The Brothers Le Nain Esther Susan Bell, Claude Douglas Dickerson, Nicolas Milavanovic, Alain Tallon, 2016-01-01 A beautiful volume that brings to light the forgotten Le Nain brothers a trio of 17th century French master painters who specialized in portraiture religious subjects and scenes of everyday peasant life In France in the 17th century the brothers Antoine c 1598 1648 Louis c 1600 1605 1648 and Mathieu 1607 1677 Le Nain painted images of everyday life for which they became posthumously famous They are celebrated for their depictions of middle class leisure activities and particularly for their representations of peasant families who gaze out at the viewer The uncompromising naturalism of these compositions along with their oddly suspended action imparts a sense of dignity to their subjects Featuring more than sixty paintings highlighting the artists full range of production including altarpieces private devotional paintings portraits and the poignant images of peasants for which the brothers are best known this generously illustrated volume presents new research concerning the authorship dating and meaning of the works by well known scholars in the field Also groundbreaking are the results of a technical study of the paintings which constitutes a major contribution to the scholarship on the Le Nain brothers      A Superb Baroque Jonathan Bober, Piero Boccardo, Franco Boggero, 2020-04-28

Genoa completed its transformation from a faded maritime power into a thriving banking center for Europe in the seventeenth century. The wealth accumulated by its leading families spurred investment in the visual arts on an enormous scale. This volume explores how artists both foreign and native created a singularly rich and extravagant expression of the baroque in works of extraordinary variety, sumptuousness and exuberance. This art, however, has remained largely hidden behind the facades of the city's palaces, with few works apart from those by the school's great expatriates found beyond its borders. As a result, the Genoese baroque has been insufficiently considered or appreciated.

Lavishly illustrated A Superb Baroque is comprehensive, encompassing all the major media and participants. Presented are some 140 select works by the celebrated foreigners drawn to the city and its flourishing environment. Offering three levels of exploration: essays that frame and interpret; section introductions that characterize principal currents and stages; and texts that elucidate individual works, this volume is by far the most extensive study of the Genoese baroque in the English language.

K. Jr. Wheelock, Arthur, Arthur K. Wheelock (Jr.), National Gallery of Art (U.S.) Staff, Gerard ter Borch, Alison McNeil Kettering, Detroit Institute of Arts Staff, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Arie Wallert, Detroit Institute of Arts, Marjorie E. Wieseman, 2004-01-01

Gerard ter Borch 1617-1681 was unequalled among his Dutch peers for capturing the elegance and grace of wealthy Dutch society in his portraiture. A major influence on Vermeer, ter Borch has not received the attention he deserves; this is the first major English language text about his work.

Buying Baroque Edgar Peters Bowron, 2017-03-01

Although Americans have shown interest in Italian Baroque art since the eighteenth century, Thomas Jefferson bought copies of works by Salvator Rosa and Guido Reni for his art gallery at Monticello, and the seventeenth-century Bolognese school was admired by painters Benjamin West and John Singleton Copley, a widespread appetite for it only took hold in the early to mid-twentieth century. Buying Baroque tells this history through the personalities involved and the culture of collecting in the United States. The distinguished contributors to this volume examine the dealers, auction houses, and commercial galleries that provided access to Baroque paintings, as well as the collectors, curators, and museum directors who acquired and shaped American perceptions about these works, including Charles Eliot Norton, John W. Ringling, A. Everett Austin Jr., and Samuel H. Kress. These essays explore aesthetic trends and influences to show why Americans developed an increasingly sophisticated taste for Baroque art between the late eighteenth century and the 1920s, and they trace the fervent peak of interest during the 1950s and 1960s. A wide-ranging, in-depth look at the collecting of seventeenth and eighteenth-century Italian paintings in America, this volume sheds new light on the cultural conditions that led collectors to value Baroque art and the significant effects of their efforts on America's greatest museums and galleries. In addition to the editor, contributors include Andrea Bayer, Virginia Brilliant, Andria Derstine, Marco Grassi, Ian Kennedy, J. Patrice Marandel, Pablo Pérez d'Ors, Richard E. Spear, and

Eric M Zafran     Federal Register ,2002     Renaissance to Rococo Edgar Peters Bowron,Joseph Baillio,Hilliard Goldfarb,Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art,2004-01-01 The museum s distinguished director in the 1930s and 1940s Chick Austin acquired notable works by Strozzi Luca Giordano Claude and the first authentic Caravaggio in an American museum Today the Atheneum can present an exhibition beginning with such renaissance masters as Piero di Cosimo and Sebastiano del Piombo continuing with the finest examples of Baroque painting and culminating in a blaze of rococo splendor with Tiepolo Canaletto Guardi Melendez Greuze and Goya This catalogue includes a history of the collection by Eric Zafran and entries on the individual paintings by distinguished scholars BOOK JACKET     Papi in Posa

Aa.Vv.,2013-09-21T00:00:00+02:00 The exhibition entitled Papi in Posa i e Papal Portraiture with the highly refined and historically significant Braschi Palace home of the Museum of Rome in 2004 and now in Washington The John Paul II Center is not offered only as an excellent exposition of masterpieces from major international museums such as the Vatican Museums and prestigious private collections but stands out in particular because it is one of the most important expositions of portrait painting ever because of both the outstanding quality and the considerable number of paintings and sculptures offered executed by Europe s leading artists from the last five centuries and the great spiritual and social significance of the personages portrayed the greatest Pontiffs who from the 16th century to the present have sat in the Chair of Saint Peter It is suggestive to observe as we scan the unique artistic itinerary offered by the curators of the exhibition how through the succession of historical periods and particularly by virtue of the esthetic verve and inner sensitivity of the artists the description of the human person was oriented with extreme plastic ductility and acuity in their perception of their subjects physiognomy to represent not only the body lines of the subject being depicted but in particular the most intimate traits of the heart the lively mobility of their thought the innermost lines of the subject s character in an intense dialogue of chiaroscuro observations from which the characterizing notes of complex personages are evinced persons who appear completely clear and evident only to those who are capable of sublimating their outward appearance into an acute observation From this prestigious gallery of portraits it emerges unmistakably how the anthropocentric path of human thought has manifestly reverberated within the bounds of the figurative arts through a progressive contextualization which sees the subject represented unbound through a metatemporal aura of rarefied abstraction and placed naturalistically in a precise and well defined spatiotemporal sphere At the same time we witness a gradual definition of the personage portrayed as the bearer of a clear personal connotation the self and the identity which seem to be invisible and thus impossible to represent no longer hortatively as an idealized and metaphoric emblem of absolute values in deference to a markedly ethical and pedagogical conception The exhibited works which rightfully range themselves among the most outstanding expressions of portraiture reveal a deep spiritual harmony evocative of beauty and unleash a lively dialogue with the onlooker based on a real and inherent economy of the act of viewing albeit freed from the exercise of a psychologism oriented toward uncontrollable wanderings The reception of the meaning of the formal systems thoughtful poses and attitudes involves to be sure the active presence of the spectator in a sort of visual dialogue with the portrait that is not considered exclusively as a fixed commemorative system but rather as an interactive structure In the perspective of the reception the observer becomes a fundamental element for the construction of the meaning of the image that from this very private perspective undergoes obvious momentous transformations Observer and image thus become integral parts of a fascinating system of visual exchange not unlike the mechanisms of verbal dialogue both members of the pair take on contemporaneously the dual role of subject object restructuring the complex relational web established in a rapport between an I and a you Beyond the temporal contingencies each portrait is recounted and seduces us through the universal language of fame this incarnates deeply the artist's attempt to describe the personality of the subjects portrayed consigning the multiform essence of their nature to one attitude or to a single expression by resorting to a refined psychological introspection in an attempt to render visually the subject's inner world It is owing to the above considerations that while I applaud the felicitous initiative of giving life to such a culturally transcendent exhibition I would wish that all those who will have the pleasure of visiting it or at least of perusing the pages of this catalogue will be able to perceive the portraits of the individual popes not as so many freestanding elements but rather as integrated parts of a related set of men who albeit struggling with the many and varied anxieties of everyday life endeavored to serve Christ among their brothers each one with a clear perception of himself as servo servorum Dei the servant of God's servants Through looks attitudes and symbols committed by the artist in a well constructed iconographic code to the pictorial or sculptural page the discerning observer cannot help but grasp a veiled spiritual harmony that reflects the profound mystery of faith and propagates an echo of the ineffable beauty of God revealing how through art man pulled between the eternal and the transient strives to draw close to his Creator Francesco Cardinal Marchisano Vicar General of the Pope for the State of Vatican City

Dutch and Flemish Old Master Paintings Johnny Van Haeften (Firm),2005      A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings
IV Ernst van de Wetering,2010-07-19 Volume IV of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings deals uniquely with the self portraits of Rembrandt In a clearly written explanatory style the head of the Rembrandt Research Project and Editor of this Volume Ernst van de Wetering discusses the full body of work of paintings and etchings portraying Rembrandt He sets the different parameters for accepting or rejecting a Rembrandt self portrait as such whilst also discussing the exact working environment of Rembrandt and his apprentices This workshop setting created a surroundings where apprentices could be involved in working on Rembrandt paintings making it more difficult to determine the hand of the master Van de Wetering who is one of the Rembrandt experts of our day and age goes down to great detail to explain how the different self portraits are made and what techniques Rembrandt uses also giving an overview of which paintings are to be attributed to the Dutch Master and which not In the additional catalogue the self portraits are examined in detail In clear and accessible explanatory text the different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging like X radiography This work of art history and art research should be part of every serious art historical institute university or museum Nowhere in the art history have all Rembrandt's self portraits been discussed in such detailed and comparative manner by an authority such as Ernst van de Wetering This is a standard work for decades to come      The Architecture of Empire Gauvin Alexander Bailey,2022-09-23 Most monumental buildings of France's global empire such as the famous Saigon and Hanoi Opera Houses were built in South and Southeast Asia Much of this architecture and the history of who built it and how has been overlooked The Architecture of Empire considers the large scale public architecture associated with French imperialism in seventeenth and eighteenth century India Siam and Vietnam and nineteenth and twentieth century Indochina the largest colony France ever administered in Asia Offering a sweeping panorama of the buildings of France's colonial project this is the first study to encompass the architecture of both the ancien regime and modern empires from the founding of the French trading company in the seventeenth century to the independence and nationalist movements of the mid twentieth century Gauvin Bailey places particular emphasis on the human factor the people who commissioned built and lived in these buildings Almost all of these architects both Europeans and non Europeans have remained unknown beyond at best their surnames Through extensive archival research this book reconstructs their lives providing vital background for the buildings themselves Much more than in the French empire of the Western Hemisphere the buildings in this book adapt to indigenous styles regardless of whether they were designed and built by European or non European architects The Architecture of Empire provides a unique comprehensive study of structures that rank among the most fascinating examples of intercultural exchange in the history of global empires Plaster Casts
