Making Economics Public Vicki Macknight, Fabien Medvecky, 2023-05-22 Economics macro micro and mysterious is integral to everyday life But despite its importance for personal and collective decision making it is a discipline often viewed as technical arcane and inaccessible and thus overlooked in public discourse This book is a call to arms to bring the discipline of economics more into the public domain It calls on economists to think about how to make their knowledge of the economics public And it calls on those who specialise in communicating expert knowledge to help us learn to communicate about economics The book brings together scholars and practitioners working at the early stages of an emerging field the public communication of and public engagement with economics Through a series of short essays from academics and practitioners the book has two key goals first and foremost it will make a case for why we need to make economics public and for the importance of having a clear vision of what it means to make economics public Secondly it suggests some ways that this can be done featuring contributions from practitioners including economists who are engaging audiences in newspapers museums and beyond This book is essential reading for those in economics with an interest in making economics public and those already in the many fields dedicated to communicating expert knowledge in public spaces who have an interest in where economics can fit More information about the book can be found here <https://www.makingeconomicspublic.org>
