Regia Marina Italian Battleships Of World War Two:

Regia Marina Erminio Bagnasco, Mark M. Grossman, 1986 Italian Battleships of World War II Mark Stille, 2011-08-20 Italy's navy the Regia Marina was the fourth largest naval force in the world at the outbreak of World War II and yet is often overlooked and largely discounted as ineffective. In general the fleet was made up of obsolete vessels lacked radar functionality and had a reputation for indiscipline and poorly trained crews. The complex and bureaucratic command system imposed on the fleet further hampered its effectiveness. In this book Mark Stille details why the Italian battleships were able to maintain a solid reputation examining their impressive designs and the courage and determination of the fleet at Calabria, Sirte, Cape Spartivento and Cape Matapan, all illustrated with stunning photographs from the Italian Navy's own archives.

Mussolini's Navy Maurizio Brescia, 2012-09-30 A simply magnificent book describing the Italian Navy of the Second World War, profiling all classes of vessels from battleships to submarines. Pegasus Archive. This book is a complete guide to the Regia Marina, the navy with which Italy fought the Second World War. Starting with the historical background, it describes how the navy developed, how it was organized, the facilities that supported it, and the operations it conducted both before and after the armistice in 1943. It also details all its ships with full technical particulars, plans, and photos. Furthermore, there are chapters on special topics like camouflage, uniforms, decorations, and insignia, and a who's who of important naval personalities. The reference value of the book is enhanced by a comprehensive bibliography and guide to sources. The illustration is a noteworthy feature of the book, as the author's collection of naval photographs is one of the best in Italy. He is also a fine draughtsman, and his ship plans and color illustrations are both detailed and accurate, adding a particular appeal for modelmakers. Of all the main combatant navies of this era, the Italian is probably the most poorly represented in English publications, so this comprehensive handbook will be especially welcomed by the naval community. An overview of the wartime Italian Navy, including its bases and organization, ships, and aircraft, an enjoyable book.

Warships International Fleet Review: A major achievement and a milestone in the renaissance of Italian Naval history, the book is a gem and is thoroughly recommended. The Navy Vol 75.

World War II in Europe David T. Zabecki, 2015-05-01 World War II defined the 20th century and shaped many events, from the decolonization of Africa to the rise and fall of the Berlin Wall. This encyclopedia offers a focused overview of this complex and volatile era, the circumstances that led up to war, the underlying causes, its unfolding, and consequences. Organized for quick and precise access, more than 1300 entries by 150 experts are arranged in six sections for easy reference and consultation. All the key ideas, events, actions, weapons, individuals, and organizations that played vital roles in the war are covered, from the Axis Pact to the Arab League, from the OSS to the Africa Corps, from the Chetniks to the Jedburghs, from the battle of Kursk to Operation Mincemeat, from Bill Donovan to Otto Skorzeny, from Gestapo to SMERSH, from Georgi Zhukov to Jean Leclerc, from the 88 gun to the Norden Bombsight. Covers important, neglected subjects. The Encyclopedia puts special emphasis on the often neglected operations in Eastern Europe and Russia. A key section inspects and rates all the major weapons with handy tables for easy comparison And in recognition of the first large scale participation of women in the war the volume thoroughly documents their individual and unit contributions to the Allied effort Finally the encyclopedia discusses battlefield realities that explain for example why the airborne drops at Normandy succeeded and the ones at Arnheim failed A bibliography glossary maps photographs and weapons and data tables enhance the coverage Also includes 16 maps German and Italian Aircraft Carriers of World War II Ryan K. Noppen, Douglas C.

Dildy, 2022-05-26 This fully illustrated study details Germany and Italy's failed development of World War II aircraft carriers and the naval aviation ships that the two Axis powers sent into action in their place The quest for a modern aircraft carrier was the ultimate symbol of the Axis powers' challenge to Allied naval might but fully fledged carriers proved either too difficult, expensive or politically unpopular for either to make operational After the Anglo German Naval Agreement of 1935 Hitler publicly stated his intention to build an aircraft carrier the Graf Zeppelin which was launched in 1938 A year later the ambitious fleet expansion Z Plan was unveiled with two additional aircraft carriers earmarked for production However by the beginning of World War II Graf Zeppelin was not yet completed and work was halted Further aircraft carrier designs and conversion projects such as the ocean liner Europa and heavy cruiser Seydlitz were considered but in January 1943 all construction work on surface vessels ceased and naval resources were diverted to the U boat Campaign This book explains not only the history of Germany's famous Graf Zeppelin fleet carrier and German carrier conversion projects but also Italy's belated attempt to convert two of her ocean liners into carriers It considers the role of naval aviation in the two countries' rearmament programmes and describes how ultimately it was only Italian seaplane carriers and German ocean going catapult equipped flying boat carriers that both Axis powers did eventually send into combat The Littorio Class

Ermingo Bagnasco, 2011-07-18 For its final battleship design Italy ignored all treaty restrictions on tonnage and produced one of Europe's largest and most powerful capital ships comparable with Germany's Bismarck class similarly built in defiance of international agreements The three ships of the Littorio class were typical of Italian design being fast and elegant but also boasting a revolutionary protective scheme which was tested to the limits as all three were to be heavily damaged in the hard fought naval war in the Mediterranean Roma had the unfortunate distinction of being the first capital ship sunk by guided missile These important ships have never been covered in depth in English language publications but the need is now satisfied in this comprehensive and convincing study by two of Italy's leading naval historians The book combines a detailed analysis of the design with an operational history evaluating how the ships stood up to combat It is illustrated with an amazing collection of photographs many fine line plans and coloured artwork of camouflage schemes adding up to as complete a monograph on a single class ever published Among warship enthusiasts battleships enjoy a unique status As the great success of Seaforth's recent book on French battleships proves that interest transcends national boundaries and this superbly executed study is certain to become another classic in the field The War in North Africa, 1940-1943 Colin F.

Baxter,1996-03-30 Few of the major campaigns of World War II aroused as much controversy as the War in North Africa 1940 1943 Figures such as Rommel Montgomery and Eisenhower would become world famous because of the fighting in North Africa This book opens with seven historiographical essays that evaluate and critically assess the major contributions to the literature on the War in North Africa It then includes an alphabetically arranged bibliography of the 504 entries cited in the essays The material is easily accessible with cross references between the text and the bibliography and a full index The volume includes chapters on the Desert War 1940 42 the Axis Powers in North Africa Montgomery Alam Halfa and El Alamein TORCH the Landings in French North Africa and the Tunisian Campaign Full attention is given to questions and issues historians have raised on such controversies as the Auchinleck Montgomery dispute the debate over Operation TORCH and the Darlan affair Emphasis is on English language works but the most significant Italian German and French works are cited and assessed The book has been written for use in public college university and institutional libraries and to serve general readers and military historians

British Battleship vs Italian Battleship Mark Stille,2020-01-23 During World War II s battle for control of the Mediterranean both the British and Italian navies planned to bring their battle fleets into play At the centre of both of these fleets was a core of battleships which both sides expected to play a decisive role in the conflict On 9 July 1940 the two navies met in the central Mediterranean as two Italian battleships faced off against three of their British counterparts Christened the Battle of Calabria the action allowed the ships to play to their strengths engaging in a long range gunnery duel the very thing they had been designed for Though both sides shot well the only hit was scored by Warspite on the Italian battleship Giulio Cesare The Italians were forced to withdraw and the action ended up being indecisive but it was the largest fleet action fought in the Mediterranean during the war As well as this battle there were other occasions during the war when both British and Italian battleships were present and influential but during which they never engaged each other directly the Battle of Spartivento on 27 November 1940 and the Battle of Cape Matapan on 28 29 March 1941 Packed with full colour artwork carefully selected archive photographs and expert analysis this title explores in detail the role played by British and Italian battleships in these encounters and their influence in the Mediterranean theatre of World War II
