violence In Coloniality of the U S Mexico Border Hernández offers an exemplary case and lens for understanding what he terms the epistemic and cartographic prison of modernity coloniality He adopts coloniality of power as a central analytical category and framework to consider multiple forms of real and symbolic violence territorial corporeal cultural and epistemic and analyzes the varied responses by diverse actors including local residents government officials and cultural producers Based on more than twenty years of border activism in San Diego Tijuana and El Paso Ciudad Juárez this book is an interdisciplinary examination that considers the 1984 McDonald's massacre Minutemen vigilantism border urbanism the ongoing murder of women in Ciudad Juárez and anti border music Hernández's approach is at once historical ethnographic and theoretically driven yet it is grounded in analyses and debates that cut across political theory border studies and cultural studies The volume concludes with a theoretical discussion of the future of violence at and because of national territorial borders offering a call for epistemic and cartographic disobedience
