many divergent opinions about contemporary Sufism's relationship to Islam. The three main themes: piety, politics, and popular culture are explored in relation to the Islamic and Western contexts that shape them as well as to the historical conditions that frame contemporary debates. This book is split into three parts: Sufism and anti-Sufism in contemporary contexts; Contemporary Sufism in the West; Poetic influences and popular manifestations. Gendering Sufism: Tradition and transformation. This book will fascinate anyone interested in the challenges of contemporary Sufism as well as its relationship to Islam, gender, and the West. It offers an ideal starting point from which undergraduate and postgraduate students, teachers, and lecturers can explore Sufism today.

Theology Without Walls Jerry L. Martin, 2019-10-01. Thinking about ultimate reality is becoming increasingly transreligious. This transreligious turn follows inevitably from the discovery of divine truths in multiple traditions. Global communications bring the full range of religious ideas and practices to anyone with access to the internet. Moreover, the growth of the nones and those who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious creates a pressing need for theological thinking not bound by prescribed doctrines and fixed rituals. This book responds to this vital need. The chapters in this volume each examine the claim that if the aim of theology is to know and articulate all we can about the divine reality and if revelations, enlightenments, and insights into that reality are not limited to a single tradition, then what is called for is a theology without confessional restrictions. In other words, a Theology Without Walls. To ground the project, in examples, the volume provides emerging models of transreligious inquiry. It also includes sympathetic critics who raise valid concerns that such a theology must face. This is a book that will be of urgent interest to theologians, religious studies scholars, and philosophers of religion. It will be especially suitable for those interested in comparative theology, interreligious and interfaith understanding, new trends in constructive theology, normative religious studies, and global philosophy of religion.

Kleidung und Ausrüstung islamischer Gottsucher Jürgen Wasim Frembgen, 1999. Sufism Today Catharina Raudvere, Leif Stenberg, 2009. This book offers the first sustained treatment of Sufism in the context of modern Muslim communities. It is also innovative in that it broadens the purview of the study of Sufism to look at the subject right across international boundaries, from Canada to Brazil and from Denmark to the UK and USA. Subjects discussed include the politics of Sufism, the remaking of Turkish Sufism, tradition and cultural creativity among Syrian Sufi communities, the globalization of Sufi networks, and their transplantation in America, Iranian Sufism in London, and Naqshbandi Sufism in Sweden. In its thorough examination of how Sufi rituals, traditions, and theologies have been adapted by late modern religiosity, this volume will make indispensable reading for all scholars and students of modern Islam.
