Michel Serre et la peinture baroque en Provence (1658-1733) Marie-Claude Homet, Michel Serre, 1987      Cezanne's Early Imagery Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22

Cezanne's Early Imagery by Mary Tompkins Lewis explores the lesser known but significant early works of Paul Cezanne bringing to light the rich cultural and artistic context of his first decade as a painter. While Cezanne's biographers have long emphasized his tumultuous early life marked by his friendship with Emile Zola, his rebellious nature and his passionate yet crude persona, the actual paintings from this period have often been overshadowed. Lewis addresses this gap in Cezanne scholarship by examining how his early works reflect deep connections to both popular and artistic traditions, revealing a more nuanced and deliberate painter than previously recognized. Through detailed analysis of Cezanne's early subject pictures, Lewis moves beyond the conventional view of the artist as an impulsive romantic. Instead, she argues that his early paintings are stylistically and iconographically coherent, shaped by both his engagement with the old masters and his awareness of contemporary cultural currents. Highlighting the contributions of previous scholars such as Roger Fry and Meyer Schapiro, Lewis builds on their groundwork to offer a comprehensive reappraisal of Cezanne's early compositions. Ultimately, this study provides a deeper understanding of the young painter's creative process and the intellectual depth behind his bold, defiant imagery, enriching our appreciation of his role in modern art.

The Sun King at Sea Meredith Martin, Gillian Weiss, 2022-01-04

Winner of the 2023 Leo Gershoy Award 2023 Winner of The David H. Pinkney Prize Honorable Mention for The Mediterranean Seminar Best Book Prize 2023 Winner of the 2022 Kenshur Prize Shortlisted for Apollo Magazine's 2022 Book of the Year. This richly illustrated volume, the first devoted to maritime art and galley slavery in early modern France, shows how royal propagandists used the image and labor of enslaved Muslims to glorify Louis XIV. Mediterranean maritime art and the forced labor on which it depended were fundamental to the politics and propaganda of France's King Louis XIV, 1643-1715. Yet most studies of French art in this period focus on Paris and Versailles, overlooking the presence or portrayal of galley slaves on the kingdom's coasts. By examining a wide range of artistic productions—ship design, artillery, sculpture, medals, paintings, and prints—Meredith Martin and Gillian Weiss uncover a vital aspect of royal representation and unsettle a standard picture of art and power in early modern France. With an abundant selection of startling images, many never before published, The Sun King at Sea emphasizes the role of enslaved Turks, enslaved Turks, rowers who were captured or purchased from Islamic lands, in building and decorating ships and other art objects that circulated on land and by sea to glorify the Crown. Challenging the notion that human bondage vanished from continental France, this cross-disciplinary volume invites a reassessment of servitude as a
