Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers, 1903-1929 Jamie

Barlowe, 2024-08-08 Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers 1903 1929 focuses on fifty three silent film adaptations of the novels of acclaimed authors George Eliot Charlotte Bront Emily Bront Mary Shelley Louisa May Alcott Harriet Beecher Stowe Willa Cather and Edith Wharton Many of the films are unknown or dismissed and most of them are degraded destroyed or lost burned in warehouse fires spontaneously combusted in storage cans or quietly turned to dust Their content and production and distribution details are reconstructed through archival resources as individual narratives that when considered collectively constitute a broader narrative of lost knowledge a fragmented and buried early twentieth century story now reclaimed and retold for the first time to a twenty first century audience This collective narrative also demonstrates the extent to which the adaptations are intertextually and ideologically entangled with concurrently released early woman s films to re promote and re instill the norm of idealized white married domesticated womanhood

during a time of extraordinary cultural change for women Retelling this lost narrative also allows for a reassessment of the place and function of the adaptations in the development of the silent film industry and as cinematic precedent for the hundreds of sound adaptations of the literary texts of these eight women writers produced from 1931 to the 2020s

Italy in Early American Cinema Giorgio Bertellini, 2010 Giorgio Bertellini traces the origins of American cinema s century long fascination with Italy and Italian immigrants to the popularity of the pre photographic aesthetic the picturesque Once associated with landscape painting in northern Europe the picturesque came to symbolize Mediterranean Europe through comforting views of distant landscapes and exotic characters Taking its cue from a picturesque stage backdrop from The Godfather Part II Italy in Early American Cinema shows how this aesthetic was transferred from 19th century American painters to early 20th century American filmmakers Italy in Early American Cinema offers readings of early films that pay close attention to how landscape representations that were related to narrative settings and filmmaking locations conveyed distinct ideas about racial difference and national destiny ways they have been misrepresented The author demonstrates that film and television are key means by which socioeconomically marginalized groups are classified according to hegemonic norms as well as the ways such groups can undermine these misrepresentations through their use of the media As a theoretical reflection on the Inside Film project and the relationship between filmmaking and education this book explores what radical pedagogy looks like in action

Hollywood Left and Right Steven J. Ross, 2011-09-06 Ever since the film industry relocated to Hollywood early in the twentieth century it has had an outsized influence on American politics Through a series of gripping chapters on larger than life figures in American cinema Charlie Chaplin Louis Mayer Edward G Robinson Harry Belafonte Ronald Reagan George Murphy Jane Fonda Charlton Heston Warren Beatty and Arnold Schwarzenegger Hollywood Left and Right tells the compelling story of how Hollywood emerged as a vital center of American politics From Chaplin whose movies almost always displayed his leftist convictions to Schwarzenegger's nearly seamless transition from action blockbusters to the California governor's mansion Steve Ross traces the intersection of Hollywood and political activism through the twentieth century and into the 21st Significantly Hollywood Left and Right challenges the commonly held belief that Hollywood is a bastion of liberalism The real story as Ross shows in this passionate yet highly entertaining work is a far more complicated one The Left and the Right each gained ascendancy in Tinseltown at different times but while the Hollywood Left was usually more vocal and visible it was the Right that achieved the most capturing a Senate seat Murphy a governorship Schwarzenegger and ultimately the Presidency Reagan
