that she'll find sympathy from readers as she struggles with both her desires and the potential collapse of her family. A passionate absorbing story of love rejection and the burden of tradition. Kirkus Reviews Love Faith Death Tara Shah, 2014-09-29 Cancer sucks death sucks even more. But we humans don't have the power to stop either of them from messing with our lives. They enter our lives whenever and wherever they choose to. Cancer is so common that each one of us have known someone who has dealt with the disease. Some of us have lost a loved one to cancer. Common does not always mean simple and it also does not mean we know everything about it. The diagnosis of cancer regardless of the disease's curability is almost always nerve wracking even for healthcare providers like the main character of this book who is a veteran nurse. This book is written in first person. The subject is a middle aged woman who had been separated from her boyfriend some thirty years ago and then after three decades when she searches for an oncologist for treatment of an aggressive cancer that she was recently diagnosed she finds her ex boyfriend's name and decides to see him. That brings back the memory of their past together and she starts going through her old diary she had written some thirty years in the past. Part of the story is set in Nepal from the diary and the other part is set in the USA this takes place after her cancer diagnosis. The main character of the story was born with Manglik cosmic influencer meaning that the planet Mars (Mangal) was in such position in the solar system at the time of her birth that it would have strong negative effect on her husband if she married a man who was not Manglik. A person born at the time when the planet Mars was not in such position. What happens next changes the lives of the main characters. Music to My Ears Neville Krasner, 2018-01-03 Liverpool. Tommy Jackson's life has its ups and downs. He is being rehabilitated in Headley Court after losing a leg in Afghanistan and shares his hospital room with double amputee Jimbo and blind Cammy all injured in combat. Tommy was recently married and has a baby daughter but he is soon to be discharged from the Rifles and left to find his own way in life. He has no job to go to and his young family is in danger of overstaying their welcome at his in-laws' small house. Steve Chalmers is an ex marine invalided out of the service after serious injuries to his leg. His club Steve's Squaddies of which Tommy was a founding member takes on difficult youngsters to teach them self defense on condition that they make some contribution to the local community. Murphy, thug leader of the eponymous Pipe Band because of their use of copper pipes to instill fear in the population of Wavertree is Steve's sworn enemy and has promised to destroy the club and all it stands for. Will Murphy succeed in disrupting Steve's newfound family life and his visionary work with the youngsters he mentors. Pigeon Man Jim Emerton, 2019-01-18 Jim Emerton bred and raced birds for 40 years and had birds return to the loft from as far as 879 miles away. Now in retirement from active racing he devotes his time and energies to sharing his experiences his observations and his expertise with the rest of the fancy. Here in one volume is a comprehensive collection of his thoughts about pigeons and pigeon racing ranging from short pieces originally written for the leading fanciers magazines to full length articles and interviews. What unites us in principle is the common good of the sport and with this in mind I do what I can for others. It all oils the cogs of the sport Some will see me as a know all yet I am a quiet little man making my mark that s all What is true is that I have made a life study of pigeons and as a teacher I like to impart knowledge and experience My aim is purely to tell it as it is to me and if this is illuminating to others then so be it Pink Knight C J Harvey,2019-03-06

Some ten thousand years ago Earth was visited by beings from another planet in the Barnard s Star system The Babylonians recorded that beings they called the Oannes were amphibious creatures who came to Earth for the welfare of the human race The historian Hellandus describes them as having fishlike features but the head feet and arms of a man They instructed humans in everything a civilized nation should know They built a city beneath Antarctica near the Davis Sea and have lived there peacefully and secretly ever since But now a rogue Dwarf Star called Zarama threatens the very existence of both Earth and the home planet Nazmos Their mythology predicts that a being from another planet will avert disaster Enter Ashley Bonner into this scenario He has been granted special gifts and the Oannes think he may be the predicted one Can Ashley really prevail against a star a third more massive than the sun This is the story of Ashley s development to manhood from age four to seventy and his ultimate sacrifice to save both worlds C J Harvey The Holocaust: A Guide to Europe's Sites, Memorials and Museums Rosie Whitehouse,2024-10-04

Bishop Jakes shows us how we can lead an emotionally vital and spiritually healthy life by learning how to forgive and be forgiven Our inability to forgive past offenses robs us of joy peace and purpose poisoning our souls with lethal toxins that drain every area of our life Just as seemingly harmless carefree moments spent basking in sunshine can lead to the development of a malignant melanoma the grudges we harbour can metastasize into a cancer on our souls eating away at our strength happiness and productivity If we want to experience a life filled with peace productivity and power then we must practice the art of forgiveness In order to practice forgiveness we must learn new styles of conflict resolution and new forms of anger management Aware of God s amazing grace we can now ask him to forgive us as we forgive those who trespass against us We can love others out of an awareness of how we ourselves have been forgiven by God and loved unconditionally as his child Chapter titles include Cancer of the Soul Offenses Do Come Where Did This Come From Silence Doesn t Mean Consent The Power of a Pure Heart Write It Off Trust Doesn t Come Easy Recovery Rate Uprooted Available for What s Next Forgiven for Good oppression but also to take up new opportunities The approach to the writing is based on the time honoured Jewish tradition of older family members passing on their life stories and insights to younger ones as one way of keeping the family culture alive The book looks back at those who lived many years ago during the nineteenth century in the days when the family was establishing itself in Europe particularly in the Russian Pale and in Germany These stories are combined with those of his more recent relatives who travelled in Europe but also as far away as Israel and Australia to find safe havens from oppression or to make better lives for themselves How all these changes affected their perceptions of their identity is a central theme running through the book as are the influence of the places they lived in and how they remembered their life stories The book focuses heavily on the author s parents David and Hanna and their individual families But Daniel Tabor brings in the life stories of other relatives on both sides of his family too Overall the author has brought together the stories of twenty members of his family While there are tales of sadness there are also many tales of joy as the family members set about making the most of their lives dealing with numerous challenges thrown in their path displaying perseverance resilience courage and determination along the way The book is written in an engaging anecdotal style and includes many evocative family testimonies and photos providing a vivid picture of life in times gone by The Telling will appeal to those interested in Jewish history in general Jewish family histories the Holocaust the formation and development of the modern state of Israel the topic of people migration and also those interested in how others have overcome significant adversity to make a better life for themselves

.... My Thanks to You ! Jack Coppard, 2015-04-02 When starting this story some three years ago I was never sure whether I had the ability or the stomach to awaken all of my past memories but Im glad that I did I am also conscious of the fact that the written word is a very powerful tool and with this in mind I have stuck to the truth however painful at times but equally uplifting and amusing I have tried not to become judge and jury and have been mindful of the fact that most of the people I have written about are dead and therefore unable to defend themselves or give themselves a pat on the back These memories have been written as seen through my eyes only and are as correct as my memory recalls luckily Ive been blessed with a very good memory For those who have followed my story from its start you will recall that my Mother died during the early years of World War Two and that I had always felt that the full details of her passing contained a degree of mystery The family always seemed to keep me in the dark and when the cause of death was revealed to me I understood why
