Relations Family Portraits:

Relations Kenneth Sherman, 1995 Family Photography Christie Mumm, 2011-07-01 Going beyond how to capture memorable family photos this examination spotlights the special touches and relationship building skills that turn subjects from clients into friends The author s signature techniques for generating repeat business are shared revealing how to remain a family s constant photographer for years from maternity portraits and baby photos to wedding images and senior snapshots Specific suggestions are featured including reaching out through social networking sites blogging and hosting special parties and events Offering a comprehensive approach to building a successful portrait business this handbook demonstrates how relationships with subjects are just as important as the pictures created for them Relationship

Portraits Tim Walden, 2016-06-07 Tim Walden s photographic forte is capturing relationship images emotionally resonant images that show the connection between subjects To achieve this goal he strives to proceed through a three step portrait process capture adjust and refine He studies the clients and does not push the shutter button until he sees some magic unfold If the clients are still in the moment he may make a slight adjustment to the pose or lighting and capture a second slightly varied image If the subjects are still enthralled at that point he will make a further refinement producing a portrait that in Tim s mind is the pinnacle shot the dynamic emotionally evocative storytelling images he strives for In this book Tim presents over 60 images from some of his most memorable sessions sharing with readers tips for capturing moments enhancing the presentation and truly amplifying the artistry of the capture to produce a fine art image that will be cherished for generations Siblings C. Dallett Hemphill, 2014 Based on a wealth of family papers period images and popular literature this is the first book devoted to the broad history of sibling relations in America Illuminating the evolution of the modern family system Siblings shows how brothers and sisters have helped each other in the face of the dramatic political economic and cultural changes of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries As Hemphill demonstrates siblings function across all races as humanity s shock absorbers as well as valued kin and keepers of memory

Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel, Milic, Nela, Kantas, Vasileios, Andersdotter, Sara, Lowe, Paul, 2023-02-17 Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other s discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students Emotion and Relationships Jane

Bingham,2006 In each period of history in every country artists have been inspired by emotion and relationships They have created works that show every type of emotion from fear and sadness to madness joy and love Artists have explored the relationships within families between lovers or between individuals and the world around them This book explains how art styles have developed through time and how artists techniques add to our understanding of their work Emotion is captured in a wide range of media including photography painting sculpture posters textiles and film The information to help interpret works of art and understand the time in history in which they were created are included in this book Understanding Children's Personal Lives and Relationships Hayley Davies,2016-04-29 Informed by ethnographic research with children Davies offers new sociological insights into children s personal relationships as well as closely examining methodological approaches to researching with children and researching relationships Image Matters Tina Campt,2012-03-06 Campt explores the affective resonances of two archives of Black European photographs for those pictured their families and the community Image Matters looks at photograph collections of four Black German families taken between 1900 and the end of World War II and a set of portraits of Afro Caribbean migrants to Britain taken at a photographic studio in Birmingham between 1948 and 1960 The Familial Gaze Marianne Hirsch,1999 Contemporary artists writers and theorists challenge standard interpretations of family photographs Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe Taan,2020-11-26 The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women s emancipation to today s viewers through women s presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon
