

Local measures (20%) are based on key Progress Report metrics

Elementary, Middle, K-8 Schools

- ELA/math average proficiency
- ELA/math median growth percentile - all students
- ELA/math median growth percentile - students in school's lowest third

High Schools & Transfer Schools**

- 4- and 6-year graduation rate (as of June)
- % students earning 10+ credits***

K-2 Schools****

- DOE-approved assessments

District 75

- NYSAA % proficient
- ELA/math average proficiency (EMS)
- Regents performance (HS, as of June)
- ELA/math median growth percentile (EMS)

** For transfer high schools, only 6-year graduation rates will be used

*** Similar to the Progress Report, six of the ten credits must be in three of the four core subjects

**** More information will be provided this summer, for early childhood schools including Grade 3, ELA/math average proficiency will be used.

Effective Mentoring

Robert F. Lowery, 2021-03-25 Today more than ever before our youth need quality mentors to guide them to fulfill their potential and destinies Thankfully there are proven techniques that will help anyone ready to set out on a challenging yet rewarding journey to positively impact the life of someone else In a comprehensive reference manual Robert Lowery relies on his seventeen years of experience as a youth development professional and long time mentor to share not only his personal story through life and how he came into direct service youth work and mentorship but also stories from experienced mentors who have impacted the lives of hundreds of young people through their guidance While leading prospective mentors through a practical roadmap that includes the frameworks mindsets and tools necessary to become a quality mentor Lowery also offers insight into why mentorship is more important today than ever before the characteristics of a good mentor the pitfalls to avoid and challenges to overcome how to effectively mentor those within an organization and the myriad of ways one can become involved in mentorship Effective Mentoring is a concise guide that contains personal stories wisdom and tools from a seasoned youth development specialist tailored toward anyone interested in becoming a positive role model for today s youth Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it Architectural Epidemiology Adele Houghton, Carlos Castillo-Salgado, 2025-05-06 How to create healthier sustainable and resilient communities using place based design strategies In a world where real estate development often overlooks the critical link between our built environment and public health architectural epidemiology has emerged as a groundbreaking field that reimagines how to design build and inhabit our spaces Adele Houghton and Carlos Castillo Salgado bridge the gap between two disparate fields to propose a new transdisciplinary approach aimed at fostering community and planetary health Architectural Epidemiology leverages building design renovation and operations to improve health outcomes among building occupants and in the surrounding community Drawing from both environmental and applied social epidemiology this novel approach deploys a problem solving methodology to identify the evidence based strategies in building design and operations that could lead to positive or negative health outcomes by reducing exposure to environmental hazards and promoting healthy behaviors The authors illustrate how thoughtful place based design can mitigate the adverse effects of climate change chronic diseases and other public health challenges Real world examples from diverse settings demonstrate the practical application of architectural epidemiology and its impacts on community and planetary health Practical tools and infographics translate complex scientific data into actionable design strategies helping professionals from various disciplines collaborate effectively The principles and applications of architectural epidemiology can drive meaningful action on climate change sustainable development and environmental justice while improving public health outcomes and transforming our built environment into a healthier more equitable world
