Radical Revisions Rereading 1930s Culture:

Radical Revisions Bill Mullen, Sherry Lee Linkon, 1996 Radical Revisions brings together some of the best and most exciting recent work on the literature and popular culture of the 1930s Contributors examine a wide range of texts from classics such as Tillie Olsen's Yonnondio to popular icons such as King Kong and largely ignored novels such as Josephine Herbst's The Wedding Drawing on recent theories of gender class race ethnicity and representation they reexamine texts previously brushed aside as artistically uninteresting or too popular to be taken seriously BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved American Culture in the 1930s David Eldridge, 2008-10-08 This book provides an insightful overview of the major cultural forms of 1930s America literature and drama music and radio film and photography art and design and a chapter on the role of the federal government in the development of the arts The intellectual context of 1930s American culture is a strong feature whilst case studies of influential texts and practitioners of the decade from War of the Worlds to The Grapes of Wrath and from Edward Hopper to the Rockefeller Centre help to explain the cultural impulses of radicalism nationalism and escapism that characterize the United States in the 1930s

American Modernism and Depression Documentary Jeff Allred, 2012-11-01 American Modernism and Depression Documentary surveys the uneven terrain of American modernity through the lens of the documentary book Jeff Allred argues that photo texts of the 1930s stage a set of mediations between rural hinterlands and metropolitan areas between elite producers of culture and the forgotten man of Depression era culture between a myth of consensual national unity and various competing ethnic and regional collectivities In light of the complexity this entails this study takes issue with a critical tradition that has painted the documentary expression of the 1930s as a simplistic and propagandistic divergence from literary modernism Allred situates these texts and the documentary modernism they represent as a central part of American modernism and response to American modernity as he looks at the impoverished sharecroppers depicted in the groundbreaking Let Us Now Praise Famous Men the disenfranchised African Americans in Richard Wright's polemical 12 Million Black Voices and the experiments in Depression era photography found in Life magazine White Diaspora Catherine Jurca, 2001-03-04 In novels as disparate as Tarzan written by Tarzana California real estate developer Edgar Rice Burroughs Richard Wright's Native Son and recent fiction by John Updike and Richard Ford Jurca finds an emphasis on the suburb under siege a place where the fortunate tend to see themselves as powerless From Babbitt to Rabbit the suburban novel casts property owners living in communities of their choosing as dispossessed people Material advantages become artifacts of oppression and affluence is fraudulently identified as impoverishment The fantasy of victimization reimagines white flight as a white diaspora Ain't Got No Home Erin Royston Battat, 2014-03-17 Most scholarship on the mass migrations of African Americans and southern whites during and after the Great Depression treats those migrations as separate phenomena strictly divided along racial lines In this engaging interdisciplinary work Erin Royston Battat argues instead that we should understand these Depression era migrations as interconnected responses to the capitalist collapse and political upheavals of the early twentieth century During the 1930s and 1940s Battat shows writers and artists of both races created migration stories specifically to bolster the black white Left alliance Defying rigid critical categories Battat considers a wide variety of media including literary classics by John Steinbeck and Ann Petry lost novels by Sanora Babb and William Attaway hobo novellas images of migrant women by Dorothea Lange and Elizabeth Catlett popular songs and histories and ethnographies of migrant shipyard workers This vibrant rereading and recovering of the period s literary and visual culture expands our understanding of the migration narrative by uniting the political and aesthetic goals of the black and white literary Left and illuminating the striking interrelationship between American populism and civil rights

Comrades and Critics Candida Rifkind,2009-01-17 While Canadian historians have studied socialism in the 1930s and although there have been many studies of American and British literary leftists from this period Comrades and Critics is the first full length study of Canada s 1930s literary left Challenging dominant perceptions that this decade was a lull between the more celebrated modernist enterprises of the 1920s and 1940s Candida Rifkind argues that the events of the 1930s from mass unemployment to the dustbowl to the Spanish Civil War galvanized a generation of writers leading them to unite artistic practice and political action in provocative and influential ways Analyzing and recovering much neglected poems plays manifestoes and documentaries Rifkind demonstrates how leftist cultural production came to dominate English Canadian literature by the end of the decade She pays particular attention to the significant role that women writers played in this period and examines a diverse group of writers that included Dorothy Livesay Anne Marriott Irene Baird and Toby Gordon Ryan These writers negotiated the struggle to revolutionize both literature and politics while being subject to the gender hierarchies of socialism and literary modernism that continued long after the thirties came to an end A groundbreaking study in Canadian history and literature Comrades and Critics is a much needed examination of an important and still influential literary period

The Cambridge Companion to American Literature of the 1930s William Solomon,2018-09-20 Offers a timely introduction to the intersection of radical politics and American literature in the period of the Great Depression
