Carol J. Oja

Making A Ballet:

Making Ballet American Andrea Harris, 2018 Situating ballet within twentieth century modernism this book brings complexity to the history of George Balanchine's American neoclassicism It intervenes in the prevailing historical narrative and rebalances Balanchine's role in dance history by revealing the complex social cultural and political forces that actually shaped the construction of American neoclassical ballet

The Making of Markova Tina Sutton, 2021-11-15 In pre World War I England a frail Jewish girl is diagnosed with flat feet knock knees and weak legs In short order Lilian Alicia Marks would become a dance prodigy the cherished baby ballerina of Sergei Diaghilev and the youngest ever soloist at his famed Ballets Russes It was there that George Balanchine choreographed his first ballet for her Henri Matisse designed her costumes and Igor Stravinsky taught her music all when the re christened Alicia Markova was just 14 Given unprecedented access to Dame Markova's intimate journals and correspondence Tina Sutton paints a full picture of the dancer's astonishing life and times in 1920s Paris and Monte Carlo 1930s London and wartime in New York and Hollywood Ballet lovers and readers everywhere will be fascinated by the story of one of the twentieth century's great artists

Making Music Modern Carol J. Oja, 2000 This book recreates an exciting and productive period in which creative artists felt they were witnessing the birth of a new age Aaron Copland Henry Cowell George Gershwin Roy Harris and Virgil Thomson all began their careers then as did many of their less widely recognized compatriots While the literature and painting of the 1920's have been amply chronicled music has not received such treatment Carol Oja's book sets the growth of American musical composition against parallel developments in American culture provides a guide for the understanding of the music and explores how the notion of the concert tradition as inherited from Western Europe was challenged and revitalized through contact with American popular song jazz and non Western musics

Heat and Alterity in Contemporary Dance Ananya Chatterjea, 2020-10-28 This book argues that contemporary dance imagined to have a global belonging is vitiated by euro white constructions of risk and currency that remain at its core Differently the book reimagines contemporary dance along a South South axis as a polycentric justice oriented aesthetic temporal category with intersectional understandings of difference as a central organizing principle Placing alterity and heat generated via multiple pathways at its center it foregrounds the work of South South artists who push against constructions of tradition and white centered aesthetic imperatives to reinvent their choreographic toolkit and respond to urgent questions of their times In recasting the grounds for a different global stage the argument widens its scope to indicate how dance making both indexes current contextual inequities and broader relations of social economic political and cultural power and inaugurates future dimensions of justice Winner of the 2022 Oscar G Brockett Prize for Dance Research

Haydn, Mozart, and the Viennese School, 1740-1780 Daniel Hertz, 1995 Historians have long tried to place the music of Haydn and Mozart in the lineage of German Lutheran music In this book Daniel Hertz shows that the first Viennese school grew from a Catholic inheritance in Italian music and from local tradition with an admixture of French currents The generation of composers led by Haydn no longer trained in Italy By the time young Mozart joined the ranks of the Viennese school its accomplishments towered above all others of the time The author's approach can be compared to viewing a majestic mountain range in its totality the highest peaks take on even greater majesty when seen in their natural context of foothills and lesser peaks This is how Haydn and Mozart were viewed by their contemporaries whose world of perception Hertz recreates using among other things the visual art of the period His focus is on music as a part of cultural history at a particular time and place Stylistic terms and a priori periods matter less to him than the common denominators of geography culture and political history Book jacket
