Creating Identity in the Victorian Fictional Autobiography Heidi L. Pennington, 2018-04-30 This is the first book length study of the fictional autobiography a subgenre that is at once widely recognizable and rarely examined as a literary form with its own history and dynamics of interpretation Heidi L Pennington shows that the narrative form and genre expectations associated with the fictional autobiography in the Victorian period engages readers in a sustained meditation on the fictional processes that construct selfhood both in and beyond the text Through close readings of Jane Eyre David Copperfield and other well known examples of the subgenre Pennington shows how the Victorian fictional autobiography subtly but persistently illustrates that all identities are fictions Despite the subgenre s radical implications regarding the nature of personal identity fictional autobiographies were popular in their own time and continue to inspire devotion in readers This study sheds new light on what makes this subgenre so compelling up to and including in the present historical moment of precipitous social and technological change As we continue to grapple with the existential question of what determines who we really are this book explores the risks and rewards of embracing conscious acts of fictional self production in an unstable world

Between Illusionism and Anti-Illusionism Marek Pawlicki, 2014-07-03 Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism Self Reflexivity in the Chosen Novels of J M Coetzee takes as its premise J M Coetzee s distinction between illusionism and anti illusionism the realist and the self reflexive traditions in prose fiction The aim of this critical study is to demonstrate that these two traditions are not opposed but rather complementary to each other and enrich the novel as a genre Based on Marek Pawlicki s doctoral thesis the book is a detailed analysis of Coetzee s oeuvre paying particular attention to the impact of the writer s literary essays on his fiction Insofar as it looks into the ways in which Coetzee s work as a critic has affected his novels this book deals with the relation between fiction and literary criticism Chapter One is an introduction into the topic of self reflexivity Chapters Two to Five devoted to Dusklands In the Heart of the Country Age of Iron and Summertime are concerned with the issue of subjectivity in confessional discourse and the boundary between fiction and autobiography Chapters Six to Eight concentrating on Foe Slow Man The Master of Petersburg and Elizabeth Costello offer insight into Coetzee's views on literary creation and the role of the writer in society Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism also examines intertextual references in Coetzee's novels to the works of Tolstoy Dostoevsky Kafka and Beckett

Poetry, Poets, Readers Peter Robinson, 2002 Poetry Poets Readers is a defence of poetry against the protective moves which claim that poets never lie because they never affirm or that their poems exist in a separate world These much re iterated manoeuvres for safe guarding poetry by banishing it from an active role in life can paradoxically go hand in hand with a poet's yearning for the authority of a legislator Through detailed considerations of poetry by Shakespeare Keats Yeats Auden Elizabeth Bishop and Paul Muldoon along with sustained meditations on question forms in poems the role of fact in fictions the nature of literary value speech acts and performative utterances issued by poets the book sets out a fresh model for relationships between poetry poets and readers one which allows the historical fact of poems having made things happen to be itself happening Peter Robinson himself an award winning poet explores what we do by imagining when we read or write poems In describing how poetry poets and readers make things happen the poet offers us an invitation and implies a promise Taking up the one we find out how to keep the other

Invitation to the Jesus Life Jan Johnson,2014-02-27 To encounter Jesus daily and have a relationship with Him changes everything our focus becomes eternal Experience Jesus in such a way that His love drenched others focused nature shapes your character The spiritual practices in each chapter will challenge you to go deeper with Him Reading from the Underside of Selfhood Lisa E. Dahill,2009-01-01 Dietrich Bonhoeffer s example of self sacrificing discipleship has for over fifty years inspired Christians around the world in both their resistance to evil and their devotion to Jesus Christ Yet for some readers particularly those who suffer trauma abuse and other forms of violence Bonhoeffer s insistence on self sacrifice on becoming a person for others may prove more harmful than liberating For those already socialized into self abnegation uncritical applications of Bonhoeffer s teachings may reinforce submission rather than resistance to evil This study explores Bonhoeffer s understandings of selfhood and spiritual formation both in his own experience and writings and in light of the role of gender in psycho spiritual development The central constructive chapter creates a mediated conversation between Bonhoeffer and these feminist psychologists on the spiritual formation of survivors of trauma and abuse including not only dimensions of his thinking to be critiqued from this perspective but also important resources he contributes toward a truly liberating Christian spirituality for those on the underside of selfhood The book concludes with suggestions regarding the broader relevance of this study and implications for ministry The insights for spiritual formation developed here provide powerful proof of Bonhoeffer s continuing and concretely contextualized relevance for readers across the full spectrum of human selfhood

Making Sense Ralf Hertel,2021-07-26 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist s eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader s imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading
