can historians engage with this important and influential medium Written for both students and teachers Film and History provides a concise accessible introduction to the use of film in historical enquiry and a summary of the main theoretical debates Charts the development of film history as a subject area and a discipline in its own right Considers different approaches to film history including film as an art form as ideology as a historical source and as a social practice Includes case studies to ground discussion of theories and approaches in specific examples Wide ranging and authoritative Film and History equips students with the methods both to analyse film texts and to understand the place of film in history and culture From Eileen Chang to Ang Lee Peng Hsiao-yen,Whitney Crothers Dilley,2014-01-10 In 2007 Ang Lee made an espionage thriller based on the short story Lust Caution by Eileen Chang China's most famous female author of the twentieth century The release of the film became a trigger for heated debates on issues of national identity and political loyalty and brought unexpectedly harsh criticism from China where Ang Lee was labelled a traitor in scathing internet critiques whilst the film's leading actress Tang Wei was banned from appearing on screen for two years This book analyses Ang Lee's art of film adaptation through the lens of modern literary and film theory as well as featuring detailed readings and analyses of different dialogues and scenes directorial and authorial decisions and intentions while at the same time confronting the intense political debates resulting from the film's subject matter. The theories of Freud, Lacan, Deleuze, Bataille and others are used to identify and clarify issues raised by the film related to gender, sexuality, eroticism, power, manipulation and betrayal. The themes of lust and caution are dealt with in conjunction with the controversial issues of contemporary political consciousness concerning patriotism and the Sino-Japanese War, complicated by divided historical experiences and cross-Taiwan Strait relationships. The contributors to this volume cover translation and adaptation, loyalty and betrayal, collaboration and manipulation, playing roles and performativity, whilst at the same time intertwining these with issues of national identity, political loyalty, collective memory and gender. As such, the book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian cinema and literature as well as those interested in modern Chinese history and cultural studies.
