Mission Schools in Batakland (Indonesia), 1861-1940 Jan S. Aritonang, 2016-05-18 The expansion of Christianity is often described from the viewpoint of the western missionaries This book however focuses on the large group of indigenous teachers and their pupils at the mission schools in Batakland These educational activities in fact provided the most important incentive for the birth and growth of the Lutheran Batak Church since 1860 With 3 million members this is the largest protestant church in Indonesia a Southeast Asian country with 190 million inhabitants 85% of whom are Muslim The study is based on archival sources in German Dutch Indonesian and Batak as well as on interviews with local teachers This is an important case study about the place of education within the missionary enterprise the cooperation and conflicts between foreign missionaries and their indigenous helpers the delicate relation between the Dutch colonial government and a German mission board

Crosscurrents in Indigenous Spirituality Edward Cook, 2016-05-18 The resurgence of indigenous cultures and the reappearance of their ancient spiritualities during the 1990s is of great interest to social scientists Several such cultures are featured in this book The indigenous populations of struggling multi ethnic democracies in Latin America are demanding to be integrated into the national mainstream together with their holistic values of family economics and ecology Institutional Christianity is being challenged by indigenous theologies that are critical of both traditional Christianity and liberation theology While some see here a danger of syncretism these developments can be experienced as a breath of fresh air Much has been said about the Mayas but they have not been allowed to speak for themselves anthropologist Rafael Girardi 1962 This book is an attempt to allow religious spokespersons from a very ancient and creative civilization to share their faith which has remained hidden for five centuries

Presbyterian Reformers in Central Africa Robert Benedetto, Winifred K. Vass, 2016-04-26 This volume contains 123 documents which illustrate the early history of the American Presbyterian Congo Mission and its struggle for human rights in the Congo from 1890 1918 The documents many of which have never previously been published are crucial to a full understanding of both the work of the Presbyterian Mission and its impact on the social political and religious life of the Congo The book is divided into four parts Part One documents the founding and early history of the Presbyterian Mission from 1890 to 1898 Part Two documents the deterioration of social conditions in the Congo under King Leopold and the reform campaigns initiated by the American Mission in Britain and the United States Part Three consists of documents related to the 1909 libel trial of William M Morrison and William H Sheppard the principal leaders of the American Mission Part Four documents the Mission's reaction to continuing human rights abuses particularly religious persecution under Belgian rule to 1918 The documents are annotated and the volume contains an introduction and an index

Catholics in Indonesia, 1808-1903 Karel Steenbrink, 2021-07-26. This first of two volumes documents the history of the Roman Catholic Church in Indonesia from 1808 when after two centuries priests were again allowed in the Dutch colony until 1903 when the number of Catholics only 27 000 at the time started to grow spectacularly. The story of slow growth among the indigenous population with many setbacks is illustrated by 98 documents which are included in their complete format and original language mostly Dutch. Half of the book contains a lengthy introduction in which the history of Catholic missionary effort is spelled out with of course a lot of attention for the islands where the Catholic clergy was actively engaged in proselytizing. This introduction is the first survey in English on the subject.

Christianity and Imperial Culture Xiaochao Wang, 2016-05-18. This book is a study of the writings of a group of Chinese Christian apologists in the seventeenth century focussing on Xu Guangqi. Eleven of his shorter writings are included in Chinese and in translation. The first part of the book is devoted to a study of Latin Christian apologists within the Roman Empire to provide a comparison for the analysis of Xu Guangqi's work. Minucius Felix, Tertullian, and Lactantius are shown to have faced in regard to imperial power and Graeco-Roman culture a situation comparable to that of Xu Guangqi. Li Zhizao and Yang Tingyun in regard to imperial power and culture in the late Ming period. The final chapters of the book reconsider general issues of confrontation and adaptation in the inculturation of Christianity.

Missiology, 1995. An international review.

Pastors, Partners and Paternalists Colin Reed, 2016-05-18. A study tracing the relationships between missionaries and African Church workers in Kenya in the years 1850-1900 as missionaries increasingly adopted imperial assumptions of Western superiority. It tells the story of the first Anglican clergy in Kenya, their wives and colleagues, their rescue from slavery, their education in India, and their subsequent work in East Africa. It demonstrates their contribution to the rapid growth of the Church and of indigenous Christian communities. Yet later missionaries were not willing to accord to the Africans the position they had a right to expect. The book recounts their protest and the development of a Church order. Similar events in West Africa have been documented but this is the first time such a pattern in East Africa has been outlined.

State Management of Religion in Indonesia Myengkkyo Seo, 2013-07-18 Although Indonesia is generally considered to be a Muslim state and is indeed the world's most populous Muslim majority nation it has a sizeable Christian minority as a legacy of Dutch colonialism with Christians often occupying relatively high social positions This book examines the management of religion in Indonesia It discusses how Christianity has developed in Indonesia how the state though Muslim in outlook and culture is nevertheless formally secular and how the principal Christian church the Java Christian Church has adapted its practices to fit local circumstances It examines religious violence and charts the evolution of the state's religious policies analysing in particular the impact of the 1974 Marriage Law showing how it enabled extensive state regulation but how in practice rather than reinforcing religious divisions inter religious marriage involving the conversion of one party is widespread Overall the book shows how Indonesia is developing its own brand of secularism neither a full blooded Islamic state like Saudi Arabia nor an outright secular state like Turkey Encyclopaedia of Historical Metrology, Weights, and Measures Jan Gyllenbok, 2018-04-11
