Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine ,1905 The British Adventure Hero Leo Hall,2025-07-26 This book explores the construction of the fin de siècle adventure hero set against a romanticised vision of the past and a nostalgic ideal of gentlemanliness but also forward looking in terms of forging a future for Britain through the imperialist dream The British Adventure Hero offers a unique focus on how the adventure hero's masculinity is shaped by Victorian industrial technological and scientific developments which influenced concepts of national identity both psychologically and physiologically Central to exploring the relationship between the adventure hero and industrialisation are the original illustrations that were printed with the stories in periodicals and the first illustrated editions This approach to studying the partnership between both text and illustrations demonstrates that the adventure story is a paradox an outcome of invention scientific technological and industrial progress yet also a supposed escape from nineteenth century industrial modernity The book traces this context through analysis of Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island 1883 Arthur Conan Doyle's The Lost World 1912 Jules Verne's Around the World in Eighty Days 1873 and Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan of the Apes 1912 Significantly the book also examines how these authors' perspectives on the idealised English identities of their heroes are informed by their Scottish French and American nationalities Gardner's New Orleans Directory for 18 ,1866 Phila Magazine's Ultimate Restaurant Gde April White,2004-08 Profiles Philadelphia's chefs and restaurant owners including Le Bec Fin's Georges Perrier and restaurant mogul Stephen Starr This book provides a look at the Philadelphia food purveyors who are responsible for some of the nation's hottest food trends from La Colombe coffee to Metropolitan Bakery's artisanal breads to Jubilee Chocolates Roux Magazine 3 Carrie Adkins,2005-05-28 Issue 3 of ROUX Magazine features exciting new poetry and prose from authors William Kumbier Rich Murphy James Reed J E Keats Carol K Howell James F Gaines Susan Bramble Murphy Yvette A Schnoeker Shorb Steven R Roberts and many others e-Infrastructure and e-Services for Developing Countries Karl Jonas,Ildris A. Australian Museum,1898 The Epigenetic Nature of Early Chordate Development Pieter D. Nieuwkoop,A. G. Johnen,B. Albers,1985-08-15 This volume summarises our present knowledge of inductive interaction during early development of various groups of chordates Embryonic development is mainly epigenetic that is each embryo arises through gradual organisation and emergence of its constituent parts and not by the unfolding of preformed structures Development as far as the full development of the body plan in the embryo is described At the beginning of development there is only very restricted spatial diversity but as development proceeds the interaction of the different parts leads to ever increasing spatial complexity of the developing embryo Interaction starts between the different cell organelles of the oocyte and the spermatozoon it continues without interruption between the different parts of the very early embryo and also between the different tissues and organ anlagen of the developing embryo The new hypothesis as to the nature of the inductive interaction which is postulated here is in good agreement with the experimental evidence presented and opens new possibilities for fruitful research into this basic concept of embryonic development Report of the Trustees of the Australian Museum for the Year Ended 30 June ...
