Critical Multicultural Education Christine E. Sleeter, 2024 This volume collects Christine Sleeter's core work focusing on critical multicultural education situating culture and identity within an analysis of power and racism Multicultural education arose in the context of the Civil Rights Movement and in its inception shared with that movement a focus on eradicating both interpersonal and systemic racism The problem this book takes up is that over time many people have come to understand and enact multicultural education in ways that evade grappling directly with racism This dilution has happened for several reasons including White teachers rearticulations of multicultural education as getting along or learning to be colorblind and neoliberal reforms that have reduced it to a celebration of cultural diversity while maintaining silence about racism This volume includes ten of Sleeter's articles that explicitly locate multicultural education within critical understandings of race racism and colonialism offering both theoretical and practical discussions of what that means A deeply researched contextualized and nuanced account of multicultural education H Richard Milner IV Vanderbilt University This beautiful and intersectional volume needs to be required reading in every school of education Robin DiAngelo coauthor of Is Everyone Really Equal This book is an important intervention on the side of racial justice in education Wayne Au editor Rethinking Schools Encyclopedia of Language and Education Ruth Wodak, P. Corson, 2012-12-06 This volume covers basic fields of Sociolinguistics and the Sociology of Language both macro and micro domains are presented in the fields of language teaching minority languages and problems of language acquisition as well as practical issues of curricula planning and textbook writing This book addresses students and scholars in the social sciences as well as public officials in education language teachers and textbook writers The Role of the University in the Preparation of Teachers , The Care and Education of Young Bilinguals Colin Baker, Anne Sienkewicz, 2000-01-01 This text is a comprehensive Introduction for all professionals working with bilingual children For speech therapists doctors psychologists counsellors teachers special needs personnel the book addresses important issues at a practical level Cultural Education - Cultural Sustainability Zvi Bekerman, Ezra Kopelowitz, 2008-02-06 This volume is a path breaking contribution to the study of efforts of diaspora indigenous and minority groups broadly defined to use education formal and informal to sustain cultural continuity while grappling with the influences and demands of wider globalizing nationalizing or other homogenizing and assimilatory forces Particular attention is given to groups that use educational elements other than second language teaching alone in programs to sustain their particular cultural traditions The focus of the book on cultural sustainability changes the nature of questions posed in multicultural education from those that address the opening of boundaries to issues of preserving boundaries in an open yet sustainable way As forced and elective immigration trends are changing the composition of societies and the educational systems within them bringing a rich diversity of cultural experience to the teaching learning process diaspora indigenous and minority groups are looking more and more for ways to sustain their cultures in the context of wider socio political influences This volume is a first opportunity to consider critically multicultural efforts in dialogue with educational options that are culturally particularistic but at the same time tolerant Academics will find this an excellent reference book Practitioners will draw inspiration in learning of others efforts to sustain cultures and will engage in critical reflection on their own work vis vis that of others Teachers will realize they do not stand alone in their educational efforts and will uncover new strategies and methodologies through which to approach their work Resources in Education , 1996 Critical Ethnography, Language, Race/ism and Education Stephen May, Blanca Caldas, 2022-11-22 This book provides a contemporary overview of work in critical ethnography that focuses on language and race ism in education as well as cutting edge examples of recent critical ethnographic studies addressing these issues The studies in this book while centred primarily on the North American context have wide international significance and interdisciplinary reach and address a range of educational contexts across K 12 education and less formal educational settings They explore the racialized construction positioning and experiences of bi multilingual students and the implications of this for educational policy pedagogy and practice The chapters draw on a range of critical theoretical perspectives including CRT LatCrit Indigenous epistemologies and bilingual education they also address significant methodological questions that arise when undertaking critical ethnographic work including the key issues of positionality and critical reflexivity
