Raiki Wara Long Cloth From Aboriginal Australia And The Torres Strait:

Raiki Wara Judith Ryan, Robyn Healy, 1998 Raiki Wara Judith Ryan, Robyn Healy, 1998 This important exhibition celebrates the use of an introduced medium which has encouraged a daring break with tradition in contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art In focussing on painted and printed textiles and on the last three decades Raiki Wara draws attention to the contribution of indigenous artists throughout Australia who have made this new medium their own

Aboriginal Religions in Australia Françoise Dussart, Howard Morphy, 2017-09-08 Over the last 25 years there has been an explosion of interest in the Aboriginal religions of Australia and this anthology provides a variety of recent writings by a wide range of scholars Australian Aboriginal Religions are probably the oldest extant religious systems Over some 50 000 years they have coped with change and re invented themselves in an astonishingly creative way The Dreaming the mythical time when the Ancestor Spirits shaped the territories of the Aborigines and laid down a moral and ritual law for their occupants is the fundamental religious reality It is the basis of the Aborigines s view of their land or country kinship relationships ritual and art However the Dreaming is not a static principle since it is interpreted in different ways as in the extraordinary movement in contemporary indigenous painting and in attempts at an accommodation with Christianity The contributions of anthropologists cultural historians philosophers of religion and others are included in this anthology which not only guides readers through the literature but also ensures this still largely inaccessible material is available to a wider range of readers and non specialist students and academics Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and Non-Indigenous Art Sarah

Scott, Helen McDonald, Caroline Jordan, 2023-08-11 This edited collection examines art resulting from cross cultural interactions between Australian First Nations and non Indigenous people from the British invasion to today Focusing on themes of collaboration and dialogue the book includes two conversations between First Nations and non Indigenous authors and an historian s self reflexive account of mediating between traditional owners and an international art auction house to repatriate art There are studies of reverse appropriation by early nineteenth century Aboriginal carvers of tourist artefacts and the production of enigmatic toa Cross cultural dialogue is traced from the post war period to Aboriginalism in design and the First Nations fashion industry of today Transculturation conceptualism and collaboration are contextualised in the 1980s a pivotal decade for the growth of collaborative First Nations exhibitions Within the current circumstances of political protest in photographic portraiture and against the mining of sacred Aboriginal land Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and Non Indigenous Art testifies to the need for Australian institutions to collaborate with First Nations people more often and better This book will appeal to students and scholars of art history Indigenous anthropology and museum and heritage studies Aboriginal Art Wally Caruana, 2025-03-20 This concise survey showcases the incredible diverse work of Aboriginal and Torres Strait artists Building on traditions that stretch back at least 50 000 years these artists have long worked in a variety of contexts from the sacred and secret realm of ceremony to more public spheres From isolated beginnings to post colonialism and the present Wally Caruana explains how Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art has continually developed and responded to change and considers the impact of urban living the growth of local art centres that support the artists in these communities and the recognition of women artists This new edition has been expanded and updated to include and reflect on important artists who have emerged in the last decade with a focus on the burgeoning of activity in the Southern Desert region Queensland and the Torres Strait Islands all testament to Aboriginal arts continued dynamism and vitality

Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angelique Szymanek, 2021-04-28
Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960 1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book's central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies
Indigenous Archives Darren Jorgensen, Ian McLean, 2017 The archive is a source of power It takes control of the past deciding which voices will be heard and which won't how they will be heard and for what purposes Indigenous archivists were at work well before the European Enlightenment arrived and began its own archiving Sometimes at odds other times not these two ways of ordering the world have each learned from and engaged with the other Colonialism has been a struggle over archives and its processes as much as anything else The eighteen essays by twenty authors investigate different aspects of this struggle in Australia from traditional Indigenous archives and their developments in recent times to the deconstruction of European archives by contemporary artists as acts of cultural empowerment It also examines the use of archives developed for other reasons such as the use of rainfall records to interpret early Papunya paintings Indigenous Archives is the first overview of archival research in the production and understanding of Indigenous culture Wide ranging in its scope it reveals the lively state of research into Indigenous histories and culture in Australia
Tiwi Textiles Diana Wood Conroy, Bede Tungutalum, 2022-12-01 Tiwi Textiles Design Making Process tells the story of the innovative Tiwi Design centre on Bathurst Island in northern Australia dedicated to the production of hand printed fabrics featuring Indigenous designs from the 1970s to today Written by early art coordinator Diana Wood Conroy with oral testimony from senior Tiwi artist Bede Tungutalum who established Tiwi Design in 1969 with fellow designer Giovanni Tipungwuti the book traces the beginnings of the centre and its subsequent place in the Tiwi community and Australian Indigenous culture more broadly Bringing together many voices and images especially those of little known older artists of Paru and Wurrumiyanga formerly Nguui on the Tiwi Islands and from the Indigenous literature Tiwi Textiles features profiles of Tiwi artists accounts of the development of new design processes insights into Tiwi culture and language and personal reflections on the significance of Tiwi Design which is still proudly operating today Tiwi Textiles is a unique historical document a formidable vindication of the accomplishments of great Indigenous artists and an account of a missing chapter in world art history The book is a wonderful chronicle of a vital and fertile period for Tiwi practice in the emergence of contemporary Indigenous art But it is also a charter for the future Nicholas Thomas FBA FAHA Director Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Cambridge Wood Conroy not only writes intricately and sensitively a vital history of Tiwi art she also firms up the place of fibre and textiles practices in Indigenous art and leaves space for us to consider how art history can shift to become more responsive to the lived realities of Indigenous peoples and our non Indigenous accomplices Tristen Harwood The Saturday Paper Drawn from the Ground Jennifer Green, 2014-05-08 Provides a multimodal analysis of women's sand stories from Central Australia showing how speech sign gesture and drawing work together Contemporary Art and Feminism Jacqueline Millner, Catriona Moore, 2021-07-05 This important new book examines contemporary art while foregrounding the key role feminism has played in enabling current modes of artmaking spectatorship and theoretical discourse Contemporary Art and Feminism carefully outlines the links between feminist theory and practice of the past four decades of contemporary art and offers a radical re-reading of the contemporary movement Rather than focus on filling in the gaps of accepted histories by adding the missing female queer First Nations and women artists of colour the authors seek to revise broader understandings of contemporary practice by providing case studies contextualised in a robust art historical and theoretical basis Readers are encouraged to see where art ideas come from and evaluate past and present art strategies What strategies materials or tropes are less relevant in today's networked event-driven art economies What strategies and themes should we keep hold of or develop in new ways This is a significant and innovative intervention that is ideal for students in courses on contemporary art within fine arts visual studies history of art gender studies and queer studies Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Art in the Collection of the National Gallery of Victoria National Gallery of Victoria, Judith Ryan (Museum curator), 2015 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Art in the Collection of the National Gallery of Victoria is a major overview of the work of Indigenous artists of the past 130 years Entries on more than 100 works in the NGV's collection reveal the influence of early Indigenous objects on contemporary dialogues explain systems of representation in Indigenous art and reveal the ways artists have responded to change and have incorporated new aesthetic principles and artistic concepts images and imaginaries over time Through visual analysis readers gain an understanding of preoccupations with place ceremony identity and race in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art This beautifully illustrated publication identifies similarities in artistic perception across time and place and disrupts prevailing binaries of centre and periphery traditional and contemporary and urban and non-urban modes of representation and identification Across the Desert Judith Ryan, National Gallery of

Victoria, 2009 This superbly illustrated volume celebrates the early development of Australian Aboriginal women's art through the evolution of batik production in five central desert communities Ernabella Fregon Utopia Yuendumu and Kintore Originating in Indonesia batik is a wax resist process used to create patterned fabric It first emerged as a dynamic new form of Aboriginal art during the 1970s and 1980s and has since gone on to become one of the most instantly recognizable forms of Aboriginal art Across the Desert features many exceptional and pioneering works including designs created by leading artists Nyukana Baker Emily Kam Ngwarray and Ada Bird Petyarr who all began their careers in the medium

Indigenous Australian Art in the National Gallery of Victoria National Gallery of Victoria, Judith Ryan, 2002 This is both a document on the development of photography and a record of the growth of a nation It covers 150 yrs of Australia photography 1847 2000 from traditional to contemporary

Indigenous Art Art Gallery of Western Australia, Brenda L. Croft, 2001 This book offers a window into the indigenous art collection in the Art Gallery of WA Through comprehensive essays by past and present staff whose words are brought to life by wonderful images this is a significant representation of the wealth of indigenous visual art and culture in the Art Gallery's collections

Ernabella Batiks David Kaus, 2004 Just three decades ago Aboriginal women in the desert community of Ernabella began using batik to create patterned fabrics Today they have an international reputation for exquisite work Enjoy their stories through the stunning collection of Winifred Hilliard responsible for introducing batik at Ernabella
