Round the Horne ,2004-04-01 Round the Horne is the classic BBC radio comedy series which took comedy to a new level of outrageousness in the late 1960s Kenneth Horne is the suave host whilst around him orbit those no holds barred satellites Kenneth Williams Betty Marsden Hugh Paddick and Bill Pertwee A 1960s Childhood Paul Feeney,2010-12-26 Do you remember Beatlemania Radio Caroline Mods and Rockers The very first miniskirts Then the chances are you were born in the or around 1960 To the young people of today the 1960s seems like another age But for those who grew up in this decade school life mod fashions and sixties pop music are still fresh in their minds From James Bond to Cindy dolls and playing hopscotch in the street life was very different to how it is now After the tough and frugal years of the fifties the sixties was a boom period a time of changed attitudes and improved lifestyles With chapters on home and school life games and hobbies music and fashion alongside a selection of charming illustrations this delightful compendium of memories will appeal to all who grew up in this lively era Take a nostalgic look at what it was like to grow up during the sixties and recapture all aspects of life back then PAUL FEENEY is a writer and part time business consultant He has also written a local history of Highgate and A 1950s Childhood from Tin Baths to Bread and Dripping He lives in Surrey If you grew up in the Swinging Sixties you ll love Paul Feeney s A 1960s Childhood Reviewed in Yours Magazine 23rd Feb 10 The author captures the atmosphere and furniture of the Sixties to perfection even recreating a typical family Christmas of the time Whether you were a child or an adult in that most eventful decade this excellent book with charming black and white illustrations will throw up lots of talking points Reviewed in This England Summer 2010 edition Historical Dictionary of British Radio Seán Street,2015-04-21 The story of British radio begins long before the birth of the British Broadcasting Company BBC in 1922 This book aims to tell this story through its component parts the makers the programs and the policies that together shaped the development of a system of broadcasting grounded initially in a public service ethic and subsequently struggling toward an at times uneasy balance of public and commercial radio The last ten years of UK radio history have contained more drama change and development than in all its previous history This second edition of Historical Dictionary of British Radio covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on issues characters movements and policies that have shaped radio in the United Kingdom This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about British Radio BBC Music Magazine ,2007 Glitterball Yasmin Wilde,2022-09-22 More Bassey than Bhangra Sonia s life has always been a bit of a double act brought up as one half of a Shirley Bassey tribute act Alongside her overbearing mother Gloria she left a trail of sequins across the working men s clubs of East Anglia Now she s divorced battling through the middle age jungle wrangling unimpressed teenagers and navigating rocky friendships But the arrival of her half brother Naim brings a refreshed sense of belonging and cultural identity and she begins to piece together the mosaic of her life Can Sonia shake off the past even with her ever present mother keeping the show on the road from beyond the grave Glitterball is a play with live music wry humour and a whole lotta sparkle This edition was published to coincide with the first run produced by Rifco Theatre and Watford Palace Theatre at Watford Palace Theatre in September 2022

Radio Broadcasting Gordon Bathgate, 2020-11-23 An in depth look at a century of radio history and its continuing relevance in a radically changed world A century after Marconi's experimental transmissions this book examines the history of radio and traces its development from theories advanced by James Clerk Maxwell and Heinrich Hertz to the first practical demonstrations by Guglielmo Marconi It looks back to the pioneering broadcasts of the BBC examines the development of broadcast networks in North America and around the world and spotlights radio's role in the Second World War The book also features the radio programs and radio personalities that made a considerable impact on listeners during the Golden Era It examines how radio faced by competition from television adapted and survived Indeed radio has continued to thrive despite increased competition from mobile phones computers and other technological developments Radio Broadcasting looks ahead and speculates on how radio will fare in a multi platform future

Patrick White Beyond the Grave Ian Henderson, Anouk Lang, 2015-08-15 Patrick White 1912-1990 won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1973 and remains one of Australia's most celebrated writers In 2006 White's literary executor Barbara Mobbs released a highly significant collection of hitherto unpublished papers reviving mainstream and scholarly interest in his work Patrick White Beyond the Grave considers White's writing in light of the new findings acknowledging his homosexuality in relation to the development of his literary style examining the way he engages his readers and contextualizing his life and oeuvre in relation to London and to London life Thought provoking this collection of original essays represents the work of an outstanding list of White scholars from around the globe and will no doubt inspire further work on White from a rising generation of scholars of twentieth century literature beyond Australia

Round Mr Horne Barry Johnston, 2013-07-08 When Kenneth Horne died in 1969 at the age of 61 he was described as the last of the truly great radio comics In a broadcasting career spanning more than 25 years he starred in three of the most popular radio comedy series of all time Much Binding in the Marsh Beyond Our Ken and Round the Horne Born in 1907 Horne was the youngest of seven children of a Congregationalist preacher and MP He won a half blue for tennis at Cambridge but was sent down for failing his exams In 1939 he joined the RAF and rose to the rank of Wing Commander before he broke into broadcasting after compeering a troop concert on the BBC With his brother officer Richard Dickie Murdoch he created the hugely popular Much Binding in the Marsh set on a remote RAF station somewhere in England which ran for ten years After leaving the RAF he successfully combined two careers as a businessman and a broadcaster until he suffered a stroke in 1958 and had to cut short his business career During his convalescence he helped to devise the legendary radio series Beyond Our Ken in which he presided amiably over a cast of anarchic characters played by Kenneth Williams Hugh Paddick Betty Marsden and Bill Pertwee This was followed by Round the Horne which has been called the funniest comedy series in radio history In 1969

Kenneth Horne collapsed and died on stage while presenting a television awards programme
