Levine,1999-01-01 In this unique study Stephen Levine examines the particular characteristics of New Zealand Jewry one of the most exotic Jewish communities in the world Because it is so far from the rest of world Jewry this community must continually face the challenge of Jewish continuity Levine draws attention to the diversity in Jewish identity among New Zealand s Jews as well as to the institutionalization of new relationships between the Jewish community and Israel Ultimately however Levine stresses the community s interaction with world Jewry despite the many challenges facing such a small and remote population The New Zealand Jewish Community will be an essential volume for students of Judaism the sociology of religion contemporary history and political studies Victoria University of Wellington, 1899-1999 Rachel Barrowman,1999

Vertical Living Julia Gatley, Paul Walker, 2014-09-01 In 1946 a group of students and idealists got together to realize their visions for a modern city Over the following half century the Architectural Centre they founded helped shape the possibilities of modern life in urban New Zealand and profoundly influenced the remaking of the capital city of Wellington More than just an association of architects the Centre furthered education published a magazine Design Review hosted modernist exhibitions in its gallery staged an audacious campaign for political influence called the Project and fought for better planning better design and better built environments in Wellington Charting these activists and their projects over the years Julia Gatley and Paul Walker also offer a history of urban Wellington from the 1940s to the 1990s and beyond The book reminds us that in modernist ideology architecture and urban planning went hand in hand with visual and craft arts graphic and industrial design In recovering the multidisciplinary history politics and planning of the Architectural Centre Gatley and Walker begin writing the city back into the history of architecture in New Zealand

Super Model Minority Chris Tse, 2022-03-10 It's the end of the world and Chris Tse has lost his chill In Super Model Minority he completes a loose trilogy of books from the historical racism of How to be Dead in a Year of Snakes to a queer coming of age in HE S SO MASC by looking to a future where it's enough to look up at a sky blushing red and see possibility From making boys cry with the power of poetry to hitting back against microaggressions and sucker punches these irreverent and tender poems dive head first into race and sexuality with rage and wit while embracing everyday moments of joy to fortify the soul Super Model Minority is a riotous walk through the highs and lows of modern life with one of New Zealand's most audacious contemporary poets
