Peasant Art in Roumania George Oprescu, 2013-06      Roumanian Peasant Art. [With Illustrations.]. ROMANIAN PEASANT ART., 1930*      Peasant Art in Roumania George Oprescu, 1929      Romanian Peasant Houses and Households Georgeta Stoica, 1984      Periodization in the Art Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup, Magdalena Kunińska, Mihnea Alexandru Mihail, Anna Adashinskaya, Cosmin Minea, 2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book's approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography It will be of interest to scholars working in art history historiography and European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license      Romania, 1971      Romanian Folklore and Folk Art Paul H. Transylvanian Vampires Adriana Groza, 2014-02-28 Authentic vampire tales exist in Transylvanian folklore yet the Transylvanian vampire is nothing like the bloodthirsty count of Bram Stoker's imagination or the romantic hero of popular fiction The Romanian tradition reflects the norms of peasant life and wisdom embedded in age old communities This book consists of 21 narratives developed from brief accounts recorded by local anthropologists and historians from the late 19th and early 20th centuries The goal is to capture the major themes found in the existing sources The book also includes translations of 17 brief folk stories about Vlad epe known as Dracula Contrary to the prevailing fictive image these stories portray Vlad as a wise although strict ruler and a proud defender of his country's autonomy An introduction discusses the Transylvanian village and its rich folk traditions making explicit the comparison to the historic and to the fictional Dracula

Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei, 2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism 1960-1989 and latterly consumerist society and its global market It investigates the critical tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post communist Romania In doing so it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe

The Porous Museum Gabriela Nicolescu, 2023-07-27 The Porous Museum examines questions of museum practice aesthetics and politics through a focused study of The National Museum of the Romanian Peasant in Bucharest The museum has functioned successively as a museum of art a communist museum the headquarters of the communist secret police and a museum of folk art Gabriela Nicolescu traces the museum's spectacular biography and follows the transformation of its practices and aesthetics through three very different political regimes in the 20th and early 21st century monarchist socialist and post socialist Nicolescu's fascinating study starts with a focus on a dumped and smashed statue of the revolutionary figureheads Marx Engels and Lenin in the museum's rear yard as an expression of the complicated journey of modern Romania She considers questions of recycling and rupture with some exhibits and practices carried over from one regime to another whilst others have been discarded in favour of the completely new Through this process the museum can be seen as a microcosm of the wider nation state and the ways in which the past is remembered or rejected The interdependency of politics ethics and aesthetics that Nicolescu terms porosity is an attribute of museums all over the world Applying original anthropological research to key ethnographic museums in Romania and elsewhere in Europe the book moves beyond regional and media stereotypes by arguing for the influence of local oral histories on national history

The Philosophy of Art History (Routledge Revivals) Arnold Hauser, 2018-12-07 First published in 1959 this book is concerned with the methodology of art history and so with questions about historical thinking it enquires what scientific history of art can accomplish what are its means and limitations It contains philosophical reflections on history and begins with chapters on the scope and limitations of a sociology of art and the concept of ideology in the history of art The chapter on the concept of art history without names occupies the central position in the book thoroughly discussing the basic philosophical outlook for the whole work There are also further chapters on psychoanalysis folk art and popular art The chapter on the role of convention in the history of art points the way for further study
