Odyssey On The Sea Of Faith:

Sea of Faith Don Cupitt, 2013-01-26 This text began in the 1860s as a phrase from Matthew Arnold's picture of the decline of religion as the retreat of the tide on Dover's beach. The book has had a significant impact for its account of historical developments and its presentation of Christian non-realism.

The Philosophy of Religion Beverley Clack, Brian R. Clack, 2019-05-29 For over twenty years Beverley Clack and Brian R. Clack's distinctive and thought-provoking introduction to the philosophy of religion has been of enormous value to students and scholars, providing an approach to the subject that is bold and refreshingly alternative. This revised and updated edition retains the accessibility which makes the book popular while furthering its distinctive argument regarding the human dimension of religion. The central emphasis of the philosophy of religion, the concept of God and the arguments for and against God's existence, is reflected in thorough analyses while alternative approaches to traditional philosophical theism are explored. The treatments of both the miraculous and immortality have been revised and expanded, and the concluding chapter updates the investigation of how philosophy of religion might be conducted in an age defined by religious terrorism. Clear, systematic and highly critical, the third edition of The Philosophy of Religion will continue to be essential reading for students and scholars of this fascinating and important subject.

God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey, 2016-04-22 Who is God? The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age. Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God? How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are? God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology, exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical, pluralistic and interfaith age. Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians. David Burrell, William Placher, Bruce Marshall, in conversation with living communities of faith, and critical work in philosophy and theology, and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non-realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology. Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology, philosophy and faith traditions, this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts.

Tourism, Religion and Spiritual Journeys Dallen Timothy, Daniel Olsen, 2006-09-27 Religion and spirituality are still among the most common motivations for travel. Many major tourism destinations have developed largely as a result of their connections to sacred people, places and events. Providing a comprehensive assessment of the primary issues and concepts related to this intersection of tourism and religion, this revealing book gives a balanced discussion of both the theoretical and applied subjects that destination planners, religious organizations, scholars and tourism service providers must deal with on a daily basis. Bringing together a distinguished list of contributors, this volume takes a global approach and incorporates substantial empirical cases from Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, Roman Catholicism, Mormonism, New Ageism, Sikhism,

Knight of Faith, Volume 2 Norman Percy Grubb, 2006-04-28 The title Knight of Faith is taken from Fear and Trembling by Søren Kierkegaard. This knight is an ordinary man who believes God's word to him against all appearances like Abraham the original knight of faith did with Isaac. He enters this narrow way of faith where few venture. Kierkegaard says he is very different from the knight of infinite resignation who believes the answer will come sometime if not in this life then in the next. About this knight of faith Kierkegaard writes: But if I knew where there was such a knight of faith I would make a pilgrimage to him on foot for this prodigy interests me absolutely. I would not let go of him for an instant every moment I would watch to see how he managed to make the movements I would regard myself as secured for life and would divide my time between looking at him and practicing the exercises myself and thus would spend all my time admiring him. This knight of faith is found in Norman Percy Grubb. He looked the ordinary man such as any ordinary man but he had discovered the keys of the kingdom of faith and shared it with all. As you read his letters you too will find a remarkable yet very human person who spent a lifetime seeking God's face believing by virtue of the absurd and relentlessly sharing in every way possible that which God had given him. The world will not always recognise the true knight but he is there: butcher, baker or candlestick maker or a housewife with a vision of the impossible.

Faith in Jesus and Paul Maureen W. Yeung, 2002 For the hundred years since W. Wrede, Paulus 1904 made the provocative claim that Paul should rightly be regarded as the second founder of Christianity, scholars have debated vigorously on the relationship between Jesus and Paul. Past studies on the Jesus-Paul debate have largely been confined to either the literary or the theological level. This study looks at the issue afresh by combining the historical and the theological approaches. The discussion focuses on the issue of faith, paying special attention to two groups of Jesus' sayings: Faith that can remove mountains and Your Faith has healed/saved you, and Paul's use of Gen 15:6 and Hab 2:4. The distinctive methodology of this study is to compare Jesus and Paul against the backdrops of the Jewish biblical tradition and Hellenistic parallels. The picture of the Jesus-Paul relationship that emerges is a most complex one. To a great extent the similarity between Jesus and Paul is due to their common Jewish heritage. The early Church plays a part in influencing Paul's concept of faith and Paul himself reinterprets the Jewish Scriptures in an innovative manner. At the same time Paul is found to be greatly indebted to Jesus for his concept of faith. The method of placing Jesus and Paul against the Jewish and Hellenistic backgrounds permits a fuller appreciation of the historical and theological continuities between Jesus and Paul than has hitherto been possible.

A Liberal Education and a Liberal Faith Charles Franklin Thwing, 1903 When Faith Fails Dominic Done, 2019-02-19 Wrestling with doubt can be profoundly lonely, but Portland pastor Dominic Done offers a safe place to openly wrestle with your faith without being criticized or judged. Writing with humor and candor out of his own experiences and incorporating Scripture, literature and accounts of others who have doubted, Dominic Done argues that not only is questioning normal, it is often a path toward a rich and vibrant faith. Rather than viewing trust and doubt as incompatible When Faith Fails provides readers with a way to wrestle and ask questions while growing ever closer to God No subject is off limits and Dominic fearlessly and graciously addresses topics including the experience of tragedy the difficult parts of the Bible the intersection of science and faith the times when God is silent By walking in the path that many others have trod you can move through doubt into a deeper fuller faith a faith that doesn't run from questions and the hard work of honest wrestling but instead embraces the mysteries of belief This book is for those of us who have experienced a gut check or two when it comes to some of the intersections between our lives and our faith It's for those of us who no longer want to add unnecessary explanations to our beliefs just because we can't fully see what God is doing in our lives Bob Goff New York Times bestselling author of Everybody Always This book is one of those books that I will be buying to give to multiple friends Jefferson Bethke New York Times bestselling author of Jesus Religion This book will help you surrender and trust the areas of your life that are meant to exude God designed mystery while also holding your hand as you search for substance and truth Audrey Roff coauthor of A Love Letter Life founder of Always More and cofounder of Beating 50 Percent Doubt is such a pertinent issue in this cultural moment Dominic walks us through the issues of doubt with which we wrestle but he does so in pastoral practicality One feels as though you are seated in his living room sipping coffee Dominic is the type of soul who understands the questions of the heart He never shames He's always transparent He gives substantive hope Emerson Eggerichs PhD New York Times bestselling author of Love Respect Aids to Faith William Thomson, 1861 Faith in Poetry Michael D. Hurley, 2017-11-16 In this ambitious book Michael D Hurley explores how five great writers William Blake Alfred Tennyson Christina Rossetti Gerard Manley Hopkins and T S Eliot engaged their religious faith in poetry with a view to asking why they chose that literary form in the first place What did they believe poetry could say or do that other kinds of language or expression could not And how might poetry itself operate as a unique mode of believing These deep questions meet at the crossroads of poetics and metaphysics and the writers considered here offer different answers But these writers also collectively shed light on the interplay between literature and theology across the long nineteenth century at a time when the authority and practice of both was being fiercely reimagined
