Making Of A Monster:

Hosting the Monster Holly Lynn Baumgartner, Roger Davis, 2008 Hosting the Monster responds to the call of the monstrous with not rejection but invitation. Positioning the monster as that which defies classification, the essays in this collection are an ongoing engagement with that which lies outside of established boundaries. With chapters ranging from the monstrous mother or the deformed child to subjectivity in transition, this volume is not only of interest to film and gender scholars and literary and cultural theorists but also students of popular culture or horror. Its wide appeal stems from its invitation both to entertain the monster and to widen the call to and the listening for the monsters that have not yet and perhaps must not yet come calling back. This sense of hospitality and non hostility is one guiding principle of this collection, suggesting that the ability to survey and research the otherwise may reveal more about the subjectivity of the self through the wisdom of the other. However monstrous the manifestation, Holly Lynn Baumgartner is an associate professor of Humanities and English at Mercy College of Northwest Ohio. Her articles have appeared in Reflections, Rhizomes, American Book Review and other journals. Roger Davis is an instructor of English at MacEwan College in Edmonton, Canada. He is co author of Essay Writing for Canadian Students and his literary interests include poetry, poetics and popular culture.

Echoes of a Queer Messianic Richard O. Block,2018-03-14 Queer theory has focused heavily on North American and contemporary contexts but in this book Richard O Block helps to expand that reach Deftly combining the two main currents of recent queer theory the asocial and the reparative he reconsiders mostly German narratives from around 1800 while relating his findings to recent texts such as A Lover's Discourse and Brokeback Mountain. He offers novel readings of well known texts by Shelley, Kleist and Goethe arguing that this early writing serves as a creative font for much of the subsequent work in sexology. These texts also provide echoes of a kind of love overlooked or suppressed in favor of a politics of appeasement or one intended to make queers model citizens. This book charts the unexplored possibilities for queer love in an attempt to map a future for gay politics in the age of homonormativity.

New Directions in 21st-Century Gothic Lorna Piatti-Farnell, Donna Lee Brien, 2015-04-24 This book brings together a carefully selected range of contemporary disciplinary approaches to new areas of Gothic inquiry. Moving beyond the representational and historically based aspects of literature and film that have dominated Gothic studies this volume both acknowledges the contemporary diversification of Gothic scholarship and maps its changing and mutating incarnations. Drawing strength from their fascinating diversity and points of correlation the varied perspectives and subject areas cohere around a number of core themes of re-evaluation, discovery and convergence to reveal emerging trends and new directions in Gothic scholarship. Visiting fascinating areas including the Gothic and digital realities, uncanny food experiences, representations of death and the public media, Gothic creatures and their popular legacies, new approaches to contemporary Gothic literature and re-evaluations of the Gothic mode through regional narratives, essays reveal many patterns and intersecting approaches forcefully testifying to the multifaceted although lucidly coherent nature of Gothic studies in the 21st Century. The multiple disciplines represented from digital inquiry to food studies from fine art to dramaturgy engage with the Gothic in order to offer new definitions and methodological approaches to Gothic scholarship. The interdisciplinary transnational focus of this volume provides exciting new insights into and expanded and revitalised definitions of the Gothic and its related fields
