Religion And Custom In A Muslim Society The Berti Of Sudan:

Religion and Custom in a Muslim Society Ladislav Holý, 1991-07-26 Among the Berti of Northern Darfur Sudan as among many Muslim societies the formal religious practices are predominantly the concern of men while local unorthodox customary rituals are performed mainly by women It is usual to dismiss such local popular practices as pre Islamic survivals but Professor Holy shows that the customary rituals constitute an integral part of the religious system of the Berti Carefully analysing the symbolic statements made in Berti rituals Professor Holy demonstrates that the distinction between the two classes of rituals is an expression of the gender relationships characteristic of the society He also examines the social distribution of knowledge about Islam and explains the role of the religious schools in sustaining religious ideas The work is not only an ethnographic study of ritual belief and gender in an African society It also makes a significant contribution to current anthropological discussion of the interpretation and meaning of rituals and symbols The Sudan Handbook John

Ryle, 2011 The handbook offers a concise introduction to all aspects of the country rooted in a broad historical account of the development of the Sudanese state from publisher description Religion and Sexuality in Cross-Cultural Perspective

Stephen Ellingson, M. Christian Green, 2014-03-18 Issues of sexuality and gender are hotly contested in both religious communities and national cultures around the world In the social sciences religious traditions are often depicted as inherently conservative or even reactionary in their commitments to powerful patriarchal and pronatalist sexual norms and gender categories In illuminating the practices of religious traditions in various cultures these essays expose the diversity of religious rituals and mythologies pertaining to sexuality In the process the contributors challenge conventional notions of what is normative in our sexual lives Culture and Customs of Sudan Kwame Essien, Toyin Falola, 2008-11-30 Amid a

Sudan's dark history saturated with conflicts and tragic current events lies a culture with deep roots going back as far as 8000 BC With several hundred ethnic groups and languages Sudan is one of the world's most diverse countries Learn how these cultures have blended and collided throughout the centuries and examine how traditions and customs are kept alive today Religious beliefs social customs arts literature and cuisine are among the topics discussed in this volume which is ideal for high school and undergraduate students Chapters include coverage on historical background religions and worldviews literature and media art and architecture cuisine and traditional dress gender roles marriage and family social customs and music and dance A timeline of key events and bibliographical essay including print and nonprint sources supplement the work The Cultural Politics of Reproduction Maya Unnithan-Kumar, Sunil K. Khanna, 2014-11-01 Charting the experiences of internally or externally migrant communities the volume examines social transformation through the dynamic relationship between movement reproduction and health The chapters examine how healthcare experiences of migrants are not only embedded in their own unique health worldviews but also influenced by the history policy and politics of the wider state systems The research among migrant communities an understanding of how ideas of reproduction and cultures of health

travel how healing birth and care practices become a result of movement and how health related perceptions and reproductive experiences can define migrant belonging and identity

The Plain of Saints and Prophets Gisela Procházka-Eisl, Stephan Procházka, 2010 The book is the first detailed study on the Nusayri Alawi community of Cilicia available in a Western language The Alawis are an Arabic speaking religious minority of ca 300 000 people living in the Turkish provinces of Adana and Mersin The book contains chapters devoted to the history of Alawi settlement the community's identity and social structures and prejudices they have to face from the majority population Also covered are religious practices like feasts and beliefs like metempsychosis The heart of the book is an analysis of the numerous Alawi sanctuaries Long term field research enabled the authors to document a vital highly mobile practice of saint veneration performed at continuously changing sacred places Besides a catalogue of nearly 200 shrines and several detailed case studies there are chapters on the age and origins of the sacred places the rites performed there and the structure of the pilgrims A major aim of the study is to present the local Alawi saint veneration in a broader Islamic context by describing the sacred landscape analyzing current changes and tendencies and discussing the paramount role of women in the practice of saint veneration and in the perceived sacredness of the holy places

Transcultural Bodies Ylva Hernlund, Bettina Shell-Duncan, 2007-06-07 Female circumcision or more precisely female genital cutting FGC remains an important cultural practice in many African countries often serving as a coming of age ritual It is also a practice that has generated international dispute and continues to be at the center of debates over women's rights the limits of cultural pluralism the balance of power between local cultures international human rights and feminist activism In our increasingly globalized world these practices have also begun immigrating to other nations where transnational complexities vex debates about how to resolve the issue Bringing together thirteen essays Transcultural Bodies provides an ethnographically rich exploration of FGC among African diasporas in the United Kingdom Europe and Australia Contributors analyze changes in ideologies of gender and sexuality in immigrant communities the frequent marginalization of African women's voices in debates over FGC and controversies over legislation restricting the practice in immigrant populations

Transformation Des Identités Féminines Eva Evers Rosander, 1997 Contains 13 essays which discuss formal women's organizations informal associations related to rural and semiurban organization of work women's religious associations and individual strategies outside the framework of associations

Submitting to God Sylva Frisk, 2009 This study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur's affluent Malay middle class reveals that women play an active part in the Islamization process by organizing and participating in public programs of religious education transforming the traditionally male dominated space of the mosque and breaking men's monopoly over positions of religious authority Sylva Frisk is a lecturer in the School of Global Studies at Gothenburg University Sweden

Social Reproduction and History in Melanesia Robert John Foster, 1995-04-27 In much of Melanesia the process of social reproduction unfolds as a lengthy sequence of mortuary rites feast making and gift giving through which the living publicly define their social relations with each other while at the same time commemorating the deceased In this study Robert J Foster constructs an ethnographic account of mortuary rites in the Tanga Islands Papua New Guinea placing these large scale feasts and ceremonial exchanges in their historical context and demonstrating how the effects of participation in an expanding cash economy have allowed Tangans to conceive of the rites as customary in opposition to the new and foreign practices of business His examination synthesizes two divergent trends in Melanesian anthropology by emphasizing both the radical differences between Melanesian and Western forms of sociality and the conjunction of Melanesian and Western societies brought about by colonialism and capitalism
