Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert TenEyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H Barr Jr Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art This title was originally published in 2006 Synopsis: An Annual Index of Greek Studies, 1993, 3 Andrew D. Dimarogonas, 1998-10-28 Presents 12 860 entries listing scholarly publications on Greek studies Research and review journals books and monographs are indexed in the areas of classical Hellenistic Biblical Byzantine Medieval and modern Greek studies but no annotations are included After the general listings entries are also indexed by journal text name geography and subject The CD ROM contains an electronic version of the book Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR China and England Martin Powers, 2018-09-24 This book examines egalitarian social ideals and institutions that arose in preindustrial China and England and in the process uncovers China's forgotten role in the history of social justice debate and legislation during the eighteenth century Drawing on a wide range of visual and documentary evidence the author shows that many prominent individuals in both England and China adopted comparable strategies as a logical response to excesses of privilege and arbitrary power with educated but non noble persons taking advantage of print culture a more literate population an expanded art market public spaces and other familiar early modern developments to interrogate the system of inherited privilege and promote a more meritocratic society This shared experience created common ground for transformative exchange between the two great traditions during the eighteenth century By providing a more global account of what we call Western values the book shows that early modern China and England had far more in common than is normally supposed and thus challenges claims on the right and the left that the people of China lacked a concept of social justice and that China's cultural legacy should be treated as exceptional in regard to human rights Life, Death and Representation Jas Elsner, Janet Huskinson, 2010-12-15 This volume presents a collection of essays on different aspects of Roman sarcophagi These varied approaches will produce fresh insights into a subject which is receiving increased interest in English language scholarship with a new awareness of the important contribution that sarcophagi can make to the study of the social use and production of Roman art The book will therefore be a timely addition to existing literature Metropolitan sarcophagi are the main focus of the volume which will cover a wide time range from the first century AD to post classical periods including early Christian sarcophagi and post classical reception Other papers will look at aspects of viewing and representation iconography and marble analysis There will be an Introduction written by the co editors Tapestry in the Baroque Thomas Patrick Campbell, Elizabeth A. H. Cleland, 2010 This illustrated volume is a comprehensive survey of 17th century European tapestry It features some of the finest surviving examples from many international collections as well as a number of related designs and oil sketches European Clocks and Watches in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Clare Vincent, Jan Hendrik Leopold, Elizabeth Sullivan, 2015-11-25 Among the world's greatest technological and imaginative achievements is the invention and development of the timepiece Examining for the first time The Metropolitan Museum of Art's unparalleled collection of European clocks and watches created from the late Renaissance through the nineteenth century this fascinating book enriches our understanding of the origins and evolution of these ingenious works It showcases fifty four clocks watches and other timekeeping devices each represented with an in depth description and new photography of the exterior and the inner mechanisms Among these masterpieces is an ornate sixteenth century celestial timepiece that accurately predicts the trajectory of the sun moon and stars an eighteenth century longcase clock by David Roentgen that shows the time in the ten most important cities of the day and a nineteenth century watch featuring a penetrating portrait of Czar Nicholas I of Russia Created by the best craftsmen in Austria England Flanders France Germany Italy the Netherlands and Switzerland these magnificent timepieces have been selected for their remarkable beauty and design as well as their sophisticated mechanics Built upon decades of expert research this publication is a long overdue survey of these stunning visual and technological marvels German Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1350-1600 Maryan W. Ainsworth, Joshua P.
