Routes to Roots Icy Kwok,2003 The Chinese Face in Australia Lucille Lok-Sun Ngan,Chan Kwok-bun,2012-06-07

The book explains how multi generational Australian born Chinese ABC negotiate the balance of two cultures It explores both the philosophical and theoretical levels focusing on deconstructing and re evaluating the concept of Chineseness At a social and experiential level it concentrates on how successive generations of early migrants experience negotiate and express their Chinese identity The diasporic literature has taken up the idea of hybrid identity construction largely in relation to first and second generation migrants and to the sojourner s sense of roots in a diasporic setting somewhat lost in the debate over Chinese diasporas and identities are the experiences of long term migrant communities Their experiences are usually discussed in terms of the melting pot concepts of assimilation and integration that assume ethnic identification decreases and eventually disappears over successive generations Based on ethnography fieldwork and participant observation on multi generational Australian born Chinese whose families have resided in Australia from three to six generations this study reveals a contrasting picture of ethnic identification Chinese Adolescents in Britain and Hong Kong Gajendra

Hinnells,2005-04-28 What is the distinctive Zoroastrian experience and what is the common diasporic experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora is the outcome of twenty years of research and of archival and fieldwork in eleven countries involving approximately 250 000 miles of travel It has also involved a survey questionnaire in eight countries yielding over 1 840 responses This is the first book to attempt a global comparison of Diaspora groups in six continents Little has been written about Zoroastrian communities as far apart as China East Africa Europe America and Australia or on Parsis in Mumbai post Independence Each chapter is based on unused original sources ranging from nineteenth century archives to contemporary newsletters The book also includes studies of Zoroastrians on the Internet audio visual resources and the modern development of Parsinovels in English As well as studying the Zoroastrians for their own inherent importance this book contextualizes the Zoroastrian migrations within contemporary debates on Diaspora studies John R Hinnells examines what it is like to be a religious Asian in Los Angeles or London Sydney or Hong Kong Moreover he explores not only how experience differs from one country to another but also the differences between cities in the same country for example Chicago and Houston The survey data is used firstly to consider the distinguishing demographic features of the Zoroastrian communities in various countries and secondly to analyse different patterns of assimilation between different groups men and women and according to the level and type of education Comparisons are also drawn between people from rural and urban backgrounds and between generations in religious beliefs and practices including the preservation of secular culture Elihu Root

Collection of United States Documents Relating to the Philippine Islands ,1907 The Jews of Africa and Asia:

Contemporary Anti-Semitism and other pressures Tudor Parfitt,1987-11-01 The archetypal oppressed minority For centuries Jews have lived in Africa and Asia including the Middle East Over recent decades however their numbers have declined dramatically and in countries like Syria Iraq Iran Egypt and Morocco have been reduced sometimes to only a few hundred people Within a few generations these and other communities are likely to disappear altogether either because of the attraction that Israel provides or because of overt anti Semitic animosity For many there is a precarious balance between survival and persecution Persecution of Jews by a variety of host societies permeates history and continents In Europe anti Jewish prejudice existed in Greek and Roman times and later the Christian church waged ideological warfare for centuries against the synagogue Wide scale and violent destruction of Jewish lives and property erupted periodically especially in troubled times when people looked for scapegoats Waves of European Christian anti Semitism spread to many countries chiefly to areas of the Islamic world where traditional social and religious attitudes towards Jews provided fertile soil for discrimination Under Islam the State was required to protect Jews but they were nearly always reduced to second class citizens Alarming anti Semitic hostility has recently spread to countries where Jews have never lived and are virtually unknown such as in Japan By contrast there are a few countries in which small and less historic Jewish communities continue without discrimination The Jews of Africa and Asia the new Minority Rights Group Report provides an historical analysis of European and Islamic experiences of anti Jewish prejudice and persecution and the rise of contemporary anti Zionism The Report gives a graphic detailed picture of the current situations of Jewish communities remaining in Africa and Asia in a country by country survey It is essential reading for all those concerned with racism and history Living Transnationally between Japan and Brazil Sarah A. LeBaron von Baeyer,2019-11-29 Based on over two years of participant observation in labor brokerage firms factories schools churches and people s homes in Japan and Brazil Sarah LeBaron von Baeyer presents an ethnographic portrait of what it means in practice to live transnationally that is to contend with the social institutional and aspirational landscapes bridging different national settings Rather than view Japanese Brazilian labor migrants and their families as somehow lost or caught between cultures she demonstrates how they in fact find creative and flexible ways of belonging to multiple places at once At the same time the author pays close attention to the various constraints and possibilities that people face as they navigate other dimensions of their lives besides ethnic or national identity namely family gender class age work education and religion
