Regionalism And Globalism In Southeast Asia:

Regionalism and Globalism in Southeast Asia E. Palmujoki, 2001-10-25 Eero Palmujoki examines the regionalist debate in Southeast Asia from the end of the Cold War up to the beginning of the new millennium. He focuses on the organization of the ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations and covers the political, economic and security issues characterizing its development. The book compares the theoretical debate with political developments in the region from the beginning of the post Cold War period with its rapid economic growth through the Asian economic crisis of 1997 and the resulting restructuring of Southeast Asian regional systems.

East Asia Gennady Chufrin, 2006 Analyses modern tendencies in the development of regional economic cooperation in East Asia which is considered by regional countries as their response to growing challenges of globalization.

Regionalism, Globalisation and International Order Jens-Uwe Wunderlich, 2016-03-23 New regionalism and globalization have been prominent themes in academic and political debates since the beginning of the 1990s. Despite the considerable amount of scholarly attention that the new regionalism has received in recent years, its full empirical and theoretical potential has yet to be fully investigated. This illuminating study provides an overview of new avenues in theorizing regionalism and proposes a consolidated framework for analysis and comparison. Offering a comparative historical perspective of European and Southeast Asian regionalism, it presents new and imaginative insights into the theory and practice of regionalism and the links between regional developments, globalization and international order.

Regionalism and Globalization in East Asia Mark Beeson, 2017-08-24 This book examines the distinctive evolution of the political and economic relationships of East Asia. It does this by placing East Asian development in the unique historical circumstances that have underpinned its rise to power over the last few decades. This detailed analysis provides the basis for an assessment of a unified East Asian region.

Globalization and Its Counter-forces in Southeast Asia Terence Chong, 2008 Presents a multidimensional perspective of globalisation in Southeast Asia. Looks at political, economic, security, social and cultural dimensions of globalisation and local responses, showing evidence of complex interfacing between the global and the local, championing the need for a multidisciplinary approach to globalisation studies.

Globalism and the New Regionalism Osvaldo Sunkel, András Inotai, 2016-07-27 This is the first of five volumes reporting on the UNU WIDER study on New Regionalism. It deals with the conceptions and meanings of two processes which probably will have a crucial influence on the shape of the new world order: globalization and regionalization. These studies relate to each other as challenge to response: globalization being the challenge of economic and cultural homogenization of the world and regionalization being a social and political reaction. The leading writers in the field contribute thought-provoking and fascinating articles to this volume.

The Dimensions of Regional Trade Integration in Southeast Asia Zakir Hafez, 2021-10-01 This is the first comprehensive work on the free trade area of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN Free Trade Area (AFTA)). The author argues that in practice the free trade area of ASEAN is a failure and that unless

AFTA leaders take serious measures to improve it it will change from being not that useful into being completely useless
 Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee, Ralf Emmers, 2005 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region's international relations Donald E Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism Finally how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia's great power affect Southeast Asia's struggle for autonomy
