Knoll, Hermann J. Hiery, 2010-03-10 The German Colonial Experience provides readers with an understanding of how the Germans gained explored pacified ruled and exploited their colonies prior to their loss in World War I Knoll and Hiery show how Africans Chinese and Pacific Islanders reacted to German rule how the Germans ran the daily affairs of government their vision for the colonized peoples and how the colonizers and the colonized perceived one another In other words how did German colonial rule actually work This book intensely scrutinizes colonial documents most of them in German script from archives not only in Germany but also from places such as Australia New Guinea and Samoa Many of these documents have never previously been published even in the original German Official Proceedings of the New York Railroad Club New York Railroad Club, 1920 The Political Economy of China's Belt and Road Initiative in East Africa Simon Züfle, 2023-03-25 This book examines the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI in East Africa The BRI is considered China's central geopolitical and geo economic project in the era of President Xi Jinping Through this work the author aims to contribute to filling some research gaps such as the lack of depth in studies of individual BRI projects and the underconsideration of processing narratives in participating countries The guiding question is the extent to which the BRI is a political or hegemonic project of the CCP directed state civil society complex in East Africa To answer these questions databases of international organizations and policy documents are analyzed In addition the author conducts a qualitative content analysis of newspaper articles from local media houses in the countries of Ethiopia Kenya and Tanzania to examine three infrastructure projects The work illustrates that the BRI contributes to increasing connectivity in East Africa At the same time the compression of economic relations and the implementation of infrastructure projects in East Africa lead to numerous consequences and contour a hegemonic project Tradition and Transition in East Africa P.  examines the impact of the 1972 immigration of 28 000 Asians expelled from Uganda looking at the impact on both the immigrants themselves and the British host community It is an attempt to understand some of the dynamics of forced migrant transition from one society and culture to another The study was largely carried out in Wandsworth and Slough and shows how these communities not without social problems before this influx of immigrants adapted to the new arrivals The sensitivity and effectiveness of the community relations organisations and the welfare agencies in these areas is revealed
