Ortiz, Harvie M. Conn, 2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission How does the Bible view the city Are we closer to God in the country than the city Does the Bible have an anti urban bias These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God Innovation and Creativity in Late Medieval and Early Modern European Cities Karel Davids, Bert De Munck, 2016-05-23 Late medieval and early modern cities are often depicted as cradles of artistic creativity and hotbeds of new material culture Cities in renaissance Italy and in seventeenth and eighteenth century northwestern Europe are the most obvious cases in point But how did this come about Why did cities rather than rural environments produce new artistic genres new products and new techniques How did pre industrial cities evolve into centres of innovation and creativity As the most urbanized regions of continental Europe in this period Italy and the Low Countries provide a rich source of case studies as the contributors to this volume demonstrate They set out to examine the relationship between institutional arrangements and regulatory mechanisms such as citizenship and guild rules and innovation and creativity in late medieval and early modern cities They analyze whether in what context and why regulation or deregulation influenced innovation and creativity and what the impact was of long term changes in the political and economic sphere Governance, Policy and Juxtaposition Michael Roe, 2019-10-01 This book considers governance and policy making within the maritime sector and focuses significantly on the dimensional context within which governance works Recognising the importance of understanding governance and policy at times when the world is faced with social political and economic problems it highlights the fact that both areas are equally significant in understanding today's political economy By focusing on the maritime sector a pillar industry supporting international trade activities the book offers a unique perspective to explain the difficulties of balancing policy making with governance in order to provide solutions It also examines the importance of developing a governance process that encourages and accommodates juxtaposition in a way that ensures that the effect of independent policy making is understood upon the success or otherwise of policies across a range of contexts and problems Given the in depth nature of the text it is of interest to academics researchers and professionals in the field
