Relationships Between Subsidised And Commercial Theatre

Maria M. Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato

Relationships Between Subsidised And Commercial Theatre:

1956 and All That Dan Rebellato, 2002-03-11 It is said that British Drama was shockingly lifted out of the doldrums by the revolutionary appearance of John Osborne's Look Back in Anger at the Royal Court in May 1956 But had the theatre been as ephemeral and effeminate as the Angry Young Men claimed Was the era of Terence Rattigan and Binkie Beaumont as repressed and closeted as it seems In this bold and fascinating challenge to the received wisdom of the last forty years of theatrical history Dan Rebellato uncovers a different story altogether It is one where Britain's declining Empire and increasing panic over the problem of homosexuality played a crucial role in the construction of an enduring myth of the theatre By going back to primary sources and rigorously questioning all assumptions Rebellato has rewritten the history of the Making of Modern British Drama

The Glory of the Garden Kate Dorney, Ros Merkin, 2020-05-22 The Glory of the Garden examines concepts and contexts of regional theatre in an age of globalisation and cosmopolitanism It outlines the key debates and trends in the development of regional theatre since 1984 when public subsidy became a part of a package of plural funding and examines regional theatre's role in the theatrical ecology. Various perceived as a training ground for practitioners or a career dead end purveyor of stale product or innovative powerhouse a transformer of urban environments and community hub regional theatre has been a constant source of anxiety and pride for the Arts Council the theatre community and arts journalists. The Glory of the Garden moves the debate about the role and importance of regional theatre beyond the cliché of crisis to examine the politics and policy of making performance outside London. Contemporary European Playwrights Maria M. Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato, 2020-07-22. Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent's society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today. Traversing borders and languages this volume offers a fresh approach to analyzing plays in production by some of the most widely performed European playwrights assessing how their work has revealed new meanings and theatrical possibilities as they move across the continent building an unprecedented picture of the contemporary European repertoire. With chapters by leading scholars and contributions by the writers themselves the chapters bring playwrights together to examine their work as part of a network and genealogy of writing examining how these plays embody and interrogate the nature of contemporary Europe. Written for students and scholars of European theatre and playwriting this book will leave the reader with an understanding of the shifting relationships between the subsidized and commercial the alternative and the mainstream stage and political stakes of playmaking in European theatre since 1989.
