Regional Communitybuilding In East Asia:

Regional Community-building in East Asia Youngmin Kwon,Yǒng-min Kwŏn,2002 Regional Community Building in East Asia Lee Lai To,Zarina Othman,2016-09-01 This volume is a collection of papers written by nationals or former nationals of the respective country in ASEAN and Northeast Asia Unlike other works written by scholars outside ASEAN or East Asia it offers an insider s point of view of the 10 ASEAN states China Japan and South Korea on regional community building While a nationalist perspective may permeate throughout the study it is also clear that pursuing regional cooperation is considered to be important by the respective author denoting the non exclusivity between nationalism and regionalism and the mutual reinforcement of the two Each author of this volume has made a deliberate effort to introduce and survey the developmental challenges and experiences of his or her country from a historical perspective All authors without exception have emphasized the importance and advantages in staying with ASEAN or linking up with ASEAN by China Japan and South Korea in political security economic and socio cultural terms Their papers also reveal that the self help and self strengthening mechanism emphasized by the ASEAN Plus Three process will take time to bear fruits In the meantime it seems that bilateral interactions and cooperation between ASEAN and Northeast Asian states remain to be more dominant as shown in this study One can argue that bilateral interactions are the building block of multilateralism interactions To be sure there is a deliberate effort in this study to highlight unity in diversity in East Asia in general and ASEAN in particular Regional Security in East Asia Aileen San Pablo Baviera,2008 Reinventing Regional Order in East Asia Moch Faisal Karim,2016 In the post Cold War era East Asia has undergone fundamental changes These are even more visible in the 21st century with the rise of China and the United States long term plan for pivoting to the region as well as the emergence of Asian middle powers and ASEAN s greater role as a global actor While Cold War era East Asia was characterized by the lack of institution building efforts currently regionalism is burgeoning at both the multilateral or bilateral levels ranging from security to economic cooperation Despite the proliferation of regional cooperation however many observers still see cooperation in Asia as lacking in substance Thus the region is now in a critical juncture when it comes to regional architecture building How will East Asia s regional architecture look like in the future Will recent developments lead to a more Asia oriented community How should the Asia Pacific respond to the strategic challenges in East Asia such as the territorial disputes in both Northeast Asia and Southeast Asia as well as historical enmity among countries in the region This article attempts to sketch out how multilateral cooperation within East Asia remains the fundamental building block for regional architecture building Given that ASEAN s regional community building is ongoing and currently represents the most institutionalized multilateral cooperation in the region this article further asserts that the centrality of ASEAN drives forward the international architecture in East Asia through insisting on a multilateral approach in the construction of a new regional order Leadership in Regional Community-Building Siti Darwinda Mohamed

Pero, 2019-06-18 This book examines the role of political leadership as a driver in the process of regional community building in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and the European Union EU It considers under which conditions political leadership constitutes a driver of regional community building and reconceptualises the very idea of political leadership in order to examine its role in a regional context The book concludes that a comprehensive approach that incorporates political will the capacity of individual leaders state capacity legitimacy and summitry yields a deeper understanding of political leadership in regional bodies Advancing East Asian Regionalism Melissa Curley, Nicholas Thomas, 2012-10-12 Developments in East Asia have progressed rapidly in terms of regionalism since the 1997 crisis The end of the Asian miracle called into question not only the capacity of regional states to meet the needs of their attendant peoples but also challenged the viability of regional organizations such as ASEAN to adapt and respond to the changing circumstances Advancing East Asian Regionalism looks at the ways in which ASEAN has expanded since the crisis and evaluates the potential of East Asia to come together in a regional formation one capable of representing the region as a whole akin to the European Community It draws upon the knowledge and perspectives of academics and policy makers actively engaged in the contradictory issues of regionalism Coupling case study material on regionalism institutions and sectoral cooperation with theoretical debates on regionalization this book is an invaluable resource that pushes our understanding of East Asian regionalism forward China and Asian Regionalism Yunling Zhang, 2010 This is the only English language publication with a distinctly Northeast Asian outside Japan and Chinese perspective on pan East Asian Regionalism including both Northeast and Southeast Asian Regionalism published within the last 5 years that is distributed internationally It traces the development of Asian regionalism and analyzes China's role and policy on East Asian cooperation and integration The 15 chapters in this volume directly involve all major policy researches and project designing in the process of the East Asia cooperation They provide valuable information for knowing understanding and studying the ongoing process of regional cooperation in East Asia Multilateralism Under Challenge: Power, International Order, And Structural Change Edward Newman, Ramesh Thakur And John Triman, Managing Great Power Politics Kei Koga, 2022-08-31 This Open Access book explains ASEAN's strategic role in managing great power politics in East Asia Constructing a theory of institutional strategy this book argues that the regional security institutions in Southeast Asia ASEAN and ASEAN led institutions have devised their own institutional strategies vis vis the South China Sea and navigated the great power politics since the 1990s ASEAN proliferated new security institutions in the 1990s and 2000s that assumed a different functionality a different geopolitical scope and thus a different institutional strategy In so doing ASEAN formed a strategic institutional web that nurtured a quasi division of labor among the institutions to maintain relative stability in the South China Sea Unlike the conventional analysis on ASEAN this study disaggregates ASEAN as a collective regional actor into specific individual institutions ASEAN Foreign Ministers Meeting ASEAN Summit ASEAN China dialogues ASEAN

Regional Forum East Asia Summit and ASEAN Defense Ministers Meeting and ASEAN Defense Ministers Meeting Plus and explains how each of these institutions has devised and or shifted its institutional strategy to curb great powers ambition in dominating the South China Sea while navigating great power competition The book sheds light on the strategic potential and limitations of ASEAN and ASEAN led security institutions offers implications for the future role of ASEAN in the Indo Pacific region and provides an alternative understanding of the strategic utilities of regional security institutions The Niche Diplomacy of Asian Middle Powers Brendan M. Howe, 2021-05-20 The four countries represented in this volume are East Asian middle powers with strategic constraints upon their traditional security policymaking These middle powers have pursued diplomatic activities raising their international profile or footprint and advancing their national interest through normative foreign policy and humanitarian channels including peacebuilding development and human security In each case therefore there is a happy coincidence of the national interest of the middle power expressed through certain diplomatic niches and benefit to regional partners in peace and development The Niche Diplomacy of Asian Middle Powers seeks to uncover the unique contributions of Asian middle powers to the furtherance of humanitarian and human related policymaking including the promotion of peace development and democracy long associated with middle powerism with particular emphasis on their involvement in the Southeast Asian subregion Japan South Korea and Taiwan have made Southeast Asia a focus for their attempts to get more bang for their foreign policy buck or Yen or Won and have adopted similar normatively justified variations on the theme of new Southern policies Meanwhile Thailand looks to play a variety of middle power roles within a region where it is a major actor
