Experiment Investigating the Use of Multimedia Book Reviews to Increase Elementary Students' Independent Reading David Reinking, 1996 The Making of a Marchioness + The Shuttle (2 Unabridged Classic Romances) Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2023-12-19 In The Making of a Marchioness and The Shuttle Frances Hodgson Burnett intertwines romance and social commentary through a rich tapestry of characters and emotional depth The dual narratives spotlight the transformation of ordinary women into figures of social prominence capturing the intricate dynamics of class and ambition in Victorian England Burnett's vivid prose and attention to detail create a compelling literary experience resonating with the themes of personal agency and societal expectations that echo throughout her oeuvre Frances Hodgson Burnett a celebrated author of the late 19th century was deeply influenced by her own experiences as an immigrant and a woman navigating the complexities of gender and class Her background shaped her sensitivity to the struggles faced by her characters often reflecting her own aspirations and challenges Notably her works reveal an underlying critique of the rigid social hierarchy which she subverts by allowing her heroines to claim their identities and desires in the face of adversity This collection is highly recommended for readers who appreciate classic literature that intricately examines the intersection of love social status and personal growth Burnett's insightful storytelling not only provides a window into a bygone era but also offers timeless reflections on the pursuit of happiness and fulfillment David Lean Lydia Goehr, 2025-07-10 David Lean's extraordinary films work philosophically through the modern reproductive and transportive technologies of sight and sound through trains planes ships and automobiles from one perspective and through the modern technology of the radio and gramophone from another Lean's musical motifs are known worldwide Lara's theme in Zhivago the Colonel Bogey March in Kwai Estella's motif in Great Expectations Rosy's motif in Ryan's Daughter Lawrence's motif for his adventure in Arabia and of course Rachmaninoff's pounding chords in Brief Encounter. When however Lean described his cutting of pictures as akin to how music flows through pictures, what sort of music or musicality had he in mind? A classical or popular music or a way of using musical form to mix up the meaning and material of his films. Lydia Goehr's new book tracks the soundscape in Lean's films not only through the musical scores composed for the films but also and more through the technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean's career were becoming indispensable household items for the home. The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early more domestic films locally situated in the English home to the later more extensive epics of colony, commonwealth and empire. The fidelity/infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty/betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace, after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter's art. Here as few other books on Lean have emphasized the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated. Live Your Best Life

They thought these were issues that they need to live with as they aged. Enter Doctor Dua, an experienced gynecologist who takes all of them under her wing and helps them understand and deal with their individual symptoms and more. From physically taking care of oneself to mental adjustments, she changes their perception from the fear of Menopause to treating it as another phase in their lives, one which they can enjoy uninhibited. Live Your Best Life is a gentle, friendly guide to negotiating Menopause and living a fulfilling life both in body and in mind. Nickelodeon, 1918. The Epic Films of David Lean. Constantine Santas, 2012.
