Nothing but Love in God's Water Robert Darden, 2016-09-02 Volume 1 of Nothing but Love in God's Water traced the music of protest spirituals from the Civil War to the American labor movement of the 1930s and 1940s and on through the Montgomery bus boycott This second volume continues the journey chronicling the role this music played in energizing and sustaining those most heavily involved in the civil rights movement Robert Darden former gospel music editor for Billboard magazine and the founder of the Black Gospel Music Restoration Project at Baylor University brings this vivid vital story to life He explains why black sacred music helped foster community within the civil rights movement and attract new adherents shows how Martin Luther King Jr and other leaders used music to underscore and support their message and reveals how the songs themselves traveled and changed as the fight for freedom for African Americans continued Darden makes an unassailable case for the importance of black sacred music not only to the civil rights era but also to present day struggles in and beyond the United States Taking us from the Deep South to Chicago and on to the nation's capital Darden's grittily detailed lively telling is peppered throughout with the words of those who were there famous and forgotten alike activists such as Rep John Lewis the Reverend Ralph Abernathy and Willie Bolden as well as musical virtuosos such as Harry Belafonte Duke Ellington and The Mighty Wonders Expertly assembled from published and unpublished writing oral histories and rare recordings this is the history of the soundtrack that fueled the long march toward freedom and equality for the black community in the United States and that continues to inspire and uplift people all over the world

Flaming? Alisha Lola Jones, 2020 Male centered theology a dearth of men in the pews and an overrepresentation of queer males in music ministry these elements coexist within the spaces of historically black Protestant churches creating an atmosphere where simultaneous heteropatriarchy and real masculinity anxieties archetypes of the alpha male preacher the effeminate choir director and homo antagonism are all in play The flamboyant male vocalists formed in the black Pentecostal music ministry tradition through their vocal styles gestures and attire in church services display a spectrum of gender performances from hyper masculine to feminine masculine to their fellow worshippers subtly protesting and critiquing the otherwise heteronormative theology in which the service is entrenched And while the performativity of these men is characterized by cynics as flaming a similar musicalized fire that of the Holy Spirit moves through the bodies of Pentecostal worshippers endowing them religio culturally physically and spiritually like fire shut up in their bones Using the lenses of ethnomusicology musicology anthropology men s studies queer studies and theology Flaming The Peculiar Theo Politics of Fire and Desire in Black Male Gospel Performance observes how male vocalists traverse their tightly knit social networks and negotiate their identities through and beyond the worship experience Author Alisha Jones ultimately addresses the ways in which gospel music and performance can afford African American men not only greater visibility but also an affirmation of their fitness to minister through speech and song Ebony ,2000 Congressional Record United States.
