Life is Beautiful, But Not for Jews Kobi Niv, 2003-09-29 Roberto Benigni's romantic comedy Life is Beautiful enjoyed tremendous success everywhere it was shown. In addition to winning almost every possible film award including three Oscars, lavish praise and film reviews, it grossed over a quarter of a billion dollars, the most profitable Italian movie ever. Very few have questioned the movie until now. With sharp uncompromising logic and eye-opening insight, Niv analyzes the film and its script scene by scene to show why Life is Beautiful is very far from being the innocent charming and heartwarming film it appears to be. The author argues that the film not only lends support to the central arguments of Holocaust deniers but is actually a quasi-theological Christian parable which seeks to justify the extermination of Jews in the 20th century as divine punishment for the sin of the crucifixion of Jesus two thousand years ago. Life is Beautiful But Not for Jews is a riveting book that simply and concisely raises some important and complex ideas about film and psychology in post-Holocaust civilization. It also serves as an elementary course in the appreciation of films and artistic texts in general and in deciphering their deeper meanings, teaching the reader to more clearly grasp the hidden significance of cultural processes. This is the first English translation of the Hebrew text.

An Open Window Linda Channah Ehrlich, 2000 The first book in English exclusively devoted to an analysis of the films of one of Spain's most important film directors, Victor Erice. Drawing on original essays, reprints, and new translations from an international group of writers, this anthology will help open a window into a deeper appreciation of Erice's three haunting feature-length films.

An Actor and a Rare One Tony Earnshaw, 2001-02-21 Since the turn of the century, Sherlock Holmes has captured the imagination of readers, and after his move to both television and movies, generations of viewers. While Holmes has been portrayed by many distinguished actors, few have done it with the class, humor, and aplomb that Peter Cushing brought to the role. Written by noted British film journalist Tony Earnshaw, An Actor and a Rare One: Peter Cushing as Sherlock Holmes follows the career of Peter Cushing, one of England's finest actors, as he worked his way up from regional theater to the role of the world's most famous consulting detective. This book details Cushing's career as Holmes through anecdotes and reminiscences as told by his colleagues and Cushing himself. A fascinating, often humorous, behind-the-scenes look at one of the century's great actors in one of the century's greatest roles.

Barefoot on Barbed Wire Jimmy Starr, 2001 In Barefoot on Barbed Wire, Starr provides vivid portraits of screen stars, studio executives, and fellow writers from 1919 through the 1960s. He also discusses his contemporary publicists and columnists, including Howard Strickling and Harry Brand. BOOK JACKET Reach for the Top Anne Sinai, 2007-02-09 The popular screen and stage star Laurence Harvey (1928-1973) is best remembered for his stellar performance in the film The Manchurian Candidate, a 20th-century classic. Of his 50 films, Room at the Top not only brought sexual permissiveness to American and British screens and an Oscar nomination but it also branded him a heartthrob sensation. For all his fame and fortune, Harvey's short life was riddled with controversy, demonized by critics, and fraught with tragedy. In this revealing biography by Harvey's sister-in-law, readers are provided a close-up view of his career, his three marriages, and his longtime sexual affair with one of his male producers It also details his battle with cancer and his failure to acknowledge its seriousness Packed with personal anecdotes more than twenty black and white photographs and a filmography Reach for the Top The Turbulent Life of Laurence Harvey will fascinate film students scholars and fans of the actor Irene Dunne Wes D. Gehring, 2006 Traces the life of the American film actress from her childhood days spent in Louisville St Louis and Madison Indiana through her Hollywood career to her retirement and receipt of the Kennedy Center Award in 1985
