Reimagining The American Pacific From South Pacific To Bamboo Ridge And Beyond New Americanists:

Reimagining the American Pacific Rob Wilson, 2000 Discusses the makings of the American Pacific locality location identity as space and ground of cultural production and the way this region can be linked to Asia and Pacific as well as to American mainland

Legitimizing Empire Faye Caronan, 2015-05-30 When the United States acquired the Philippines and Puerto Rico it reconciled its status as an empire with its anticolonial roots by claiming that it would altruistically establish democratic institutions in its new colonies Ever since Filipino and Puerto Rican artists have challenged promises of benevolent assimilation and portray U S imperialism as both self interested and unexceptional among empires Faye Caronan s examination interprets the pivotal engagement of novels films performance poetry and other cultural productions as both symptoms of and resistance against American military social economic and political incursions Though the Philippines became an independent nation and Puerto Rico a U S commonwealth both remain subordinate to the United States Caronan s juxtaposition reveals two different yet simultaneous models of U S neocolonial power and contradicts American exceptionalism as a reluctant empire that only accepts colonies for the benefit of the colonized and global welfare Her analysis meanwhile demonstrates how popular culture allows for alternative narratives of U S imperialism but also functions to contain those alternatives

The Imperialist Imaginary John Eperjesi, 2014-04-01 In a groundbreaking work of New Americanist studies John R Eperjesi explores the cultural and economic formation of the United States relationship to China and the Pacific Rim in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Eperjesi examines a variety of texts to explore the emergence of what Rob Wilson has termed the American Pacific Eperjesi shows how works ranging from Frank Norris The Octopus to the Journal of the American Asiatic Association from the Socialist newspaper Appeal to Reason to the travel writings of Jack and Charmain London and from Maxine Hong Kingston s China Men to Ang Lee s Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon and the cultural dynamics that produced them helped construct the myth of the American Pacific By construing the Pacific Rim as a unified region binding together the territorial United States with the areas of Asia and the Pacific he also demonstrates that the logic of the imperialist imaginary suggested it was not only proper but even incumbent upon the United States to exercise both political and economic influence in the region As Donald E Pease notes in his foreword by reading foreign policy and economic policy as literature and by reconceptualizing works of American literature as extenuations of foreign policy and economic theory Eperjesi makes a significant contribution to studies of American imperialism

Race for Citizenship Helen Heran Jun, 2011-02-23 Helen Heran Jun explores how the history of U S citizenship has positioned Asian Americans and African Americans in interlocking socio political relationships since the mid nineteenth century Rejecting the conventional emphasis on inter racial prejudice Jun demonstrates how a politics of inclusion has constituted a racial Other within Asian American and African American discourses of national identity Race for Citizenship examines three salient moments when African American and Asian American citizenship become acutely visible as related crises the Negro Problem and the Yellow

Question in the mid to late 19th century World War II era questions around race loyalty and national identity in the context of internment and Jim Crow segregation and post Civil Rights discourses of disenfranchisement and national belonging under globalization Taking up a range of cultural texts the 19th century black press the writings of black feminist Anna Julia Cooper Asian American novels African American and Asian American commercial film and documentary Jun does not seek to document signs of cross racial identification but instead demonstrates how the logic of citizenship compels racialized subjects to produce developmental narratives of inclusion in the effort to achieve political economic and social incorporation Race for Citizenship provides a new model of comparative race studies by situating contemporary questions of differential racial formations within a long genealogy of anti racist discourse constrained by liberal notions of inclusion

Archipelagic American Studies Brian Russell Roberts, Michelle Ann Stephens, 2017-05-18 Departing from conventional narratives of the United States and the Americas as fundamentally continental spaces the contributors to Archipelagic American Studies theorize America as constituted by and accountable to an assemblage of interconnected islands archipelagoes shorelines continents seas and oceans They trace these planet spanning archipelagic connections in essays on topics ranging from Indigenous sovereignty to the work of douard Glissant from Philippine call centers to US militarization in the Caribbean and from the great Pacific garbage patch to enduring overlaps between US imperialism and a colonial Mexican archipelago Shaking loose the straitjacket of continental exceptionalism that hinders and permeates Americanist scholarship Archipelagic American Studies asserts a more relevant and dynamic approach for thinking about the geographic cultural and political claims of the United States within broader notions of America Contributors Birte Blascheck J Michael Dash Paul Giles Susan Gillman Matthew Pratt Guterl Hsinya Huang Allan Punzalan Isaac Joseph Keith Yolanda Mart nez San Miguel Brandy N lani McDougall Ifeoma Kiddoe Nwankwo Craig Santos Perez Brian Russell Roberts John Carlos Rowe Cherene Sherrard Johnson Ram n E Soto Crespo Michelle Ann Stephens Elaine Stratford Etsuko Taketani Alice Te Punga Somerville Teresia Teaiwa Lanny Thompson Nicole A Waligora Davis

Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen, 2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America s own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation

interdisciplinary engagement with oceans genres and time Emergent Worlds re locates nineteenth century America from the land to the oceans and seas that surrounded it Edward Sugden argues that these ocean spaces existed in a unique historical fold between the transformations that inaugurated the modern era colonialism to nationalism mercantilism to capitalism slavery to freedom and deferent subject to free citizen As travellers workers and writers journeyed across the Pacific Atlantic and Caribbean Sea they had to adapt their political expectations to the interstitial social realities that they saw before them while also feeling their very consciousness particularly their perception of time mutate These four domains oceanic geography historical folds emergent politics and dissonant times in turn provided the conditions for the development of three previously unnamed genres of the 1850s the Pacific elegy the black counterfactual and the immigrant gothic In telling the history of these emergent worlds and their importance to the development of the literary cultures of the US Americas Sugden proposes narratives that alter some of the most enduring myths of the field including the westward spread of US imperialism the redemptionist trajectory of black historiography and the notion that the US Americas constituted a new world Introducing a new generic vocabulary for describing the literature of the 1850s and crossing over oceans and languages Emergent Worlds invokes an alternative nineteenth century America that provides nothing less than a new way to read the era Song of the Snow Lion Frank Stewart, Herbert J. Batt, 2000 Despite Chinese censorship this collection of writing shows that Tibetan literature explores the pressing questions facing their country in the early 21st century Positions, 1999
