The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques, 2018-12-04 Napoleon is one of history's most fascinating figures But his complex relationship with Rome both with antiquity and his contemporary conflicts with the Pope and Holy See have undergone little examination In The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques reveals how Napoleon's dueling fascination and rivalry informed his effort to turn Paris into the new Rome Europe's cultural capital through architectural and artistic commissions around the city His initiatives and his aggressive pursuit of antiquities and classical treasures from Italy gave Paris much of the classical beauty we know and adore today Napoleon had a tradition of appropriating from past military greats to legitimize his regime Alexander the Great during his invasion of Egypt Charlemagne during his coronation as emperor even Frederick the Great when he occupied Berlin But it was ancient Rome and the Caesars that held the most artistic and political influence and would remain his lodestars Whether it was the Arc de Triomphe the Venus de Medici in the Louvre or the gorgeous works of Antonio Canova Susan Jaques brings Napoleon to life as never before Interwoven Globe Amy Elizabeth Bogansky, 2013 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Sept 16 2013 Jan 5 2014 The Lithic Garden Mailan S. Doquang, 2018-01-11 The Lithic Garden offers innovative perspectives on the role of ornament in medieval church design Focusing on the foliate friezes articulating iconic French monuments such as Amiens Cathedral it demonstrates that church builders strategically used organic motifs to integrate the interior and exterior of their structures thus reinforcing the connections and distinctions between the entirety of the sacred edifice and the profane world beyond its boundaries With this exquisitely illustrated monograph Mailan S Doquang argues that contrary to widespread belief monumental flora was not just an extravagant embellishment or secondary byproduct but a semantically charged critical design component that inflected the stratified spaces of churches in myriad ways By situating the proliferation of foliate friezes within the context of the Crusades The Lithic Garden provides insights into the networks of exchange between France Byzantium and the Levant contributing to the global turn in art and architectural History Irregular Serials & Annuals ,1985 The Met and the Masses in Postwar America Mitchell B.
