Regionalism Change In The Econom:

New Asian Regionalism in International Economic Law Pasha L. Hsieh, 2021-12-16 Provides the first systematic analysis of new Asian regionalism as a paradigm shift in international economic law

Mega-regionalism and Great Power Geo-economic Competition Xianbai Ji, 2021-09-22 The regional trade governance architecture is in flux The latest wave of regionalism in the form of mega regional trade partnerships between countries with major shares of the world economy occurred in the aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis of 2008 09 The most systematically important mega FTAs included the Trans Pacific Partnership led by the United States US the China backed Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership and the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership between the European Union EU and the US Drawing on policy diffusion and competitive regionalism literatures Xianbai Ji develops an innovative model of competitive spill over to uncover the historical and contemporary sources of mega regionalism resulting from a temporal clustering of mega FTA initiatives from great powers In the book mega FTA is conceptualised as an instrument of geo economic competition between the US China and the EU Each aspired to leverage its mega FTA to gain an edge over its rivals in economic geopolitical and legal terms Through a mix method research strategy involving computable general equilibrium modelling game theory desk research and perception survey Ji generates an impressive chorus of quantitative qualitative and perceptual data demonstrating that the rise of mega regionalism was driven by the multidimensional competition between the US China and the EU over international economic benefits geopolitical influence and the authority to write rules governing emerging trade issues This book will attract academics think tankers practitioners and postgraduate students interested in regionalism international trade international political economy applied trade policy analysis great power competition geo economics and international relations

The Political Economy of Regional Cooperation in the Middle East Ali Carkoglu, Mine Eder, Kemal Kirisci, 2005-07-08 This book explores the current anatomy of regional cooperation and why it has often failed to take hold It offers an alternative view of politics and international relations in the Middle East The findings show that co operation between many of the more open regimes such as Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Turkey can pave the way to increased stability in the region The authors argue that focusing on international and regional factors alone is insufficient in explaining the prevailing instability in the region Instead they highlight domestic factors as crucial to understanding conflict and co operation in the Middle East Using many examples and looking particularly at Turkey s experiences this study shows why it is essential to mobilize domestic support for co operation amongst countries and regions of the Middle East Without such support from economic and social groups inter governmental co operation is less likely to last

The Changing Economic Geography of Globalization Giovanna Vertova, 2006-04-20 The process of globalization has had profound often destabilizing effects on space at all levels i e local regional national international This revealing book analyzes both theoretically and empirically the effects of globalization over space It considers through a dialogue among different paradigms the ways in which space has become more important in the global economy Globalization has been advocated as a way of shrinking time and space which will lead to a homogenized global market a suggestion challenged in differing ways and with a variety of approaches by all the contributors to this volume Leading authorities from a range of disciplines are represented amongst this impressive list of contributors including Eric Sheppard Björn Asheim Richard Walker and Peter Swann The chapters demonstrate persuasively the continuing and even increasing role of space in the global economy and throughout the book covers viewpoints from the fields of international political economy economic geography regional and local economics This impressive volume which contains a selection of the best in contemporary scholarship will be of interest to the international arena of academicians policy makers and professionals in these or related fields The Political Economy of New Regionalisms in the Pacific Rim José Briceño-Ruiz, Philippe De Lombaerde, 2019-08-28 Combining an analysis of regionalism from a systemic view with a domestic political economy analysis this book sheds light on the new dynamics and emerging configurations of regionalisms and interregionalisms in the post Trans Pacific Partnership TPP Donald Trump's presidency has transformed trans Pacific economic and political relations contrasting sharply with President Obama's pivot to Asia strategy Unilateralism and bilateralism have returned to the center stage at the cost of regionalism interregionalism and multilateralism Understanding these new dynamics requires closer examination of the underlying domestic political economies Examining ten country case studies of multi actor agency at the national level expert contributors argue that trans Pacific relations should not only be explained in terms of the behavior of the major powers but that medium powers and even small countries can exert influence and occupy strategic nodes and contribute to shaping a new international relations network Their findings will be of interest to scholars of international relations international political economy regionalism and international economics Growth, Distribution and Political Change Malcolm Falkus, Kwan S. Kim, Ryoshin Minami, 1999-09-17 Continuing the inequality and development debate originally ushered in by Kuznets this book extends to the possible sociopolitical disruptions of growing inequality and its ramifications for growth and development Comparing a range of countries in Asia and beyond the book examines the relationships between growth distribution and politics Theoretical and empirical studies are backed up by discussion of historical developments in this interdisciplinary study which will interest political scientists sociologists historians and economists Foreign Direct Investment in a Changing Global Political Economy Steve Chan, 2016-07-27 This book examines foreign direct investment in a changing world economy It offers case studies of this investment in different national and industrial contexts Firms and countries have encountered mixed results in using this investment to further their foreign leverage Conversely potential host countries have faced different opportunities and constraints in attracting or utilizing foreign capital for their development Although some countries have been relatively successful most do not appear to be well positioned to take advantage of the ongoing processes of globalization of national economies The Rise Of The New Economic Powers And The Changing

Global Landscape Haico Ebberts, 2022-12-19 This book explores the catching up process of a group of large emerging markets the New Economic Powers This process is extremely robust and should be considered as the defining trend of our age resulting in a pivotal change in world economics and politics The outcome is that the West cannot dominate the world as it did in the previous 200 years Today s world is pluralistic and the larger emerging markets are becoming increasingly influential That is the new reality which at times caused and will cause further discomfort and uncertainty in the West In the eight chapters the viewpoints on globalization of nine New Economic Powers are discussed Each chapter is an essential element in understanding the process of globalization and the role the New Economic Powers play in it Essentially their views are guided by a fundamental different look about the role of the market and the government in society compared to what we see in the West The New Economic Powers understand the power of the market to create prosperity but at the same time emphasize the need for government interference This delicate balance is particularly visible with respect to their international trade and investment policies which bring them in conflict with Western countries and multilateral institutions such as the WTO and the IMF The book helps the reader to understand the fundamental choices made by policymakers in the New Economic Powers The Institutional Transformation of the Economic Community of West African States Kofi Oteng Kufuor, 2006 A unique analysis of regional economic integration in West Africa this book is an exploration of the institutional evolution of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS It uses the tools of the New Institutional Economics School NIE to explore the most recent ECOWAS Treaty Regional Economic Integration and the Global Financial System Sorhun, Engin, Hac?o?lu, Ümit, Dinçer, Hasan, 2014-11-30 In theory regionalism and globalization are intended to be viewed as two separate concepts However as long as the approaches complement each other considering these paradigms in tandem can have significantly positive effects on the overall status of the world economy Regional Economy Integration and the Global Financial System addresses recent trends in regional integration projects and the strides that such projects are making on the road toward globalization Focusing on a range of economic projects emerging supranational units and possible implications for future trends this book is an essential reference source for professionals scholars and institutions interested in the dynamic effects of regionalism and globalization
