Rosetta Et La Promebe

Jonathan Rosenbaum

Rosetta Et La Promebe:

Love and Money Lisa Henderson, 2013-01-01 Love and Money argues that we can't understand contemporary queer cultures without looking through the lens of social class. Resisting old divisions between culture and economy, identity and privilege, left and queer recognition and redistribution, Love and Money offers supple approaches to capturing class experience and class form in and around queerness. Contrary to familiar dismissals, not every queer television or movie character is like Will Truman on Will and Grace: rich, white, healthy, professional, detached from politics, community, and sex. Through ethnographic encounters with readers and cultural producers and such texts as Boys Don't Cry, Brokeback Mountain, By Hook or By Crook, and wedding announcements in the New York Times, Love and Money sees both queerness and class across a range of idioms and practices in everyday life. How it asks: do readers of Dorothy Allison's novels use her work to find a queer class voice? How do gender and race broker queer class fantasy? How do independent filmmakers cross back and forth between industry and queer sectors, changing both places as they go, and challenging queer ideas about bad commerce and bad taste? With an eye to the nuances and harms of class difference in queerness and a wish to use culture to forge queer and class affinities, Love and Money returns class and its politics to the study of queer life. Five Directors Kate

Ince, 2019-01-04 Auteurism: the idea that a director of a film is its source of meaning and should retain creative control over the finished product has been one of film studies' most important paradigms ever since the French New Wave of the late 1950s and early 1960s and the adoption of the term auteur by Andrew Sarris. Through the popular, controversial, and critically acclaimed films of Olivier Assayas, Jacques Audiard, the Dardenne brothers, Michael Haneke, and François Ozon, this book looks into how the meaning of auteur has changed over this half-century and assesses the current state of Francophone auteur cinema. It combines French philosophical and sociological approaches with methodologies from the Anglo-American fields of gender studies, queer theory, and postmodernism. This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of film studies, European cinema, and French and Francophone studies, as well as to film enthusiasts. European Directors and Their Films Bert Cardullo, 2012-08-09 In European Directors and Their Films: Essays on Cinema, Bert Cardullo offers readable analyses of some of the most important film artists and individual films of the last several decades. Beyond simple biographical capsules and plot summaries, these readings demonstrate with elegance and clarity what cinema means, as well as shows explaining how international moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex, significant human goals. Francophone Film Lieve Spaas, 2000 Covering the rich film production of Belgium, Switzerland, Quebec, the Caribbean, North Africa, and Sub-Saharan Africa, this book brings together films that might otherwise be divided by questions of race, gender, genre, period, or nation in a valuable comparative study of a diverse corpus. Individual countries, film makers, and films are treated separately in order to emphasize their specific identities or those which are represented in their films, and key films are examined within a well-developed historical context. Clearly written and accessible to the specialist and

general reader alike this informative book is a valuable reference source Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2004-04-27 A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere Hollywood Abroad Melvyn Stokes, Richard Maltby, 2019-07-25 Hollywood Abroad is the first book to examine the reception of Hollywood movies by non American audiences Although numerous books on film history have analyzed the ways in which American films came to dominate world markets there has so far been very little published work on how audiences outside the United States have responded to Hollywood produced films Hollywood Abroad explores the reception of U S films in Britain France Belgium Turkey Australia India Japan and Central Africa The book covers topics from the first major penetration of American films into France Britain and Australia to the impact of such films as The Best Years of Our Lives to the response of Belgian young people in the age of the multiplex It demonstrates that the story of the reception of American films overseas is less one of domination than of a complex adoption of Hollywood into various cultures Ethical Inquiries after Wittgenstein Salla Aldrin Salskov, Ondřej Beran, Nora Hämäläinen, 2022-05-18 This volume showcases contemporary ground up ethical essays in the tradition of Wittgenstein s broader philosophy and Wittgenstein inspired ethical reflection It takes the ethical relevance of Wittgenstein as a substantial and solid starting point for a broad range of ongoing thinking about contemporary ethical issues The texts are organised in two sections The first consists of chapters exploring questions around what could be called the grammar of our moral forms of life and thus represents a more traditional approach in ethics after Wittgenstein The second part represents a recent turn in the tradition towards investigating moral conceptions perspectives and concepts that are undergoing change either because the world itself is changing for instance with new technologies or because human agency such as social movements has brought us to reconsider previously unquestioned ideas and structures Within the book the authors contributions are inspired in their ways of working with ethical questions by Wittgenstein s conceptions of language understanding and the nature of philosophical inquiry This book is of interest to philosophers influenced by Wittgenstein as well as to all ethicists seeking ideas for how to do philosophy in a manner close to lived experience and practice informed interpretations of the brothers more recent work In such highly influential films such as La promesse Rosetta The Son and The Child the brothers have recast filmmaking through what Mai calls a sensuous realism realism capable of touching the audience with the most compelling problems and moral dilemmas of contemporary society This volume also features an interview in which the Dardennes discuss their approach to film production and the direction of actors

Postcolonial Hospitality Mireille Rosello,2001

Hospitality has emerged as a category in recent French thinking for addressing a range of issues associated with immigration. Concentrating primarily on France and its former colonies in North and sub-Saharan Africa, this book considers how hospitality and its dissidence are defined, practiced, and represented in European and African fictions, theories, and myths at the end of the 20th century. La promesse, 1968. World Directors in Dialogue Bert Cardullo, 2011-02-07. This book features interviews with 13 major international directors: Akira Kurosawa, Satyajit Ray, Luchino Visconti, Abbas Kiarostami, Ermanno Olmi, Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne, Zhang Yimou, Mike Leigh, Ken Loach, Jacques Tati, Eric Rohmer, and Francois Truffaut. Women in French Studies, 2006. The Dardenne Brothers' Cinematic Parables Joel Mayward, 2022-09-30. The Dardenne Brothers Cinematic Parables examines the work of Belgian filmmakers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne, who have been celebrated for their powerfully affecting social realist films. Though the Dardenne brothers' films rarely mention religion or God, they have received wide recognition for their moral complexity and spiritual resonance. This book brings the Dardennes' filmography into consideration with theological aesthetics, Christian ethics, phenomenological film theory, and continental philosophy. The author explores the brothers' nine major films, beginning with The Promise (1996) and culminating in Young Ahmed (2019) through the hermeneutics of philosopher Paul Ricoeur. By using Ricoeur's description of parable as a narrative metaphor, which generates an existential limit experience, Joel Mayward crafts an innovative Ricoeurian hermeneutic for making theological interpretations of cinema. Drawing upon resources from three disciplinary spheres— theology, philosophy, and film studies— in a dynamic interweaving approach, Mayward proposes that the Dardennes create postsecular cinematic parables which evoke theological and ethical responses in audiences' imaginations through the brothers' distinctive filmmaking style, what is termed transcendent realism. The book ultimately demonstrates how the Dardenne brothers are truly doing not merely depicting theology and ethics through the cinematic form; it presents film as theology, what Mayward refers to as theocinematics. This is valuable reading for scholars of theology, philosophy, and film studies, as well as film critics and cinephiles interested in the cinema of the Dardenne brothers. Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01. The essays in this insightful film analysis text show and cover twenty-one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century, showing what makes each of them outstanding. These essays are clear and readable, that is, sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon-heavy. They will make perfect introductions to their respective films, as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general. Written with university students in mind, these essays cover some of the central films, treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses, and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills. A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class. The book is aimed at students, teachers, and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general, as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film.

analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939 1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination

The Political Space of Art Benoît Dillet, Tara Puri, 2016-05-18 This book studies the tension between arts and politics in four contemporary artists from different countries working with different media The film directors Luc and Jean Pierre Dardenne film parts of their natal city to refer to specific political problems in interpersonal relations The novelist Arundhati Roy uses her poetic language to make room for people's desires her fiction is utterly political and her political essays make place for the role of narratives and poetic language Ai Weiwei uses references to Chinese history to give consistency to its economic miracle Finally Burial's electronic music is firmly rooted in a living breathing London built to create a sound that is entirely new and yet hauntingly familiar These artists create in their own way a space for politics in their works and their oeuvre but their singularity comes together as a desire to reconstruct the political space within art from its ruins These ruins were brought by the disenchantment of 1970s the end of art postmodernism and the rise of design marketing and communication Each artwork bears the mark of the resistance against the depoliticisation of society and the arts at once rejecting cynicism and idealism referring to themes and political concepts that are larger than their own domain This book focuses on these productive tensions
