Michael Landon's Legacy Cheryl Landon, 2001 We all face troubles in our lives It is easy to think that our problems would go away if only we had something A better job A better marriage Better health More money Something Many people lead lives of quiet desperation because they think they lack what they need to make them happy And what is true for individuals is true for our society at large Our children's future is at stake and we as a society are losing ground Current Biography Yearbook Charles Moritz,1962 Motion Picture Biographies John Cones,2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry
