Regional Integration In South Asia Perspectives And Prospects:

Regional Integration in South Asia M. Mahmood, 1987 Regional Integration in South Asia Mohammad A Razzaque, Yurendra Basnett, 2014 Regional Integration in South Asia Trends Challenges and Prospects presents an objective assessment of trade and economic co operation among South Asian nations and highlights policy issues to foster regional integration The analyses presented in this volume go beyond the usual discussions on trade in goods to provide insightful perspectives on potential new areas of co operation emerging challenges and country specific views on regional and bilateral trade co operation issues Written by influential analysts and researchers the volume s 24 chapters include perspectives from Bangladesh India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka and examinations of new areas of co operation such as investment regional supply chains energy and cross border transport networks Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Issues and Prospects OECD, The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre at the University of South Australia, 2005-04-28 This report published by the OECD s International Futures Programme in co operation with the Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre in Australia aims to stimulate informed debate about the main integration issues facing the Asia Pacific region in the

Strengthening Regional Trade Integration in South Asia Owais Hasan Khan, 2021-03-05 This book brings forth the philosophical conceptual and practical contours of the trade regionalism provisions under the GATT WTO It analyses SAARC as the regional integration organisation of South Asia along with identifying major challenges and bottlenecks faced by it in the process of achieving regional integration It presents ways and methods through which SAARC can be made a more effective regional organisation The book predominantly focuses on trade regionalism However other areas of integration which have impacts on the trade regionalism are also examined like social and political integrations etc The book takes off from the premise that trade regionalism under SAARC has failed and has been marred by political and security concerns among its member nations It has failed to achieve its objective on all the three counts which are promoting peace development and economic cooperation However with the developing countries as members SAARC has great potential for trade integration Certain structural normative and organisation alteration along with favourable ideation can still make SAARC achieve its full potential The book also deals with the comparative analysis of SAARC regional integration with the regional integration under European Union and ASEAN Regarding comparative regionalism the discussion has been confined only to the EU and ASEAN The EU has been chosen because it is comparatively established as one of the most successful regional organisations in the contemporary world Whereas ASEAN has been chosen because of its similarity to the SAARC s economy society and political structure The analysis presented in the book is from the perspectives of international law and international relations theories and practise This book thus is of particular relevance to the students researchers academicians policymakers and practitioners of international trade law international relations and South Asian studies

Regionalism in South Asia Kishore C. Dash, 2008-02-19 The dramatic surge in regional integration schemes over the past two decades has been one of the most important developments in world politics This book examines regionalism in South Asia exploring the linkages between institutional structures government capabilities and domestic actors preferences to explain the dynamics of regional cooperation

Trade and Regional Integration in South Asia Selim Raihan,Prabir De,2020-04-27 Gathering contributions from leading academics and international trade experts from South Asia this book is dedicated to the late Dr Saman Kelegma whose untimely death in June 2017 left a huge void in the field of regional economic cooperation Keeping in mind his enduring legacy regarding regional cooperation in South Asia it covers issues related to the challenges of deeper regional integration in South Asia and proposes strategies to address these challenges It also offers an up to date rigorous academic analysis of various issues related to low intra regional trade in South Asia prevalence of tariff barriers incidence of a range of non tariff measures challenges of weak trade related infrastructure and the need for trade facilitation the political economics of regional integration highlighting how bilateral political relations affect the integration process low level of intra regional investment South Asia s pattern of integration with the global and regional value chains pattern and dominance of informal trade and alternative regional integration initiatives in South Asia such as the bilateral regional and sub regional trade agreements within and countries outside this region Intended primarily for researchers and students of international trade and policymakers from South Asia and beyond the book is also a valuable supplementary reference resource for researchers and students Furthermore the pragmatic analysis of the policy options presented offers guidance for policymakers in South Asia wanting to implement effective policies and strategies for deeper regional integration

Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi,2020-12-23 This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective a post colonial and post partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives ignoring the socio cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood the impact of social media on Border Studies trans border cooperation water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation It also suggests ways of enhancing cross border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective Well supplemented with case studies the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies military and strategic studies international relations geopolitics and South Asian studies It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies especially those dealing with foreign relations

Political Economic Perspectives of China's Belt and Road Initiative Christian Ploberger,2019-07-30 The book begins with an overview on China s Belt and Road Initiative highlighting its complex character as a domestic and international development strategy and offering an up to date evaluation of it In response to this complexity the book attempts to highlight the Belt and Road Initiative's double character and how it will address primary domestic development challenges that the Chinese government is facing by adding an international focus to a domestic development strategy This in turn supports the understanding of China's political economic policy and strategy formulation by reminding that supporting China's domestic development is still the primary task of its government Even as the domestic aspect of the Belt and Road Initiative is highlighted its regional and international relevance cannot be ignored either The Belt and Road Initiative will support a continuation of the persisting debate about the impact that China's rise generates and to what extent China can be characterised as a satisfied status quo power or a dissatisfied revisionist power In this context the book draws attention to the various impacts that the Belt and Road Initiative generates in different regional settings However the book also identifies some of the limitations that China's Belt and Road Initiative encounters despite the seemingly convincing economic goals it offers and explains why a few of the countries like India are resisting the lure

Intellectual Property Debates in South Asia Pratyush Nath Upreti, 2025-10-30 This book brings together leading scholars from South Asia and beyond to examine the development of intellectual property IP law within the national legal systems in South Asia It is the first comprehensive effort to consolidate the region's IP practices and narratives within a single edited volume Highlighting diverse approaches in countries such as India Pakistan Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh and Afghanistan the book embraces local legal ethos and promotes comparative studies at regional and international levels Structured in three parts Part 1 addresses IP through development and social justice lenses covering IP theory geographical indications technology transfer and de colonisation Part 2 examines recent legislative and judicial developments across the region Part 3 offers comparative insights with a focus on institutions courts and practices Each contribution addresses innovative IP practices and emerging challenges in South Asia offering a platform for further discussion among scholars policymakers and stakeholders

Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism
