Rosenbach Abroad Leslie A. Morris, 1988      Bibliophiles and Bibliothieves Opritsa D. Popa, 2008-08-22 In Bibliophiles and Bibliothieves Opritsa Popa has documented what might justifiably be described as the most celebrated case of looting of two German cultural treasures by a member of the U S Army at the end of World War II and their subsequent odyssey across both an ocean and a continent the pilfering from a cellar in Bad Wildungen of the ninth century Liber Sapientiae containing the two leaves of the oldest extant German heroic poem the Old High German Hildebrandslied along with the fourteenth century illuminated Willehalm codex both of which had been removed from the State Library in Kassel for protection from bombing raids      Collecting the Past Toby Burrows, Cynthia Johnston, 2018-10-03 Today's libraries and museums are heavily indebted to the passions and obsessions of numerous individual collectors who devoted their lives to amassing collections of books manuscripts artworks and other culturally significant objects Collecting the Past brings together the latest research on a wide range of significant British collectors from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries including Hans Sloane Sarah Sophia Banks Thomas Phillipps Sydney Cockerell J P Morgan Jr Alfred Chester Beatty and R E Hart Contributors to the volume examine the phenomenon of collecting in a variety of settings and across a range of different materials Considering the aims and motives that led these collectors to assemble such remarkable collections the book also examines the history of these collections after the collector's death Particular attention is given to the often complicated relationship between collectors and the public institutions that subsequently came to house their collections Situated within the framework of cultural collecting more generally this book offers an authoritative series of essays on key collectors Collecting the Past should be most interesting to researchers academics and postgraduate students engaged in the study of museum studies book history manuscript studies museum history library history and the history of collecting Professionals in libraries museums and galleries will also find the volume of great interest      The Shakespeare First Folio: A new worldwide census of first folios Anthony James West, 2001 Existing copies of the Shakespeare First Folio 1623 were surveyed and counted a hundred years ago in Sidney Lee's Census of 1902 Since then some seventy copies have come to light some of which are only now identified as First Folios This new Census lists 229 copies giving concise descriptions of each The entries cover condition including the number of original leaves items of special interest provenance and binding A concordance of Lee and West numbers is also provided To set the stage the volume tells the story of the search for copies and the detective work involved in dealing with doubtful identifications Because Folios survive in such a wide variety of condition the tests for defining what to count as a copy are described then demonstrated with three unnumbered unrecognized copies at the Folger Shakespeare Library Finally details of missing copies are given to increase the likelihood of their rediscovery      A Guide to Early Printed Books and Manuscripts Mark Bland, 2013-03-26 A Guide to Early Printed Books and Manuscripts provides an introduction to the language and concepts employed in bibliographical studies and textual scholarship as they pertain to early modern manuscripts and printed texts Winner Honourable Mention for Literature Language and Linguistics American Publishers Prose Awards 2010 Based almost exclusively on new primary research Explains the complex process of viewing documents as artefacts showing readers how to describe documents properly and how to read their physical properties Demonstrates how to use the information gleaned as a tool for studying the transmission of literary documents Makes clear why such matters are important and the purposes to which such information is put Features illustrations that are carefully chosen for their unfamiliarity in order to keep the discussion fresh

The Prose Brut and Other Late Medieval Chronicles Jaclyn Rajsic, Erik Kooper, Dominique T. Hoche, 2016 Essays on the medieval chronicle tradition shedding light on history writing manuscript studies and the history of the book and the post medieval reception of such texts The histories of chronicles composed in England during the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and onwards with a focus on texts belonging to or engaging with the Prose Brut tradition are the focus of this volume The contributors examine the composition dissemination and reception of historical texts written in Anglo Norman Latin and English including the Prose Brut chronicle c 1300 and later Castleford's Chronicle c 1327 and Nicholas Trevet's Les Cronicles c 1334 looking at questions of the processes of writing rewriting printing and editing history They cross traditional boundaries of subject and period taking multi disciplinary approaches to their studies in order to underscore the shifting historical social and political contexts in which medieval English chronicles were used and read from the fourteenth century through to the present day As such the volume honours the pioneering work of the late Professor Lister M Matheson whose research in this area demonstrated that a full understanding of medieval historical literature demands attention to both the content of the works in question and to the material circumstances of producing those works
