Greenwood, 2016-01-23 This is a unique collection of papers which brings together those who work in and with EU business associations at the very highest level with many of the leading academic authors on associations over the past two decades It examines the factors that influence the effectiveness of EU business associations and the prospects for associations and their members to influence these It is designed to appeal both to analysts of debates about interest groups collective action and European integration and to those who work in and with EU business associations

Transnational Financial Associations and the Governance of Global Finance Heather McKeen-Edwards, Tony Porter, 2013 The role of business in global governance is now widely recognized but exploration of its role in global financial governance has been more haphazard than systematic This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the role of transnational financial associations TFAs in the organization of global finance This book develops three theoretical themes of assemblage functionality and power as enrolment These themes challenge approaches that treat financial power as emanating from a single location or force Whilst existing approaches tend to treat TFAs as irrelevant or as merely transmitting power originating elsewhere this book argues that power must be created by painstakingly assembling actors networks and objects that are often quite autonomous and working at cross purposes to one another a process in which TFAs play a central role The book explores these themes in chapters examining the roles of TFAs in interacting with public authorities constructing global financial markets and creating financial communities The authors additionally analyse the roles of TFAs in the European Union in the Global South and in promoting goals other than profitability including Islamic finance microfinancing savings banks and cooperatives Making a distinctive contribution to our understanding of global finance and global governance Transnational Financial Associations and the Governance of Global Finance is an important book for students and scholars of international political economy finance global governance and international relations Remaking the Union Howard Elcock, Dr Michael

Keating, 2013-01-11 This volume addresses the issues arising from the recent devolution referenda by exploring the historical development of the proposals the importance of national and regional identities the changing policies of the political parties and the approaches of business and other major groups towards devolution It also looks at the impact on electoral reform coming from the proposal that proportional representation be used to elect the regional assemblies and how the new assemblies are to be financed Finally the book discusses the implications of a devolved British state where different countries and regions achieve different levels of autonomy at different paces The Global Promise of Federalism Grace

Skogstad, David R. Cameron, Martin Papillon, Keith Banting, 2013-12-31 The Global Promise of Federalism honours the life and work of Richard Simeon one of Canada's foremost experts on federalism It features a group of distinguished scholars of federalism from Canada and abroad who take up some of the fundamental questions at the heart of both Simeon's work and contemporary debates Does federalism foster democracy Can it help bring together divided societies How do federations evolve and adapt to changing circumstances In the course of answering these questions the chapters in this collection offer a comparative perspective on the challenges and opportunities facing well established federations such as Canada and Australia as well as new federal and quasi federal systems in Europe Africa and Asia They examine the interplay between federal values such as trust and mutual recognition and institutional design the challenges facing post conflict federations and the adaptability of federal systems in the face of changing social economic and cultural contexts Pathways to
