Religion And Liberation:

The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Miguel A. De La Torre, 2008 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed As a part of Christian theology liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe Throughout they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized Popular Religion and Liberation Michael R. Candelaria, 1990-01-01 El tema del libro es la ambivalencia de la religiosidad popular para la teología de la liberación y para la liberación misma Enfoca el asunto en dos posiciones de opuesta apreciación de la religiosidad popular la de Juan Carlos Scannone y la de Jua

Domination Or Liberation Alistair Kee, 1986 In this book Dr Kee argues that in recent times there has been an interesting shift in the role of religion Historically it has been on the side of domination in the spheres of gender race and class but there are indications that it might now be on the side of liberation Introducing Liberation Theology Leonardo Boff, 1987

Liberation Theology Ricardo Planas, 1986

Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-03-08 Demonstrates the critical use of religion to challenge oppression in the U S In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Chapters cover Black Theology Womanist Theology Latino Hispanic Theology Latina Theology Asian American Theology Asian American Feminist Theology Native American Theology Native Feminist Theology Gay and Lesbian Theology and Feminist Theology Contributors Grace Ji Sun Kim Mary McClintock Fulkerson Nancy Pineda Madrid Robert Shore Goss Andrea Smith Andrew Sung Park George Tink Tinker and Benjamin Valentin

A Theology of Liberation Gustavo Gutiérrez, 1988 This is the credo and seminal text of the movement which was later characterized as liberation theology The book burst upon the scene in the early seventies and was swiftly acknowledged as a pioneering and prophetic approach to theology which famously made an option for the poor placing the exploited the alienated and the economically wretched at the centre of a programme where the oppressed and maimed and blind and lame were prioritized at the expense of those who either maintained the status quo or who abused the structures of power for their own ends This powerful compassionate and radical book attracted criticism for daring to mix politics and religion in so explicit a manner but was also welcomed by those who had the capacity to see that its agenda was nothing more nor less than to give good news to the poor and redeem God's people from bondage Analysis of Liberation Theology Nadiia Kudriashova, 2019-04-11 Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Theology Comparative Religion Studies grade MA Yale University language English abstract This work focuses on liberation theology The relevance of the study is determined by the fact that the variability of Christianity in the modern period has increased and made it extremely dependent on social processes The all human spiritual crisis promotes the spread of so called religiosity without faith In some cases this happens not spontaneously but through the active transformation of the traditional religious system More and more extremist and nationalist groupings turn to Christianity as an ideological basis while they modify Christian theology in such a way that it justifies their methods of political struggle and supports their slogans These groups rely on the experience of building similar ideologies using the dominant Christian confession as a religious component namely liberation theology Liberation theology or otherwise political theology is a modification of Christianity used by freedom fighters as an ideology In fact it is a specialized consciousness of a separate social group and it aims to liberate members of this group from oppression The content and characteristics of the liberation theology are determined by the characteristics and interests of one or another oppressed social group There are several types of liberation theology in which there are three main ones Latin American Black and feminist created respectively in the interests of the poor Negroes or women The future of liberation theology directly depends on how much its representatives can move from ideal concepts to practical conclusions The Church must take more seriously the problems of injustice and oppression it must take the side of the outcasts and be a pioneer in the foreshadowing of all kinds of liberation economic social political and of course spiritual The Reemergence of Liberation Theologies T. Cooper, 2013-07-24 This book brings together prominent voices from the global North and South to present brief analyses of liberation theology's future It includes leaders in the field along with the newest voices Each of these pieces was presented in the American Academy of Religion in the first five years of the Liberation Theologies Consultation Liberation Theology Robert McAfee Brown, 1993-01-01 Brown explains and illuminates liberation theology for North American readers who may have no previous knowledge of this recent dynamic Christian movement Growing out of the experience of oppressed people in Latin America liberation theology lends a transforming power to both the study of the Bible and the Christian duty to work for justice for all God's people
