Thomas, 2016-03-22 Ideals of character and beauty and conceptions of self and society were in flux during Late Antiquity a period of extensive dramatic cultural upheaval for the Roman world as the extraordinary growth of Christianity eclipsed paganism Textiles from Late Antiquity document transformations of cultural traditions and societal values at the most intimate level of the individual body and the home These textile artifacts are fragile preserved only in arid conditions often in fragments and only rarely intact The textiles selected for the exhibition Designing Identity at New York University's Institute for the Study of the Ancient World present an aesthetic of vibrant colors fine materials technical virtuosity of professional production and variations on designs that display personal identity in the clothing of men women and children as well as hopes for prosperity and protection in the textile furnishings of households Prized for their artistry since the earliest discoveries beginning at the turn of the nineteenth century such textiles were eagerly collected by designers artists scholars museums and captains of industry This exhibition catalogue explores the parallel histories of ancient textile production and consumption and the modern business of collecting Late Antique textiles Contributors include Jennifer Ball Edward Bleiberg Kathrin Colburn Helen Evans Christine Kondoleon Brandie Ratliff Thelma Thomas and Elizabeth Williams Cover photograph Bruce M White 201 Arab Painting Anna Contadini, 2007-11-30 Arab painting preserved mainly in manuscript illustrations of the 12th to 14th centuries is here treated as an artistic corpus fully deserving of appreciation in its own terms and not as a mere precursor to Persian painting The book assembles papers by a distinguished list of scholars that illuminate the variety of material that survives in scientific as well as literary manuscripts Because of the contexts in which the paintings appear a major theoretical concern is precisely the relationship of painting to text It rejects earlier scholarly habits of analysing paintings in isolation and proposes the integration of text and image as a more satisfactory framework within which to elucidate the characteristics and functions of this impressive body of work Marble Statuettes of the Roman Period Brian Martens, 2025-07-18 The excavations of the Athenian Agora have played a major role in bringing to light the rich sculptural legacy of ancient Athens The project's storerooms boast one of the most important bodies of sculpture from classical antiquity covering the complete range and history of output in a storied center of artistic production This volume presents for the first time the marble statuettes and statuette fragments carved between the 1st century BCE and the 4th century CE that have been excavated from the Agora since 1931 Comprising one in six figural sculptures found at the site these works are testament to a thriving demand for small divine images in Roman period Greece that has been insufficiently recognized until now Among these broken and battered figures are the portraits of polytheistic Athens naked Aphrodite at her bath winged Eros assisting his mother tired Herakles after a labor teenage Artemis aiming her bow attentive Asklepios dispatching cures The author marshals a detailed and heavily illustrated catalogue of 672 objects to offer new data to the study of Greek iconography and sculptural production Taken as a collective whole the statuettes document the vibrant religion society and art of Athens and beyond Drawing the Greek Vase Caspar Meyer, Alexia Petsalis-Diomidis, 2023-05-12 How have two dimensional images of ancient Greek vases shaped modern perceptions of these artefacts and of the classical past This is the first scholarly volume devoted to the exploration of drawings prints and photographs of Greek vases in modernity Case studies of the seventeenth to the twentieth century foreground ways that artists have depicted Greek vases in a range of styles and contexts within and beyond academia Questions addressed include how do these images translate three dimensional ancient utilitarian objects with iconography central to the tradition of Western painting and decorative arts into two dimensional graphic images carrying aesthetic and epistemic value How does the embodied practice of drawing enable people to engage with Greek vases differently from museum viewers and what insights does it offer on ancient producers and users And how did the invention of photography impact the tradition of drawing Greek vases The volume addresses art historians of the seventeenth to twentieth centuries archaeologists and classical reception scholars Burlington

Magazine for Connoisseurs, 1914 Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Childhood in Ancient Athens Lesley A. Beaumont, 2013-01-17 Childhood in Ancient Athens offers an in depth study of children during the heyday of the Athenian city state thereby illuminating a significant social group largely ignored by most ancient and modern authors alike It concentrates not only on the child's own experience but also examines the perceptions of children and childhood by Athenian society these perceptions variously exhibit both similarities and stark contrasts with those of our own 21st century Western society The study covers the juvenile life course from birth and infancy through early and later childhood and treats these life stages according to the topics of nurture play education work cult and ritual and death In view of the scant ancient Greek literary evidence pertaining to childhood Beaumont focuses on the more copious ancient visual representations of children in Athenian pot painting sculpture and terracotta modelling Notably this is the first full length monograph in English to address the iconography of childhood in ancient Athens and it breaks important new ground by rigorously analysing and evaluating classical art to reconstruct childhood's social history With over 120 illustrations the book provides a rich visual as well as narrative resource for the history of childhood in classical antiquity

Attic Red-figured Vases in American Museums John Davidson Beazley, 1918 A Catalogue of Greek Manuscripts at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor Pablo Alvarez, Nadezhda Kavrus-Hoffmann, 2021-01-04 A Catalogue of Greek Manuscripts at the University of Michigan Ann Arbor is a comprehensive fully illustrated catalogue of the largest collection of Greek manuscripts in America including 110 codices and fragments ranging from the fourth to the nineteenth century The collection held in the Special Collections Research Center of the University of Michigan Library contains many manuscripts from Epirus and the Meteora monasteries built on high pinnacles of rocks in Thessaly Nadezhda Kavaris Hoffmann has based the manuscript descriptions on the latest developments in the fields of paleography and codicology including the newest recommendations of the Institute for Research and History of Texts in Paris The catalogue includes high resolution plates of all the manuscripts allowing researchers to compare the entries with other Greek manuscripts around the world This catalogue contains a trove of fascinating information related to Byzantine culture that will be available for the first time to scholars working on various disciplines of the humanities such as Classical and Byzantine Studies Art History Medieval Studies Theology and History This is the first volume of a projected two volume set Volume 2 also by Nadezhda Kavaris Hoffmann will contain descriptions of remaining Greek manuscripts in the Library's collection starting with Mich Ms 59 and ending with Mich Ms 238 for a total of 53 manuscripts and 8 fragments Both volumes will have the same format catalogue entries for each manuscript together with extensive illustrations The publication date for Volume 2 has not been established

The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-27 Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom offers a new history of the field of Egyptian monastic archaeology It is the first study in English to trace how scholars identified a space or site as monastic within the Egyptian landscape and how such identifications impacted perceptions of monasticism Brooks Hedstrom then provides an ecohistory of Egypt's tripartite landscape to offer a reorientation of the perception of the physical landscape She analyzes late antique documentary evidence early monastic literature and ecclesiastical history before turning to the extensive archaeological evidence of Christian monastic settlements In doing so she illustrates the stark differences between idealized monastic landscape and the actual monastic landscape that was urbanized through monastic constructions Drawing upon critical theories in landscape studies materiality and phenomenology Brooks Hedstrom looks at domestic settlements of non monastic and monastic settlements to posit what features makes monastic settlements unique thus offering a new history of monasticism in Egypt
