The Ground of Our Beseeching Peter Sharpe,2004 The Ground of Our Beseeching Metaphor and the Poetics of Meditation describes the signature styles of meditation in three American poets and shows how each generated language out of spiritual yearning The author s inquiry in this area grew out of an interest in the interplay of creativity language and religion and a need to know as both critic and practicing poet how metaphor arises particularly in the context of poetry which hearkens after the sacred How far in other words has metaphor taken some of our central poets T S Eliot Wallace Stevens and Theodore Roethke in matters of belief No other critique of American poetry prior to this study has systematically linked the idea of the sacred with the practice of metaphor Nor has a compelling case been made until now for viewing meditation a style of thinking close to prayer as the source or ground of these poets BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
