often considered to be the world's most glamorous crime packed with detective stories that are usually astonishing and often bizarre. The research includes findings by economists, sociologists, art historians, lawyers, academics, and practitioners, all of which yield insights into the mechanics and peculiarities of the art business and explain why it works so differently from other markets. However, this book will be of interest not only to academics but to everyone interested in questions of authenticity, forgery, and connoisseurship. At the same time, one of its main aims is to advocate best practices in the art market and to stress the importance of cooperation among all disciplines with a stake in it. The results are intended to offer guidance to art market stakeholders, legal practitioners, and art historians alike while also promoting mutual understanding and cooperation.

Antiques Roadshow. If you're a fan of PBS's top rated Antiques Roadshow, you've probably wondered what would it take to get your family treasure on the program. What happens to the antiques after the show airs? Are the appraisers ever wrong? And will Antiques Roadshow come to my hometown? In this four color fully illustrated guide to America's favorite treasure hunting program, Antiques Roadshow Behind the Scenes reveals inside information about the participants, the appraisers, the fans, and the antiques that make up the show, direct from the woman who makes it all happen, executive producer Marsha Bemko. Learn what it really takes to put on a Roadshow event and why certain cities are more likely to get a visit from the show than others, who gets chosen to be on air, and what items producers are really looking for. What it takes to be an appraiser and how even the experts make mistakes and what happens when things go terribly wrong, such as the occasional antique that turns out to have been stolen. In addition, learn which books, websites, and resources your favorite appraisers recommend and get updates on some of the most popular and notorious items ever featured on the show. From priceless tips to the juicy family secrets hidden in dusty heirlooms, Antiques Roadshow Behind the Scenes is both an invaluable resource and a fascinating slice of Americana. The Missing Masterpiece Jeanne M. Dams, 2017-09-01 Quelle horreur! A French holiday leads to disaster for American Anglophile Dorothy Martin in this engaging new cozy mystery. When Dorothy Martin goes to France alone because Alan is stuck back home in Sherebury with a broken ankle, she worries about her ability to get along in a language she barely speaks and in a country she hasn't seen for over fifty years. But by the time Alan joins her a week later, Dorothy has found herself embroiled in one mystery after another: a woman drowning in quicksand, a man suffering a near fatal fall in the abbey at Mont Saint Michel, and a missing American archaeologist, all seemingly connected to a monk named Abelard who has been dead for almost nine hundred years. It isn't until another body is discovered that Dorothy's ability to think outside the box finally unravels the threads of a despicable scheme. Literary Digest, 1911 The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman
