Regulating Tobacco:

Regulating Tobacco Robert L. Rabin, Stephen D. Sugarman, 2001 The essays in this text analyse specific strategies used to influence tobacco use including taxation regulation of advertising and promotion regulation of indoor smoking sets them against the latest scientific findings about tobacco use

Regulating Tobacco Robert L. Rabin, Stephen D. Sugarman, 2001 The proliferation of lawsuits against the tobacco industry has had profound implications for American health policy tort law civil law and welfare and social policy Since the publication of Rabin and Sugarman's Smoking Policy class action suits FDA regulation clean air legislation health insurance reimbursement and extensive advertising have brought tobacco to the forefront of national and public policy debates This collection includes essays by eleven leading public health experts economists physicians political scientists and lawyers whose activities encompass Congressional testimonies Surgeon General's reports on youth smoking and clinical trials for drugs for smoking cessation They analyze specific strategies that have been used to influence tobacco use including taxation regulation of advertising and promotion regulation of indoor smoking control of youth access to cigarettes and other tobacco products litigation and subsidies of smoking cessation and set them against the latest scientific findings about tobacco use and the changing cultural and political setting against which policy decisions are being made In addition to Rabin and Sugarman contributors include Frank Chaloupka Peter Jacobson Robert Kagan Nancy Rigotti John Slade and Ken Warner

Regulating Tobacco, Alcohol and Unhealthy Foods Tania Voon, Andrew Mitchell, Jonathan Liberman, 2014-07-25 The need to reduce disability and premature deaths from non communicable diseases NCDs is increasingly engaging international organisations and national and sub national governments In this book experts from a range of backgrounds provide insights into the legal implications of regulating tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods all of which are risk factors for NCDs As individual countries and the international community move to increase targeting of these risk factors affected industries are turning to national and international law to challenge the resulting regulations This book explores how the effective regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods can be achieved within the context of international health law international trade and investment law international human rights law international intellectual property law and domestic laws on constitutional and other matters Its contributors consider the various tensions that arise in regulating NCD risk factors as well as offering an original analysis of the relationship between evidence and health regulation Covering a range of geographical areas including the Americas the European Union Africa and Oceania the book offers lessons for health and policy practitioners and scholars in navigating the complex legal fields in which the regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods takes place

FDA Tobacco Regulation C. Stephen Redhead, 2009-11 The 111th Congress is considering legislation that would give the FDA broad new statutory authority to regulate the manufacture and marketing of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products This report provides a detailed summary of the proposed legislation and discusses the public health and legal issues it raises Contents 1

Lockwood, 2009 Last year lawmakers reintroduced bipartisan bicameral legislation H R 1108 S 625 to give the Food and Drug Administration FDA broad new authority to regulate the manufacture distribution advertising promotion sale and use of cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products Amended versions of both bills have been reported out of committee and await floor action in their respective chambers The Secretary of Health and Human Services has stated in a July 21 2008 letter that the Bush Administration would strongly oppose this legislation The Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act was first introduced in the 108th Congress the product of lengthy negotiations in which lawmakers sought to balance the competing interests of public health groups and Philip Morris the nation s leading cigarette company While these organisations support the legislation the FDA Commissioner other tobacco manufacturers and tobacco industry and convenience store associations have expressed concerns about the bills which would create a new Chapter IX in the Federal Food Drug and Cosmetic Act FFDCa solely for the regulation of tobacco products Among their many provisions the measures would authorise FDA to restrict tobacco advertising and promotions especially to children develop standards that require changes in tobacco product composition and design such as the reduction or elimination of toxic chemicals and require manufacturers to obtain agency approval in order to make reduced risk and reduced exposure claims for their products In the mid 1990s FDA claimed authority under the FFDCa to regulate cigarettes and smokeless tobacco products as delivery devices for nicotine an addictive drug The agency s 1996 tobacco regulation was invalidated by the U S Supreme Court in March 2000 The Court concluded that Congress had clearly intended to preclude FDA from regulating tobacco products It found that because the FFDCa prohibits the marketing of products that have not been found to be safe and effective the statute would have required FDA to ban such manifestly harmful products as cigarettes and smokeless tobacco if the agency had jurisdiction over them Such a ban argued the Court would plainly contradict congressional intent The Supreme Court s decision made it clear the Congress would have to enact legislation giving FDA statutory authority over tobacco products in order for the agency to assert jurisdiction Lawmakers first drafted such language in the 105th Congress as part of legislation to implement the 1997 proposed national tobacco settlement The Need for FDA Regulation of Tobacco United States.
